

Bad Coughs

"I had a bad cough for six weeks and could find no relief until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Only one-fourth of the bottle cured me."
L. Hawn, Newington, Ont.

Neglected colds always lead to something serious. They run into chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, or consumption. Don't wait, but take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral just as soon as your cough begins. A few doses will cure you then.

Raise Bank Cashiers.

One hundred and twenty-one men who were born and reared at Owenton, Ky., have become cashiers of banks since setting out for themselves in the world. This fact was brought out at the funeral of Walter S. Gazle, the cashier of a local bank, who died last week. A number of the surviving cashiers of the town were present on the occasion.

HOUSEHOLD DEPARTMENT

Pickled Peas.
Pickled peas are recommended for a delicious winter relish. The ripest and most perfect fruit is called for. Pare and remove the blossom end. For every seven pounds of fruit allow a little more than half the weight of sugar, a pint of cider vinegar and a cupful of water. The sugar, water and vinegar is made into a syrup with the addition of selected spices tied in a little bag. When this boils put in the peas, whole if they are small, halved if too large, and let them simmer gently for half or three-quarters of an hour. Lift them carefully into jars, boil the syrup until slightly thick and pour over the fruit.

Apple Batter Pudding.
An apple batter pudding is made by slicing tart apples into a deep dish, adding sugar and a little water, and baking until nearly tender enough. Prepare the batter by sifting together two cups of flour, three tablespoonfuls of baking powder and a little salt. Beat an egg and mix it with a cupful of milk, half a cupful of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of melted butter. Stir the flour into this mixture and pour the batter over the apples. Bake about twenty minutes and serve with whipped cream or a sweet sauce. This pudding may be made with berries, fresh or dried; peaches, or other fruit.

Baked Quinces.
Baked quinces are wholesome and delicious. Core and pare them and put them in an earthen dish. Fill the cavities with sugar and a little grated lemon rind. Add water in abundance, as the quince is a very dry fruit. Cover closely and bake in a moderate oven until tender and a fine red. Serve cold with whipped cream. Baked quinces and apples may also be used in combination, baking until very soft, or cored apples may be stuffed with bits of quince cooked tender and then baked with plenty of water in the baking dish.

Corn Pudding.
For a medium-sized corn pudding use the pulp of half a dozen ears of corn. Beat two eggs together, add half a teaspoonful of salt and one and one-half cups of milk. Stir in the corn pulp and bake the whole for about two hours in an earthenware pudding dish. Some people add a tablespoonful of sugar to the eggs in stirring them with the other ingredients. The pudding is served on the dinner table with the meat as a vegetable, and is excellent.

Chili Sauce.
For chili sauce use ripe tomatoes. To each eighteen allow two and one-half cups of vinegar, one cupful of sugar, chopped green peppers enough to make one cupful, three onions chopped fine, two tablespoonfuls of mixed ground spices—cloves, allspice and cinnamon. Boil all together until a rich sauce is formed and the flavors are so well blended that no one is especially distinguished from the rest. Pack in small jars and store in a cool place.

Soft Caramels.
One quart (or two pounds) of brown sugar, one-half pint of milk, one-third cup of butter, one-half cake of chocolate are the ingredients. Boil for soft caramels nine minutes, then remove from the fire and stir steadily for five minutes, but not until the mixture is so stiff that it will not pour into a pan. Mark off into squares. This candy will be rich and crumbly.

Short Suggestions.
Butter daintily molded and served on a tiny lettuce leaf is pleasing.
A spoonful of kerosene in boiled starch keeps it from sticking, but do not use enough to make it smell of the oil.
Scatter salt on a carpet when sweeping, and you will not only find it has a cleansing effect, but that it also keeps away moths.

A heaping teaspoonful of pulverized chocolate for each glass of lemonade makes chocolate lemonade, that is a change from the usual kind.
To prevent cheese becoming moldy, wrap it in a cloth which has been dipped in vinegar and wrung as dry as possible. Keep in a cool place.
Careful housewives always have extra covers of heavy muslin over the ticking of their pillows and mattresses, which are taken off at stated intervals and laundered.
Epicures declare that there is a natural affinity between the flavor of mint and peas, and both English and French cooks usually add a sprig of mint to every mess of peas.
To clean bamboo furniture, scrub it with a small brush dipped in warm water and salt, as the salt prevents its turning yellow. Treat Japanese and Indian matting in the same way.

A PROMINENT CHURCH WORKER SAYS SHE OWES HER LIFE TO PE-RU-NA.

Mrs. Hattie La Fountain, Tread, Protective Home Circle and Catholic Ladies of Ohio, writes from Gallen, O., as follows:

"After my first child was born I suffered for several months with bearing down pains accompanied by dreadful headaches. I was afraid my health was ruined for life, and felt very downcast about it. One day when a friend was visiting she told me of Peruna and what it had done for her when she suffered with irregular menstruation. My husband procured a bottle the same evening and I began to take it daily according to directions. Before the first bottle was used I was entirely well, and you certainly have one grateful woman's blessing. I have also advised my friends to use it."

Secretary Woman's State Federation Says: "Pe-ru-na Does More Than Is Claimed for It."

Mrs. Julia M. Brown, Secretary of the Woman's State Federation of California, writes from 131 1/2 Fifth St., Los Angeles, Cal., as follows:
"I have never known of any patent medicine which did what it professed to do except Peruna. This remedy does much more than it claims, and while I have never advocated any medicine I feel that it is but justice to speak a good word for it because I have found it to be such a rare exception.
"I have known several women who were little better than physical wrecks, mothers who dragged out a miserable, painful existence, but were made well and strong through the use of Peruna."

I have known of cases of chronic catarrh which were cured in a short time, when a dozen different remedies had been experimented with and without good results. I use it myself when I feel nervous and worn out, and I have always found that the results were most satisfactory."
JULIA M. BROWN.

HER GREAT FORTUNE A Woman Saved From Life-Long Misery and Made Happy and Useful.

any permanent improvement.
Her treatment had cost her husband who was a poor man, hundreds of dollars. They had been obliged to deny themselves many comforts of life in order to get money enough to pay the physicians.

The woman had become weak, nervous and wretched, and scarcely able to keep out of bed. Her children were growing up neglected and ragged, because of the want of a mother's care. Her husband was becoming discouraged and broken down with overwork.

Picking up the paper one day she happened to read an item which contained the news that Dr. Hartman would treat such cases free of charge by letter. She immediately wrote the doctor describing her case, and giving him all her symptoms.

She soon received a letter telling her exactly what to do, and what medicines and appliances to get. She began the treatment (the principal remedy being Peruna) at once, and in a few weeks she was well and strong again, able to do her own work.

This offer of free home treatment to women is still open to all who may need the services of this eminent physician. All letters applying for treatment will be promptly answered, and be held strictly confidential.

Miss Annie Hoban, Post Pocatontas of Yemassee Council of Red Men (Woman's Branch), writes from 872 Eighth Avenue, New York:

"Three months ago I was troubled with backache and a troublesome heaviness about the stomach. Sleep brought me no rest for it was a restless sleep. The doctor said my nervous system was out of order but his prescriptions didn't seem to relieve me. I was told that Peruna was good for building up the nervous system. After using it for two months I know now that it is. I want to say that it made a new woman of me. The torturing symptoms have all disappeared and I feel myself again. Peruna did me more good than all the other medicines I have taken."
ANNIE HOBAN.

Miss Mamie Powell, Lake Charles, Louisiana, writes:

"I sincerely believe that Peruna is woman's best friend, for it has certainly been that to me. I had had headaches, backaches and other aches every month for a long time, but shortly after I began taking Peruna this was a thing of the past, and I have good reason to be grateful. I take a bottle every spring and fall now, and that keeps my health perfect, and I certainly am more robust now than I have been before and am weighing more. I do not think anyone will be disappointed in the results obtained from the use of Peruna."
MISS MAMIE POWELL.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
