out and moistening thousands of fertile acres, no failure anywheretends to shake confidence in the judgment, if not in the integrity, of these croakers. Where on the face of the earth will they find a new country that gives greater assurance of success? Mere ignorance or unwillingness to see the facts will not prove the country worthless. The country will speak for itself if they will let it-will eventually speak for itself anyway.

Remember the school bond election at the schoolhouse next Thursday afternoon. Only those who had property on last year's tax roll are entitled to vote. The qualifications for voting at an ordinary school meeting will not suffice for voting at the bond election. Votes that would be entirely proper at an annual school meeting might invalidate a bond election, for only posit those who pay taxes (as evidenced by the last tax roll) are permitted to vote on bonds. If one owns a share in a partnership or corpor ation which was on that tax roll he may vote upon showing that he is thus qualified. The restrictions are not made by the Bend school board; they are the law as interpreted by the state superintendent. Vote on the question whether $5,000 bonds | shall be authorized and also say whether the bonds, when authorized, shall be disposed of under tion and will not be for some time to come. To ask us to build these lines and then have these irrigation projects developed is a burden upon us and an imposition upon the community.

Pardoning something for rhetoric, and something more for the instinct of the advocate trying to 31.50 justify his client in an indefensible course, we still find something to criticize in Judge Cotton's broad declaration. There is land under irrigation here, thousands of acres of it. A quarter of a million more damage to the ditches, washing them acres will be irrigated and producing by the time a means of transportation to market shall be provided, no matter how soon that may be. Nobody has asked a railroad to build "and then have these irrigation projects developed." The irrigation projects are developing right along. What is asked is that the railroad hog shall get worm statement No. 25%2, for the purchase of the its feet out of the trough and do with ne k, se k ne k, of see as and the ke k se k ne k of see as and the ke k se k ne k of see as and the ke k se k ne k of see as and the ke k se k some rooting to provide part of its own sustemance Now it has all awarn statement No. 2863, for the purchase of the four feet and snout in the trough is 8, 11 c. w m. and is squeeling for others to bring it more food.

Root, railroad hog, or die, Don't fret your precious gizzard about the Portland is congested with busi- imposition upon the community ness and people on account of the that will come through building fair but the rest of the state, all railroad lines so the country may parts, is correspondingly dull. Af- develop. The people like to be ter the fair closes conditions will be imposed upon, or they wouldn't reversed for a time. Then the rest submit to a railroad policy that fatof the state will have its inning, tens the Wall street sharks and And there is already evidence that snaps its fingers in the face of a the state will, as a whole, reap state struggling for development. much benefit from the contact of The railroad as an agency for de-Eastern people and the interest velopment is all right; as an arwhich the visitors take in this great rogant and insolent dictator it is quite another thing.

As an example, The Bulletin roads should not be built into a new that rail of Bend, county of Cruck, state of Oregon, sworn statement No. 2529, for the purchase of the se is now k; lot 3, and e is se is of sec 1, the 19 at 7 in would deposit a ballot next Thurs- field until the traffic is there to move. Do sane men expect farmof Bend, county of Crook, state of Oregon, sworn sworn ers to get out and clear the land e, w m and water and till crops and harvest them and let them rot on the ground a few seasons in order that the railroad shall find traffic waiting for it? That blessed, sacred railroad must not be asked to push out into the harsh world and do something for board to issue bonds to that for the railroad, not the railroad to

There is more than irrigation in this country, anyway-a great deal timber and an abundance of power for manufacturing. Our livestock and the Deschutes country is an unbroken, worthless, hopeless desert.

But the visible evidence of successful farming—the finest of crops of all kinds, water in planty flowing portation. Fools don't suck that it will not find immediately all the business it can handle.
