FRIDAY FEB 17, 1905

The people of Bend are beginning to take notice of municipal affairs.

When your Uncle Samuel really goes after anything it carries the results. Federal law in the Pacific Northwest has been paralyzed.

The public is entitled to attend all council meetings and it should familiarize itself with the methods and achievements of that body.

These are the announcements that mean something to Bend—'You won't be sent away for merchandise,' etc.

So the Prineville Review was right, after all, in jumping to the conclusion that Representative Williamson was guilty of complicity in the land frauds.

Crook county has been particularly unfortunate in the matter of United States commissioners. Two years ago it had half a dozen of those functionaries.

Before the ink on the Oregon legislature's resolution endorsing Mitchell was dry his partner was making a confession that fixed guilt upon the senator unmistakably.

THE SHAME OF OREGON. It is safe to say that Oregon has been ravaged for the last time by John Hipple Mitchell.

Tanner, Hermann, Williamson, Hall, Mays, Meldrum, Brownell and the rest of them are mere satellites of Mitchell.

To paraphrase Lincoln's Steffens, Mitchell does represent Oregon and that's what's the matter with Oregon.

country and our self respect. So long as every fellow chases an easy dollar, without regard to its honesty, so long as principle means nothing but private plunder...

Without the favor of the national administration the career of Senator Mitchell would have been impossible. The place hunters of Oregon were led by Mitchell at the public crib.

How well at this time does Carlyle's picture of the end of Louis XV., Louis the Unforgotten, fit John H. Mitchell.

The interesting question now arises, Will Oregon profit by this experience?
