HARRIMAN'S PREPARATIONS.

It is evident that large railroad affairs are being adjusted in a manner to admit of relief for Central Oregon. Nothing has yet transpired having a direct bearing on our railroad prospects but the indirect indications are strong and the definite announcement any day of a railroad line for the Deschutes valley need not occasion surprise. This will be no "jerkwater" road, either, if events in the railway world are to be trusted. It will be a large transportation enterprise and it will mean the bisecting of the state, one way or the other.

Harriman recently obtained $11,000,000 from Senator Clark and his associates for turning over a stretch of the Oregon Short Line in Utah. The Union Pacific is just now in the act of marketing $70,000,000 of bonds, the proceeds of which, it is announced, are to be used in providing new lines in the far West. Here Harriman will have more than $20,000,000 in cash that is applicable to railroad construction. It is not at all likely that he would accumulate so great a sum without some definite idea of using it, for it doesn't pay to keep large amounts of money idle.

There is room to doubt that the line which will give relief to the Deschutes valley will pass north and south. As time passes, the indications become stronger and stronger that the railroad to Bend will be an east and west line and that it will give us an outlet to the Eastern market as well as to Portland. We can find no fault with that. And there is no reasonable ground for doubting that Harriman, with his treasury full of money, with the Keene suits against his Southern Pacific control withdrawn, with a freer hand in the Pacific Northwest by reason of the dissolution of the Northern Securities Company, will now look after important interests in this quarter of the world.

John Steidl is expected back from Minnesota in about two weeks.

Business at the Pilot Butte Inn is very active, though this is the dull dogdays season. The hotel and livery stable have had all they could attend to in the past week.

Charley Stanburrough and Charley Wilson spent today repairing some bad spots in the Prineville road, over which the big boiler for the new mill of the P. B. D. Co. is now due.

The case of the contested school election that was to have been heard by Judge Bradshaw in chambers at The Dalles last Monday, has been postponed a few weeks on account of the absence of the judge.

The Reception Saloon, Shaniko, offers the most tempting inducements to timber locators going into the woods. The very best brands of whiskies, such as Cyrus Noble, Old Pepper, Hunter Baltimore Rye and other standard goods, always to be had here. Call at the Reception.

Bob, the fine dog belonging to A. H. Grant, died last night from poison. Oxt, the dog belonging to A. H. Kennedy, showed symptoms of poisoning Thursday and today. It was at first supposed that the poison was administered by some one interested in doing away with watchdogs. Upon inquiry, however, it was ascertained that Mrs. Komer, S. H. Dorrance's housekeeper, had put out poison for chipmunks, putting powdered strychnine in flour and on crusts of bread, lettuce leaves, etc., placed where the little rodents would be likely to get it. Many of them did get it and died. It is apparent that the dogs also got some of the poison which was not properly guarded. Upon discovery of the source of the trouble steps were taken to abate it at once. The Grants are much distressed over the loss of their valuable dog.

POPULATION OF BEND. Two Hundred and Fifty Persons Resident Here--The Names.

About 250 persons now reside at Bend. This does not mean merely those at the Bend townsite, but includes those at Sisemore's, Deschutes and Lytle also, those included in the comprehensive community known for years as Bend. Neither does it include those staying here for a few days only. It is the actual resident population, as nearly as can be ascertained. Doubtless a number have been overlooked in so hasty a compilation. Of course, a great many more people get mail here, including a considerable settlement at the Tumello ditch, but none who do not make headquarters in or about the town are in the list of residents, which here follows:
