Frank and George Bogue and D. A. Findley brought down three loads of hay drawn by 16 horses Wednesday for the D. I. & P. Co.

George T. Sly, of Rosland, was a Bend visitor this week. He is getting his winter's supply of potatoes from James Moffett's place at Powell buttes.

Ben McCullum, stage driver on the Prineville-Bend line, has been confined to his bed with sickness for several days past, but is improving at present.

Charles A. Stanburrough, feeling that he had not the time to attend to the duties of school clerk, has resigned, and the board has chosen Henry Hedges to fill the vacancy.

Rev. W. P. Jinnett, pastor of the M. E. church of Prineville, came out Monday evening to preach the funeral sermon of George Kever. He was accompanied by Mrs. Jinnett and Miss Lizzie Ketchum.

On Tuesday of last week Lee Hobbs, one of the local sportsmen, killed a fine specimen of black bear one mile southeast of Bogue's ranch, after being on the trail but a few hours. The hide measured 6x6½ feet.

One of the horses at work on the ditch at camp No 1 fell over a 12-foot stone embankment on the canyon above the Sisemore place Monday. The horse was blind, and walked over the ledge, but was not injured.

The Pilot Butte Company's saw mill will shut down next week for repairs and to put in a new engine and accessories that arrived this week. If in the meantime the new boiler which has been ordered arrives the mill will close down for another week and put that in.

The Pilot Butte company is clearing the trees out of Minnesota and Bond streets this week. A powerful capstan, chains, a team of horses and an axe are the instruments of this work and they make a clean job of it, pulling over great pines four feet in diameter without difficulty, after the surface roots are cut.

When Superintendent Rowlee and Andy Hunter were returning from the company's farm yesterday afternoon their team run away on Wall street. Mr. Rowlee swung out at the start and Mr. Hunter had the horses nearly under control when the bridle broke and he, too, had to jump for it. It was a lively race but no one was much injured.

Dr. G. M. Booth, Presiding Elder The Dalles district of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold services in Bend either at the new Baptist church or at the B. M. hall, on Wednesday evening, the 16th, at 7:30 o'clock. It is expected that a Methodist church will be organized and arrangements completed for regular preaching hereafter. The public is cordially invited to the services.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Stephens returned Tuesday from their summer's sojourn at Cash creek and have taken possession of their cottage at Deschutes. The toll road across the mountains is still open but is likely to be closed any day. Mr. Stephens found such great change in Bend in the past five months that he had to have a guide to show him through the town.

J. W. Bledsoe's new photo gallery, on Bond street opposite the new livery stable, will be open for business next Monday and thereafter on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays will be devoted to outside work. Mr. Bledsoe's new studio is 20x36 feet, very conveniently designed and well equipped for the business.

NOTICE.

To Whom it May Concern:

Notice is hereby given that there will be presented to the Honorable County Court for the County of Crook in the State of Oregon, at Prineville, on Saturday, the 26th day of November, 1904, at 10 o'clock A. M. (said date being within the regular November, 1904, term of said Court), for the consideration of said Court, an application by A. L. Goodwillie and forty-eight (48) other citizens of the State of Oregon, for the incorporation of a certain part of Crook County, Oregon, into a municipal corporation, to be known as the City of Bend; at said time the said Court will be requested to grant all such orders and to do all such manner of things as may be necessary or is authorized or required by the laws of the State of Oregon for the granting of the prayer of said application.

A true copy of said application is as follows, to-wit:

IN THE COUNTY COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF CROOK, STATE OF OREGON.

In the matter of the application of A. L. Goodwillie, et al., for an order granting the incorporation of a municipal corporation. } Application

Comes now A. L. Goodwillie and also the undersigned persons, each of whom asserts by his signature hereto that he is a qualified elector of Crook County and the State of Oregon, and a resident within the territory hereinafter set forth and described, and said parties pray this Honorable Court for an order requiring the publication of this application, the ascertaining of the number of inhabitants residing within the territory hereinafter set forth and described, the granting of a notice of election for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the territory hereinafter described shall become incorporated; and the further granting of all such other and further proceedings and orders as may be required by the laws of the State of Oregon relating to the incorporation of municipalities of which said laws are known as title seventeen (17), chapter one (1) of the revised statutes of the State of Oregon.
