Al. Moore, of Paisley, passed through Bend Thursday enroute to Boise, Idaho, to look after some property there.

A broken log cable at Pilot Butte sawmill interrupted operations this week, confining work to the planer part of the time.

A. I. Goodwillie will leave tomorrow morning for a business trip to Portland. He will probably be gone a week or ten days.

F. Orcutt has completed his store building adjoining the Orcutt hotel, and has installed a stock of groceries, confectionery and notions.

A. H. Kennedy of the Prineville Review was in Bend over the Fourth. He came in Sunday and returned Wednesday morning.

L. E. Allingham came in from Prineville yesterday afternoon and reports rainwater hub deep on the flats this side the old river bed.

E. C. Lawwill and C. E. Ranous who have the contract of erecting the store building of E. A. Sather, commenced work yesterday morning.

A. S. Phillips brought two wagon-loads of freight from Shaniko for the Bend Mercantile Co. this week. He started on the return trip this afternoon.

The Bend Restaurant is getting its furnished rooms in first class order and the traveler can now find excellent accommodations there. See its new ad. this week.

Steidl and Reed are building a foot bridge across the Deschutes just above their mill. They will also build a barn on the other side of the river for the mill teams.

The Bend Literary and Debating society will meet in the B. M. hall next Wednesday evening, and an entertaining and instructive hour is assured to those who attend.

J. T. Bennett, who has been carpentering in Bend for the past two months, took a trip home to Madras last week, and returned Sunday, accompanied by his wife and family.

Jeff Matney and James Hastings and wife, of Independence, Polk county, arrived in Bend last week to look after business interests in this vicinity and are also taking a view of the country.

Clarence Parker, who has been the reliable driver of the Bend-Prineville stage for several months, left for Prineville this morning and in the future will drive stage between Shaniko and Prineville.
