Bend Magazine Club Open a Reading Room.

IT IS FREE TO THE PUBLIC

Meeting to Get on Independent Permanent Basis to be Held Wednesday Night.

The Bend Magazine Club is at last in a home of its own. Wednesday afternoon it moved from the office of J. M. Lawrence, where it has been imperfectly accommodated since its organization last August, to a fine front room on the second floor of the Johnson 3-story building on Wall street. There it has excellent light and facilities for the functions of a reading room.
 Three tables 9 feet long are in the room and the periodicals are where they can be suitably cared for.
 Though not yet fully equipped, it is ready for those who wish to patronize a reading room.

This magazine club started from a suggestion of J. H. Overturf in the Bend Literary and Debating society last summer. A subscription paper was started in the hope of getting $20 or $30 for a few magazines that could not then be had here. The idea was so well received that about $90 was provided.
 Then it was resolved to call it the Bend Magazine Club and to separate it from the work of the debating club in order to broaden its scope. But somebody must care for it. Finally the whole management was put into the hands of P.

L. Tompkins, Mrs. Batten and J.
 M. Lawrence, with power to do everything necessary to maintain the club. This committee subscribed for the periodicals and formulated a few rules. There was no fund from which to pay anything for rent or other maintenance charges, so the club has been obliged to get along without quarters of its own until now.

Later another committee composed of J. H. Overturf, Mrs. Batten and N. P. Weider was appointed to provide a reading room in which the magazine club should be accommodated. The result of this committee's labors is seen in the present reading room.

At the meeting of the debating society Wednesday night steps were taken to put the reading room on an independent basis —independent of the debating society. To this end it was agreed to call a meeting of the subscribers to the magazine fund at the reading room next Wednesday night, when it is expected full arrangements will be made for the future conduct of the institution.

Before this action was taken, however, the report of the reading room committee was presented, in which a plan was outlined for caring for the room. This was adopted and will hold until some other is made.

The women are to oversee the institution in daytime, the men are to do so evenings. In order that there should be fixed responsibility it was deemed wise to assign some person definitely for some of the time, making him or her responsible for the proper conduct of the reading room for that time. He or she may get assistance, and in this way the burden will be passed around, but the responsibility for the assistance will rest directly upon the person whose duty it is to provide for the given time. Each of the following will be responsible for afternoon or evening to be mutually agreed upon:

Mrs. J. F. Circle
 Mrs. F. L. Tompkins
 Mrs. E. F. Batten
 Mrs. M. J. Morrison
 Mrs. H. C. Ellis
 Mrs. J. M. Lawrence
 C. A. Stanbrough
 H. J. Tabor
 P. L. Tompkins
 V. J. O'Connor
 H. J. Overturf
 I. J. Reed
 E. V. Ammons

The object was to get persons of undoubted interest in the enterprise, who are so situated that it will not be too great a hardship upon them to act and who will assume the responsibility that must be taken by somebody.

Likes the Deschutes Country.

R. K. Ramsey, of Sandusky, O., arrived last Sunday morning to spend a week or two with W. E.
 Guerin, jr., with whom he was formerly associated in the practice of law. Some of his experiences before reaching Bend gave him a rather unfavorable impression of the country, but here he found every thing attractive and he has become thoroughly converted to the idea that the Deschutes country is at the threshold of a great development. He says a great many people in the East are eager for information about this section and one of the purposes of his visit is to get in personal contact with the country and tell his eastern friends about it.

Dr. Jessie Guerin, of Ravensdale, Wash., brother of W. E. Guerin, jr., arrived Tuesday for his first visit on the Deschutes. He recently returned from a trip to Europe for his health.

A. E. Weesner is temporary carrier of mail between Bend and Laidlaw. He makes four round trips a week, coming up from Laidlaw in the morning and leaving on the return about noon, on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The Laidlaw people pay the expense of this service.

FINANCES OF BEND

Revenue in Sight for Visible Needs of City.

NO GENERAL LICENSE IN IT

Estimate of Income for the Year $3,800 and Expenditures for Same Period $3,309.

Following is a statement of the estimated revenue and estimated expenses of the city of Bend for the present official year. First, let us have an estimate of the probable expenditures:

| | |
|--------------------------|---------|
| Salary of marshal | $901 |
| Salary of night watchman | 600 |
| Salary of recorder | 300 |
| Salary of treasurer | 100 | | City jail | 308 |
| Total | $2,209 |

These are already fixed and certain expenditures of the year, unless there should be retrenchment on the police force, of which there is no present evidence. Now comes the variable items, of which part has already been expended:

|-------------|-------|
| Printing | $400 |
| Supplies | 100 |
| Incidentals | 209 |
| Total | $709 |

Besides these, an ordinance is now before the council providing for a city attorney at $350 a year.
 Assuming that it will pass, we have a total of expenditure now in sight $3,309.

The chief revenue will come from saloon licenses. Three saloons have already paid $1,800 into the city treasury and two more licenses will be due before the end of the year. Five saloon licenses at $600 will yield $3,000.

In the past two weeks the city has received in fines $45 in cash.
 It has also been out a little for board of prisoners. But the ordinance for working city prisoners is now in force and it is probable that all will be made to earn their way, or more, hereafter. Their work, however, will not bring cash revenue, but it will probably do all the street improvement required by the city, with the exception of getting lumber for the crosswalks. These matters cannot be accurately stated in advance.

Recorder's court fines will probably yield $500 for the year. If the license ordinance now before the council should pass in its present form (not including general merchants, meat markets, blacksmiths, etc, which has been merely talked of) it would probably bring to the city treasury another $300. This comes down to the following summary:

|--------------------------------|---------|
| Estimated receipts of the city | $3,800 | | Estimated expenses | 3,309 | | Balance | $491 |

It may be that before the end of the year the city will need some street hydrants and fire-fighting apparatus. It is also possible that $250 will not cover incidentals.
 But it is quite as possible that the receipts will be materially increased by the addition of a saloon or two and by a larger income from fines and minor licenses.

New Land Company.

A new corporation has just been organized in Minnesota to take over the pine lands of the A. J.
 Dwyer Pine Land Company and the holdings of S. S. Johnson in the Deschutes valley. It is the Deschutes Lumber Company, the same name as that under which Steidl & Reed do part of their business. Samuel S. Johnson, of San Francisco, is the president of the new corporation, and his son, S.
 Orie Johnson, secretary and treasurer. Both men are well known here, the young man having spent a considerable time in the timber south of Bend last fall. This company has already acquired about 35,000 acres of timber land in the belt south of Bend and it continues to pick up an occasional claim.
