

LOCAL BITS

Frank Glass was a visitor to Prineville the first of the week.

Carlyle Triplett was quite ill the first of the week, but is now up and around again.

An addition, 16x18 was made to the D. I. & P. Co.'s blacksmith shop this week.

Milt Young left Wednesday for a three weeks vacation in the Roseland country.

Clarence Parker arrived in Bend from Prineville on the belated stage Sunday morning.

J. N. Hammond, who has been Bend the past 10 days, went to Prineville Tuesday.

Miss Marion Wiest made a trip on horseback to Prineville Thursday, returning Friday.

Nick Weider and Ora Poindexter left Wednesday for a hunting and fishing excursion up the Deschutes.

H. W. Donkle was in town on business from Big Meadows last Friday and returned home Saturday.

Mrs. J. P. Circle, who has been visiting in Prineville for a couple of weeks, returned to Bend today (Friday).

C. A. Sturmborough is superintending the putting in of some hay scales near the D. I. & P. Co.'s office.

W. E. Guerin, jr., and Gerald Groesbeck have recommended C. D. Weiser for appointment as deputy sheriff.

J. M. Miller has rented the vacant room in the new building of Triplett Bros. and will open a real estate office there.

MILCH COWS FOR SALE.—First-class milch cows, $35 to $40 each with spring calf. C. B. Allen, Meadow Brook ranch.

H. S. Anderson, a veterinary surgeon, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Bend Tuesday, and is looking after the D. I. & P. Company's horses.

F. Ott, who has been suffering with asthma for some time, has gone to Prineville for his health. He thinks a lower altitude will be better for him.

The Rev. Z. W. Commerford writes that he will be unable to be in Bend the coming Sunday, but will conduct services here a week later, Aug. 21.

Fred H. Strong, of Portland, formerly in the office of the Pilot Butte company here, will be married next month to a daughter of Dr. Wells, of Portland.

B. F. West and family went to their up-river ranch last Wednesday for the haying season. They will return to Bend later and will probably build a house here.

The Misses Marion Wiest and Florence McCann will entertain the Bon Ami club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wiest next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

A. L. Goodwillie, Clarence Goodwillie, W. R. Guerin, jr., Will Wilson and Roy Hall, started Thursday morning on a few days' camping trip on the Upper Deschutes.

Stieckel & Son, masons, contractors and builders, will build you any thing on earth from a stone flue to a stone or brick mansion. Leave orders at office of J. M. Lawrence.

Mrs. E. A. Griffin, who was visiting relatives at Salem, returned to Bend Monday evening. She was on the stage from Shaniko, that had the runaway Saturday, and was badly bruised.

Lost.—Red cow, white star on forehead, white on legs and tip of tail; wearing a bell fastened on by a piece of rope; tips of horns sawed off. Return to L. H. McCann, Bend, Oregon, for reward.

Thomas Arnold and family will start in a few days for an extended tour in Lincoln, Benton and Lane counties for a hunting and fishing trip. They will gone until about the first of October.

Surveyor L. D. Wiest this week is locating a lateral from the D. I. & P. Co.'s canal to the claim of E. D. Hendrickson and family who recently arrived from Moscow, Idaho. They will commence reclamation work immediately. Their place is in 17-12, about five miles northeast of Bend.

Arnold brothers have completed the carpenter work on A. H. Grant's cottage, which is a model of neatness and convenience. The paper hangers will have completed their work in a few days when it will be ready for use.

E. C. Stieckel has commenced hauling the clay to his brick yard a couple of hundred yards west of the Pilot Butte company's office. The ground is being leveled for the yard and ere many days brick will be baked on the ground ready to be placed in the kiln and burned.

The field of oats of the Pilot Butte Company opposite the sawmill is making an excellent stand since systematic irrigation was inaugurated. A few weeks ago this field appeared as if it would yield about one-fourth of a crop. It will now compare favorably with any field of grain in the county.

LOST.—From my wagon Sunday Aug. 7, between Meadow Brook Farm and Bend, one Winchester rifle 40-82 model 1886—several shells in magazine. One side lever, breech loading, "W. W. Greener" shotgun—G. R. Browning. Finder will obtain reward by leaving same with O'Neil Bros., Prineville.
