

Dragged-Down Feeling

In the loins.
Nervousness, unrefreshing sleep, despondency.

It is time you were doing something. The kidneys were anciently called the reins—in your case they are holding the reins and driving you into serious trouble.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Acts with the most direct, beneficial effect on the kidneys. It contains the best and safest substances for correcting and toning these organs.

A Good Reason.

Mrs. Greene—What do you have an alarm clock in your chamber for if you don't have the alarm wound up?

Mrs. Gray—If you could have heard the awful things my husband said when the alarm went off, you wouldn't ask me.

FITS Permanently Cured. No more nervousness after first day's use of Dr. Kline's Great Nerve Restorer. Read for Free 24 trial bottles and treatise. Dr. M. H. Kline, Ltd., 531 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Nine Peas in a Pod.

When a maiden is shelling peas, according to an old superstition, she should if she find a pod with nine peas in it put it over the house door. Then the first young man to enter the house through the door will marry her.

His Narrow Logic.

"If I had my way," said the man of high principles, "there would be no money in politics."

"But," said Senator Sorghum, "if you didn't put any money in politics it isn't likely you could have your way."

An Odd Contrast.

It is a curious fact that, whereas in Italy the educated classes are physically greatly inferior to the peasants, in England members of the learned societies are physically superior to the laboring classes.

Cause for Jay.

Mamma—Yes, the slopers have been discovered at Niagara Falls. They are going to telegraph home for forgiveness.

Papa—Thank goodness! I thought they were going to telegraph home for funds.

Pride.
Von Forker—Aren't you satisfied with that ante-nuptial agreement?
Lord Grafton—I don't want to lose my self-respect after marriage by having to run to my wife for every thousand.—Life.

Rivals in Misfortune.

People are often proud of the properties to which they are heirs, but surely few landed estates are so vaunted, few castles are so boasted about, as are the hills to which the flesh is heir. Human nature fairly revels in its misfortunes, and this revelry leads to rivalry and to many complications. None is so proud, none is so jealous, as your traveling invalid.—London Queen.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething season.

The Cheerful Giver.

"Ya-s, brer'en," said Bre'r Jasper, as he closed the book, "Do Lawd lub de cheerful giver. Las' Sun'y Bre'r Jenkins dun gib fifty cents to pay fo' whitewashin' de pastor's fence, an' de Lawd lub him so he dun took him home to glory today."

Piso's Cure is a good cough medicine. It has cured coughs and colds for forty years. At druggists, 25 cents.

Putting Her Right.

"That man with the bird cage on his face," remarked the beautiful girl in the grand stand to her escort, "just yelled 'foul,' but I can't see even a feather."

"Of course not," replied the wise guy who had steered her up against the game, "both of the sides are picked. See?"—Chicago News.

His Conscience Troubled Him.

"Look here, are you the man I gave a square meal to one cold, bleak February morning?" "I'm the man, mum." "Well, do you remember you promised to shovel all the snow out of my back yard and then sneaked off without doing it?" "Yes, mum, an' me conscience smote me. Dat's de reason I tramped all de way here t'rough de blazin' sun to finish de job."

Long Fasts.

A physician in Georgia is said to have completed a fifty days' fast, undertaken to cure a severe case of dyspepsia. During the fast the doctor attended to his professional duties and took daily walks. The longest fast on record is said to have been one of sixty-three days.

What Did She Mean.

She—And are you really so much better since you returned from your trip abroad?

He—Yes, indeed; I'm quite another man, I assure you.

She—Well, I'm sure all your friends will be delighted to hear it.—Chicago News.

Shoes and the Feet.

"Maudie, dear, those shoes look tight. How do they feel on your feet?"

"Perfectly comfortable, mamma." (To herself) "If she had asked me how my feet felt in the shoes she would have had me."

She—Mamma says I mustn't encourage you at all. He—That's all right. I don't need any encouragement.—Philadelphia Press.

Ample: Ada—Do you get much exercise? May—Why, yes. I have no maid, and I have a waist that buttons in the back.—Judge.

Equivoical: She—Do you remember before we were married, dear? He—Why, it's among my happiest recollections.—Yonkers Statesman.

Hobson's Choice: Guest (in cheap restaurant)—Well, waiter, what have you got? Waiter—Beefsteak and fish—but the fish is all out. Which'll you have?—Chicago News.

"I heard to-day that your son was an undertaker. I thought you told me he was a physician." "Not at all." "I don't like to contradict, but I'm positive you did say so." "You misunderstood me. I said he followed the medical profession."—Philadelphia Press.

Jack—I hear you are going to marry Miss Prettyun. Permit me to congratulate you on your excellent taste. Tom—But the engagement is off. I'm not going to marry her or any one else. Jack—Indeed! Then allow me to congratulate you on your good sense.—Chicago Evening Post.

Just Like Real Lovers: Miss Romanz—Of course, you've read that new love-story of his? Mr. Crabbe (reviewer)—Yes; I had to. Very realistic, wasn't it? Miss Romanz—Oh, the idea! Why, the dialogue between the lovers was perfectly silly. Mr. Crabbe—Well?—Philadelphia Press.

Guest (angrily)—Look here, landlord, I'm heartily tired of the way you do business here. Didn't you ever have a gentleman stop with you before? Landlord (gazing at him searchingly)—Hum! Are you a gentleman? Guest (more angrily)—Of course! Landlord (decidedly)—Then I never did.

A Feeling of Security: "I'm so surprised to hear your wife likes the house so much—it's so small." "Yes, but there are lots of closets in it." "True, but they're extremely small, too." "That's just it. My wife is satisfied that not one of them is big enough to hold a burglar."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Happy in the Assurance: She was going away. "Oh, John!" she sobbed, "John, are y-you quite sure you'll miss me?" "Darling," replied her big husband, "I'll miss you as much as I do the morning train." Thus assured she picked up her grip and, with a sweet smile, started for the seashore.—Chicago News.

Mrs. Subbubs—Henry, Bridget broke three of our very best plates to-day. Mr. Subbubs—Heavens! Could anything possible be worse! Mrs. Subbubs—She isn't as bad as it might be. She immediately hid the pieces, and if we can only look pleasant and pretend we know nothing about it, I think she'll stay.—Philadelphia Press.

"She Said Good-By." "Bid Me Good-By and Go." "I Don't Care if You Never Come Back." "Toot's Good-By." "Fare Thee Well, for I Must Leave Thee." "Take Your Clothes and Go." "I Will Return Again."

Free Medical Advice to Women.

Every sick and ailing woman.
Every young girl who suffers monthly.
Every woman who is approaching maternity.
Every woman who feels that life is a burden.
Every woman who has tried all other means to regain health without success.
Every woman who is going through that critical time—the change of life—is invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., in regard to her trouble, and the most expert advice telling exactly how to obtain a CURE will be sent absolutely free of cost.

The one thing that qualifies a person to give advice on any subject is experience—experience creates knowledge.

No other person has so wide an experience with female ills nor such a record of success as Mrs. Pinkham has had.

Over a hundred thousand cases come before her each year. Some personally, others by mail. And this has been going on for twenty years, day after day, and day after day.

Twenty years of constant success—think of the knowledge thus gained! Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman with such an experience, especially when it is free.

Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, wrote to Mrs. Pinkham when she was in great trouble. Her letter shows the result. There are actually thousands of such letters in Mrs. Pinkham's possession.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under doctors' treatment for female troubles for some time, but without any relief. They now tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, I cannot wear my clothes with any comfort. Womb is dreadfully swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. "The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor, given in your little book, accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 233 Dudley St. (Boston), Roxbury, Mass.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wrote to you describing my symptoms, and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully for several months, and to-day I am a well woman. "The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, together with your advice, carefully followed, entirely expelled the tumor, and strengthened the whole system. I can walk miles now. "Your Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors, or any female trouble, to write you for advice, and give it a faithful trial."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 233 Dudley St. (Boston), Roxbury, Mass.

Mrs. Hayes will gladly answer any and all letters that may be addressed to her asking about her illness, and how Mrs. Pinkham helped her.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letter and signature of above testimonial, which will prove its absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Expressive Face.

He—That bull terrier of yours has a speaking countenance, hasn't he?

She—Do you think so?

He—Yes. It says to me as plainly as words could, "Beware of the dog."

Dick—These folks next door have an awful good time.

Dora—How?

Dick—Oh, they don't have to go anywhere, and they don't entertain.—Exchange.

Anticipating Him.

"Jenkins, I believe you have some of the elements of success about you."

"Not a dollar, old man. Honor bright. You'd be welcome to it if I had it."—Stray Stories.

Not in Character.

Visitor (behind the scenes at the circus)—What is that fearful noise?

Attendant—Oh, dat's de human skeleton a-beatin' of his wife.

Visitor—Poor woman, how she cries for mercy. I bet she's a frail weak thing.

Attendant—Well, hardly. She do de great female Hercules act wid de 750 pound dumbbells.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

RHEUMATISM

An All the Year Round Disease.

Rheumatism does not come and go with winter time always; in fact some suffer more during the Spring and Summer than at any other season. When the blood is charged with Uric Acid, Alkali and other irritating poisons, then the system is in the right condition for Rheumatism to develop, and an attack is liable to come at any time, Winter or Summer.

Rheumatism, because it attacks different parts of the body, and is sudden or slow in its action, is given various names such as acute and chronic, muscular, articular, inflammatory, mercurial and sciatic, but it is the same old acid blood that causes all. Some are constant sufferers, while others have only occasional spells of Rheumatism, but either kind is wearing upon the constitution, and in time produces stiffness in the muscles and joints, and the blood settle upon the valves of the heart and ends suddenly and fatally.

It won't do to let Rheumatism run on. It is a dangerous disease, and you can never tell where it is going to strike. Home remedies, plasters, liniments and such things as produce counter-irritation, are soothing and may relieve the pain temporarily, but the polluted, acid blood cannot be reached by external applications.

Rheumatism must be treated through the blood, and no remedy brings such prompt and lasting relief as S. S. S. It attacks the disease in the blood, neutralizes the acids, and removes all irritating poisons and effete matter from the system.

S. S. S. strengthens and enriches the thin acid blood, and, as it circulates through the body, the corroding, gnawing poisons and acid deposits are dislodged and washed out of the muscles and joints, and the sufferer is happily relieved from the discomforts and misery of Rheumatism.

S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, does not contain any Potash or mineral of any kind, and can be taken with safety by old and young.

Rheumatic sufferers who write us about their case will receive valuable aid and helpful advice from our physicians, for which no charge is made. We will mail free our special book on Rheumatism, which is the result of years of practical experience in treating this disease. It contains much interesting information about all kinds of Rheumatism.
