Tuesday eight loads of freight arrived for the Bend Mercantile Company.

Extensive preparations are being made for the basket social Saturday evening.

The annual school meeting will be held a week from next Monday at the schoolhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake left Tuesday for a few week's visit at Portland and other places.

C. E. Lovell, purchasing agent of the D. L. & P. Co. left Monday on a business trip to Portland.

Fred Staats, of Deschutes, who was seriously ill the first of the week, is considerably improved.

H. Goldstone, was in Bend the first of the week representing the shoe firm of Buckingham & Hecht, of San Francisco.

Mr. Orcutt is putting up a store building adjoining his son's hotel in Lytle and as soon as it is completed will open a notion store.

A. H. Kennedy, of the Prineville Review, was in Bend Saturday and Sunday and took back with him his usual quota of Deschutes trout.

W. W. Orcutt has completed his hotel in Lytle. The furniture arrived Friday and the hotel opened for business Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Griffin and Mrs. Weider were out to their homesteads the first part of the week planting garden and doing some fencing.

The Bend Mercantile Company and Mayfield & Caldwell have agreed to close their places of business at noon on Sundays beginning July 10.

Mrs. A. H. Lipman and daughter, Miss Freida Lipman, who have been camping in Bend for several days, returned to their home at Prineville yesterday.

Miss Ethel Edwards left for her home at Squaw Creek, Monday. She will remain there for the summer. Miss Mollie Keever has taken her place at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McGowan, who have lived in the Deschutes country for the past four years, left Tuesday for Portland in order to give their daughter educational advantages.

A leather pocket book containing some papers of value to J. W. Noble was lost on the road south of Bend last week. The finder will confer a favor by leaving at The Bulletin office.

E. W. Richardson, of Walla Walla, Washington, and C. A. Cochran, of Moscow, Idaho, are in Bend this week looking over the lands of the irrigation companies in this vicinity.

Insure your buildings in the American Fire Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, a conservative old company that is thoroughly American in its methods and solid as a rock. J. M. Lawrence, agent.

Amos Bradshaw, who had a timber locator's and cruiser's camp last summer half way between here and Silver Lake, arrived in Bend Wednesday from California via Klamath Falls, enroute to Prineville.

The Bend Mercantile Company has added a platform 20x60 feet on the north side of its warehouse, for farm machinery, barbed wire, etc. It has just received a carload of barbed wire and is ready to fill all demands for that article.

Steidl & Reed have the new mill wheel in and the mill is now ready for operation. The capacity of the mill is now increased to 40,000 feet per day, and they have put in a new 6-saw gang edger with a capacity of 100,000 feet per day.

Herbert Paulson, of Minnesota, who came to the Deschutes in the last stage of consumption two weeks ago, died at Sisemore's last Friday night and was buried next day. He was an unmarried man about 35 years of age and a county charge.

Freighters George Fenner, W. G. Killingbeck, L. F. Killingbeck, D. A. Halpen, J. Edwards, W. J. Pitts, and A. S. Phillips all arrived with goods for the Bend Mercantile Company and the Bend Furniture Company the first of this week.

The Bon Ami club met at the home of Mrs. Harshman Tuesday afternoon, and after a short business meeting the ladies were entertained by the phonograph, and a light lunch was served. If the weather is fair on Tuesday, June 27, the ladies of the club will go for a picnic in the woods, but if not they will meet at the home of Mrs. Lovell.

Max Lueddemann U. S. Commissioner at Antelope, and Dr. C. C. Taggart, drove in from Antelope this week arriving Wednesday and departing yesterday. It has been nearly a year since Mr. Lueddemann visited Bend before and he was gratified to note the great changes that have taken place here. He and Mrs. Lueddemann will come up the Deschutes on a camping excursion later in the season.

"Dad" West took an extra hitch in his trousers this week and reported an egg story that heavily discounts his previous achievement in that line. Tuesday he gathered in from his henney an egg measuring 7 inches in length, and 8 1/2 inches in its shortest circumference and the shell contained three full yolks.

"Dad" West now comes out boldly and challenges the world for an egg-laying match with his Poland China pullet.

Frank Fleming and a number of other horse-owners in the Bake Oven neighborhood, have been dipping their horses for mange during the past week. The dipping vats are at the head of Bake Oven, and over 900 head of horses will be dipped there. While there are not a great many mangy horses in this part of the state, the horses on the range have been exposed to the disease, and they will be dipped as a precautionary measure.—Antelope Herald.

W. E. Guerin, Jr., went out to Shaniko last Monday to meet Clifford King, son of Mr. Guerin's former law partner in Sandusky, Ohio, and Miss Frances Tessier, who comes out from Sandusky to take the position of stenographer in the office of Guerin & Steinemann. For a number of years she was Mr. Guerin's stenographer in Sandusky. Mr. Clifford was recently graduated with honors from Cornell university, where he received the distinction of Sigma Xi membership. He will be identified with the engineer corps of the D. L. & P. Co. The party is expected to reach Bend next Monday. While he is out to Shaniko Mr. Guerin will make arrangements for improvement of the stage service this way.

There was a large attendance at the Pilot Butte Inn reception Friday evening. The following out-of-town guests were present: Dr. and Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Schooling, A. H. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Allingham, Miss Effie Dobbs, and Miss Freida Lipmann, of Prineville, W. T. and John Edwards of Squaw Creek. Dancing and a midnight luncheon were enjoyed. The new hotel is very much of an improvement upon the old one, and the large, roomy office and dining-room with the fresh paint and wall paper, and new furnishing of quarter-oak are a treat to the eye of the weary traveler. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas are to be congratulated upon their good taste and judgment in the arrangement and furnishings of their hotel.

Literary and Debating Club.

The Bend Literary and Debating Society met Wednesday evening with an attendance of over 50. After a short business session, an interesting and enjoyable programme was rendered, as follows:

Violin solo, Miss Ivy West; recitation, Fred Lucas; "Old John Brown Had a Little Indian Boy," chorus, the Misses Wiest and West, Mrs. Hunter, J. H. Overturf, S. D. Percival; they responded to the encore with "We're a Band of Brothers," recitation, Ernest Sandy; vocal solo, "Anona," Mrs. Hunter; debate, "Resolved that cheap novels are detrimental to good literature," affirmative—Miss Wiest, Mr. Overturf; negative, Messrs. Lawrence and Sheridan. The judges—Miss Mabel Hunter, Messrs. Helms and Ammons—decided the question in favor of the affirmative.

The subject for the next debate is, "Resolved that labor is justified in organizing against capital." Miss Florence McCann is leader on the affirmative and J. E. Meeker takes the negative. The next meeting of the society will be on the evening of June 22d, to which the public is extended a cordial invitation.
