Mrs. H. R. Lamb, of Sedro-Wooley, Wash., arrived in Bend Monday, joining her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stroud, of Haystack, arrived in Bend Monday and will remain until tomorrow.

Dr. Belknap was out from Prineville yesterday to attend Mr. Monroe, who is threatened with typhoid fever.

F. C. Rowlee is adding two rooms to his riverside cottage, making it a commodious dwelling of seven rooms.

To make room for holiday goods, entire stock of fall and winter millinery at cost. New York Cash Store. Deschutes.

G. L. Moore and family, of Marshall, Iowa, arrived some days ago and have taken rooms in the rear of the Sisemore store building.

The family of Engineer W. W. Amburn has arrived from Portland and is nicely settled in the cottage formerly occupied by Duncan McMillan.

The resolution "that more people are thankful than thankless" is to be debated next Wednesday night by the Bend Literary and Debating Society.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wilkinson moved into their cottage near the Cottor place last Monday; their household goods having arrived the previous week.

Ora Hunter has about completed a cottage on the river front just above F. C. Rowlee's, which his mother and sister and brother will occupy for the winter.

The D. I. & P. Co. this week had a portable kitchen built and stocked with provisions and sent out to the crew working on the Central Oregon ditch.

A. Neff and family, of Valley Wash., arrived in Bend last Friday and are living in the upper part of the Sisemore store building. Mr. Neff is looking over the country and if pleased will take ditch land and locate here.

George Brosterhaus began the construction of a four-room cottage, this week, on Hawthorn avenue between Tenth and Eleventh streets, next to the Lester cottage. It is to be 20x28 feet with 10-foot ceiling. Later he will build a wing 14x28.

E. F. Batten had a stone wall built around two sides of his lot on Ironwood street this week. It is quite an artistic wall. There are nine pillars, with the rocks placed in a semi-circle between the pillars.

Freighter W. J. Pitts's leg was broken last Friday while he was unloading goods for the B. M. Co. A larger roll of dynamite fell on his leg, breaking it at the ankle. He was attended by Dr. Merrill and is now at the lodging rooms over the Lippman furniture store.

Jed Moore, who with associated with his brother, B. E. Moore, in sawing logs for the Pilot Butte mill, left Tuesday for Portland and will probably engage in lumbering in Western Washington. B. E. Moore now has the log cutting contract alone and is working seven men.

Messrs. Morrow & Keenan have had a force of men, under their personal supervision, leveling the Auto grade through their big pasture. They are sowing the strip to rye, and as an order enjoining them from any interference with the Autoway was obtained last week, there is very apt to be thing doing on Willow Creek soon.—Middas Pioneer.

L. E. Allingham has disposed of his stage line between Prineville and Silver Lake to Booth and Connett. The transfer took place Tuesday night, when Mr. Allingham and Rennie Booth came on from Prineville for the purpose. Mr. Allingham also disposed of his interest in the Prineville livery stable. He retains his interest with Mr. Lucas in the Pilot Butte Inn and livery establishment, which he will give more attention hereafter, making his home in Bend.

Trespass Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have purchased the well-known Sisemore place, a short distance south of Deschutes post-office, and that all forms of trespass thereon, including fishing and hunting, are strictly forbidden under the penalties of the law. Particularly do I wish to give public notice and warning that the path along the river bank to the northward of the county bridge is no thoroughfare and is not open to public use and all persons are cautioned to refrain from passing that way.
