The Bend Cornet Band enlivened the streets Sunday afternoon by rendering sacred and patriotic airs.

There is a fine office room with double windows on the second floor of the bank building for rent at $20 a month.

Mrs. J. Frank Stroud and Mrs. H. C. Ellis spent several days last week on an excursion in the Haystack country.

Don't overlook the fact that the Bend Livery & Transfer Co. sells hay, oats and barley chop as cheap as any place in town.

Postmaster A. H. Grant announces that 48 new postoffice lock boxes have been ordered, and are expected to arrive about April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Smith and son, of Tumalo, spent Tuesday in town on business. Mr. Smith is of the Hightower & Smith Sawmill Co., and states that they are cutting steadily with about 15 men employed.

The Bend Mercantile Co. has the finest line of prints, gingham, covers, outing flannels, dimities, organdies, Swiss muslins and batistes that have ever been displayed in Eastern Oregon, and the prices are right.

E. A. Griffin made a trip to his homestead in 19-12 this week, taking a load of lumber and barbed wire for fencing. A substantial barn was completed on his place last week by L. H. McCann. The dwelling was erected last year.

The Bulletin office has just added to its job department a large installment of the latest type faces, making the equipment much improved for this line of printing. Patrons of this office are guaranteed satisfaction and prompt attention to all orders. Prices very reasonable. Neat and clean stationery is an indispensable business adjunct. We print that kind, and do it quick.

The Ladies Aid society would like to obtain work in the following lines: General mending, (gentlemen's mending a specialty) making children's aprons, babies' clothing, ladies aprons of all kinds, and hemming household linens. Please leave packages of mending with the name plainly written at Bend Mercantile store. All ladies are cordially invited to attend meetings of the Ladies Aid and become active members.

J. Frank Stroud went out to Lake county recently with a load of Italians looking for land which they had heard was available in the Summer Lake section. From there they concluded to go over to the Klamath country, hoping to get work on the prospective government reclamation enterprise there. Mr. Stroud returned Wednesday, reporting a satisfactory trip, though there was 50 miles of snow up to three feet deep between Rosland and Klamath Falls.

Ladies: Those Drygoods and Notions you have been looking for have arrived and we are busy opening them up. Come in and make your choice early. Bend Mercantile Co.

Dr. E. D. McKenney and Thomas Standley, of Sisters, spent Wednesday in town. Mr. Standley has recently purchased Dr. McKenney's farm, paying $2,000 therefor, and he, with Thomas Stockley, of Colton, Washington, is now residing there.

Harry Jones and Earl McKenney, of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived here last Friday evening and will take homestead and probably timber claims in this vicinity. They spent the winter in old Mexico. They are old friends of the family of L. H. McCann.

Adam Kozman is hauling lumber out to build a new house on his homestead. At first he will build 16x20 which will later serve as kitchen for the completed structure. Mr. Kozman is also putting in 21 acres of rye and barley and he is clearing new ground for potatoes.

William Buckley, father of W. J. Buckley, is expected to arrive here Saturday evening from Pullman, Washington, to look over the Deschutes valley. It might be added in this connection that a number of homeseekers at Pullman are waiting reports from him concerning this section and their decisions to take land here will be largely governed by his opinions.

Clifford M. King, who came out from Ohio last spring and was identified with the engineer corps of the D. I. & P. Co. until March, is now stationed at Boise, Idaho, as aide in the U. S. geological survey. For a short time he was with the Oregon Water Power & Railway Co. in Portland, resigning that position to go into the government service. He is a graduate of Cornell University and young man of genial personality and good habits as well as high professional ability.

A number of her friends surprised Mrs. L. D. Wiest at her home Monday night in honor of the anniversary of her birth and a most pleasant time was had. During the evening slips of paper, bearing subjects for rhymes were distributed among the company, who made much amusement as a result of their literary efforts. Historic subjects were also given out for illustration by drawings, the game being further complicated by a contest of guessing what the drawings represented. Refreshments of candy and cake with whipped cream were served.

Thos. E. Roberts, of Sisters, was in Bend on business Monday, returning home Tuesday.

V. D. Bierman and family are moving into E. V. Ammons's house, built for them on Hawthorn avenue.

J. H. Miller has gone to Shaniko, where he will represent the Deschutes Improvement Company as sales agent for irrigated lands.

The lecture delivered by the Rev. J. Anthony Mitchell, at the First Baptist church Saturday evening, on "Courtship" was an enjoyable treat.

800 acres of fine pine timber in a body near sawmill and good market. Two large springs on the tract. For sale at low price. R. G. Smith, Bend, Oregon.

Somebody shot a dog at the south end of Wall street Thursday morning, with a rifle, tearing its shoulder away but not killing it. Dr. Coe afterward humanely put an end to its suffering.

Miss Iva West, day operator at the Deschutes Telephone Co.'s office, has been unable to attend her duties this week on account of a gripe, and Mrs. W. R. Wilkinson has filled her position.

The Rev. Father Hickey Coming.

The Catholics of Bend and neighboring country expect a visit from Father Hickey next week or the following. The good clergyman is coming to hold Lenten services; to see what has been done locally towards the church building project and to enable all Catholics scattered around the country to make their Easter Duty. He will celebrate mass and hear confessions and preach, and also baptize if necessary.

Father Hickey will lecture in the B. M. hall, his subject being, "Can the priest absolve from sin, and is he paid for it?" "Is Jesus Christ truly and really present in the Eucharist?" Father Hickey takes the deepest interest in this town and country and should meet with hearty co-operation.

Notice to the Public.

The D. I. & P. Co., regardless of the rumors being circulated, are still doing business at the old stand and so are we. Neither are broke, both on a cash basis. Our line of house furnishings is now complete. This is the time to select what you need, and you will have to hurry.

Our fishing tackle has arrived and we have a stock to select from that would tempt even a game warden to go fishing before the first of April. Part of our new shoe stock is now here, the rest is on the road. In a few days we will be able to offer you the Royal Chinook, the best shoe made, barring none.

We are anxiously awaiting the arrival of several large shipments of goods from Eastern factories, when we will be able to offer you the best goods for the least money of any store in Crook Co. Wait for us. Mail orders will be promptly and carefully attended to.

Sincerely yours,
C. A. CHAPMAN.
