En'ered March 16, 1903, at Deschutes, Oregon.

PUBLISHED HYERY PRIDAY.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES: One year Six months Three months. (Invariably in advance)	31

Fourth of July Meeting.

Everybody interested in celebration of the Fourth of July at Bend is invited to meet at the Pilot Butte Inn next Tuesday evening to consider ways and means and the scope and manner of the celebration.

The state land board came and saw and was conquered:

Vote your intelligence, not your prejudices, next Monday,

Mr. Boegli has made an efficient pushing the Russians back into velt for re-election. Oregon's four untrue, and contains language, inthat that fortress will soon be in ure in the electoral college of 476, possession of the energetic little but now her influence is great. islanders.

ly against the division of Crook county. What could have been the motive of Judge Booth in representing that that was the issue between administration is desired. Capthem? Did he do it for the express ital has not forgotten what the purpose of putting Judge Laycock change of 1893 brought and it in a false light?

roads and bridges, no boarding of folly. money in the public treasury, lower

Every member of the state land board promised to come back to Bend within two years. Two years from next Monday a governor, a secretary of state and a state treasurer are to be elected in Oregon and the 5000 people then living in much to say about it.

Charles A. Gilchrist is a man of good principles, a clean and able thinker, a man of substantial property interests and a citizen bound by every tie of private and public fortune to the highest interests of the people at large. He is a clean, broad man and the voters will ful canvass has determined to my and untruths circulated on the eve make no mistake by putting him satisfaction that the business inter- of election will be stamped out, I in the office of county clerk.

of the crime of murder in the first elected state senator, I shall obey degree must have a wholesome effect the wishes of the majority in this in all ways. There was nobody to and every case, and work for our this week. The foundation is see him murder two defenseless Crook's unity and the welfare of gun this week. The foundation is women in the Hood river wilderness, nobody in Oregon was acquainted with his unsavory record in the East. But it all came out, Williams unconsciously betraying himself by his conduct,

Fourteen thousand dollars hoarded in the county road fund to be liberated on the eve of election as a campaign argument may be an astute political device, but will it go? Taxpayers are not fond of paying money into the public treasury to be used for partisan campaigning. They would rather have the money spent on the roads, where it belongs, for the good of all. Our democratic brethren have certainly "helped themselves to the mustard" by holding up the road improvements when there was plenty of mouey for them in the

been made or that there will be any Crook county. sensational change in the policy of board has done its best to protect and effort against any measure favoring ing at arm's length. Hereafter it stand in line and give Mr. Laycock acquaintance with this country and not oppose county division with will have a judgment of its own better grace if he is backed up with FRIDAY - JUNE 3. 1904 that second-handed report may not a handsome majority from Crook. There is now a better

TWO POINTS FOR VOTERS.

Two points that ought to weigh with every voter were made by Mr. Guerin in his speech Tuesday night.

One is that Oregon's voice at the June election will have a vastly more important bearing upon the national campaign than her four country are upon Oregon now and lation during my absence and on the county school superintendent and if the republicans should be weak eve of election for the evident purhe should be continued in office, here next Monday the country pose of influencing the voters. would take it as a warning against The Japanese are continually the nomination of President Roose-Port Arthur and it seems inevitable votes will cut a precious small fig-

Eastern capital, upon which Oregon Judge Laycock comes out square- depends for its greater develop- to say, as follows: ital has not forgotten what the change of 1893 brought and it would be sure to take quick alarm if we should give the slightest indication of a desire to repeat that Mr. Bell made the issue-better indication of a desire to repeat that

These are reasons that appeal to taxation-which ought to determine the business sense and patriotism the election in this county. No of every voter. Every intelligent man need be a partisan in order to appreciate that issue. It is 'pretty much in everybody's mouth.' citizen can see their force. What would the Deschutes valley do now if Eastern money were to be withdrawn from it?

VOTER'S WARNING.

To the Voters of Crook County:

A few days since I was informed The only further *atter I wiet. at my home in Grant county that to mention is for the voter to com-Western Crook county will have the county division question, which pare the information on my card Lically recognize as a vital one, with that on the semi-annual statewas being used against me in your ments of the officers of this county county, and I hasten to correct the in the Crook County Journal of wrong light in which I have been April 21, 1904, and see if my state-measure that has for its purpose the division of Crook county. A careests demand such opposition, and remain, as it is my wish to faithfully repre-Conviction of Norman Williams sent my entire constituency if the entire district. Respectfully,

> J. A. LAYCOCK, Republican nominee for state senator from Crook, Grant, Klamath County Committee's Endorsement.

and Lake Counties,

Prineville, Oregon, June 1, 1904. To the Republican Voters of Crook County:

An issue has been inaugurated of Carlyle Triplett will live there.

The Bend Mercantile Company for purely campaign purposes making the county division question the has torn out the partition that drone vital point in the election of a vided the first floor of its main state senator from our district next building into two rooms, thus add-Monday. While the position is well ing largely to the size and convenitaken and appeals strongly to every ence of its salesroom. Its new warevoter in Crook county, it is mis- house alongside the building is alleading inasmuch as it throws Hon. ready filled to the bursting point J. A. Laycock, the republican nom- and the erection of another wareince, in a wrong light, the natural room to the rear is contemplated. treasury, and now sending it out in inference arising from the inaugu- The D. I. & P. Co. has decided indiscriminate wads to the road ration of such an issue being that to build another cottage 18x42 on districts in order to "influence" the Judge Laycock favors the division the river front, since there is assurof our county. Such is not the ance that more people connected case. Instead, he is unalterably with the company will be here in A change of the state's attitude opposed to it, and has pledged that July than the present facilities will toward the reclamation interests of among his efforts for his constitu- accommodate. the Deschutes valley is likely to re- ents, a strenuous fight will be acsult from the visit of the state land corded any measure that may arise board this week. This does not during his term as state senator admitted to practice law in Oregon mean that any great mistake has looking toward the division of and his name this week takes its

His election, which is assured. Guerin, jr., in the card in another the state, but rather that the busi- will place him in the republican column of this paper. Mr. Steineness will hereafter be handled more ranks in the coming legislature, mann is a young man of fine charpromptly and with the confidence which means that he will be on the acter and legal attainments and born of personal knowledge of con- side of the working majority. Can be is sure to do well here. ditions lu this field. Conflicting the voters of Crook county be led reports went out from Crook county into laying aside party affiliations and they naturally caused delay of for a deceptive issue that is not an again after an extended sojourn in official action and more or less dis- issue but purely a campaign dodge? Princville as typo on the Journal.

The Bend Bulletin trust. The effect of this was harm- Although Judge Laycock has It inspired a sort of black- pledged himself unalterably opmail, which, however, has wholly posed to county division and has failed of its object. The state further promised to lend every promote the public interest but has it, would it not be the logical thing been at the disadvantage of work- for Crook county republicans to will work from a close personal their undivided support? Could be Judge Laycock is also unequivounderstanding between the Des cally in favor of Hon. J. H. Mithchutes valley and the state land ell's re-election to the U. S. senate. board, to the benefit of all con- REPUBLICAN COUNTY CEN-TRAL COMMITTEE.

> M. R. ELLIOTT, Chairman. W. A. BELL, Secretary.

TRUTH VS. UNTRUTH.

To the Voters of Crook County:

During my absence there ap peared in the Crook County Journal, May 26, 1904, over the signature of M. R. Biggs, an article full of votes can possibly have next winter. statments contrary to facts, truth That is, the eyes of the whole and figures, and placed in circu-

All I have to say is that the whole article from top to bottom is sinuations, and criminal assertions that benefit no man to make and much less a man that desires to fill The other important point is that the honorable position of judge.

i submit what my friends have

W. V. MASTERS. Attorney at Law, Portland, Oregov

I desire to say that the charge that W. A. Bell when acting as city recorder continued a case because he did not desire to enforce the law is untrue and false, but that I as city attorney had said case continued upon my own motion and request. Mr. Bell had nothing to do about II.

M. R. ELLIOTT.

Ex-City Attorney, Princelle.

I also desire to say that the statement that W. A. Hell refused, and that I said he refused to prosecute the case against General Prine, is untrue. In justice to Mr. Hell I will further say that he was not in the city when this crime was committed and did not return for nearly a week thereafter. That I took the case up for him and prosecuted it, and he paid me for my services.

GEO. W. BARNES, Attorney, Princelle, Oregon

ments or Mr. Biggs is correct, as I wish to go on record as saying there was in the road fund for the that I will strenuously oppose any six months ending March 31, 1904. $14.421.72.

Hoping that fair play will prevail W .A .BELL.

Progress of Building.

Construction of the Greek resicamplete and the floor laid, and the balloon frame is now going up.

Creed M. and Carlyle C. Triplett this morning began the erection of a two-story frame building 24x36 feet on Wall street nearly opposite the store of the Bend Mercantile Co. Ou the first floor will be the barber shop and bath rooms of Creed Triplett and a room for a store. The upper floor will be divided into six rooms and the family

George C. Steinemann has been place alongside that of W. E.

Miss Jackie Brock is at home

THROUGH FROM BEND TO SHANIKO IN ONE DAY

SHANIKO-PRINEVILLE STAGE LINE PRINEVILLE-BEND

SCHEDULE

NORTHBOUND SOUTHBOUND Leave Shaniko...... 6 p. m. Leave Bend...... 6:30 a. m. Arrive Prineville 12:00 m. Arrive Prineville...... 6 a. m. Leave Prineville 1 p. m. Leave Prineville 1 p. m. Arrive Bend 6:30 p. m. Arrive Shanika 1. a. m.

FIRST CLASS ACCOMMODATIONS FOR TRAVELING PUBLIC PASSENGER AND FREIGHT RATES REASONABLE

Z. F. MOODY

General Commission Forwarding Merchant

SHANIKO, OREGON

LARGE AND COMMODIOUS WAREHOUSE

CONSIGNMENTS SOLICITED

Prompt attention paid to those who favor me with their patronage

Don't Forget We carry only the finest lines of WINES.

LIQUORS

and CIGARS TO DROP INTO THE .

MINNESOTA BUFFET

SHAW & BROSTERHOUS, Props.

BEND, OREGON

PILOT BUTTE INN

A. C. LUCAS, Proprietor

Tables supplied with all the delicacies of the season

First-class Equipment

Fine Rooms and Beds

Only Livery Barn on the Deschutes, run in connection with the hotel. All stages stop at the hotel door

MEAT, VEGETABLES, GRAIN

Full Stock of the BEST constantly on hand at lowest living prices

THE CITY MARKET TAYFIELD & CALDWELL, PROPRIETORS

WEST BUILDING Wall Street

BEND OREGON

OREGON

MILLARD TRIPLETT BLACKSMITHING AND HORSESHOEING

All kinds of wagon work done in first-class shape. Short notice jobs a specialty. OPPOSITE SCHOOLHOUSE REND, ORKGON.

CLAIMS ESTIMATED AND SOLD

KING & HUNTER

BEND

ESTIMATING A SPECIALTY

Timber Cruisers and Land Locators

Desert Land, Final Proof. NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

U. S. Land Office, The Dulles, Oregon,

May '6, 1984.

Notice is hereby given that Alexander Thomon, of Frinceille. Crook County, Oregon, has led notice of intention to make proof on his carreland claim. No. 124, for the may self, wy see, is and self self see, so, to 148, r.11 c. m., before the County Clark of Crook County, thrinceille, Oregon, on the 11th day of July, ou. He names the following witnesses to prove the complete irrigation and reclamation of said land:

John Y. Todd, E. H. Sparks, Henry W. Car-in, Jasper Johnson, all of Shiers, Oregon. MICHAEL T. NOLAN, Register.

Get The Bulletin for the news.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Department of the Interior,
U. S. Land Office, The Dailes, Oregon,
April 32, 1964.

Notice inhereby given that the following-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that sold proof will be made before J. J. smith,
County Clark, at Princeville, Oregon, on June 12, 1974, vis.

Hurrison A. Melain.

Marrison A. Melvin

of Maters, Oregon, H. E. No. 1993, for the etc. awk, swiking hose 4 and nanking heap, to be rio e. w. m.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz.

Thomas Arnold, Warren Parthing, Herbert Gazier and William E. Pryrear, all of histors, MICHEAL T. NOLAN, Register.