NEW SCHOOL SITE

On Rock Ridge Near Pres- ent Building.

VOTERS DECIDE THE QUESTION

Adjustment of Particulars and Dis- posal of Old Property Left in Hands of Board.

By a vote of 16 to 5 the voters of the district Tuesday afternoon selected the rock ridge east of the present schoolhouse as the site for the new $5,000 building to be erected. This is on the unplatted land. The dimensions of the new site, as well as the disposal of the old property, was left in the hands of the board of directors. Authority to proceed with the building was formally voted to the board.

Twenty voters assembled at the schoolhouse promptly at 4 o'clock. Chairman Lawrence, of the board of directors, called the meeting to order and Clerk Wiest read the notice for the meeting. The chairman stated briefly that there was no ideal site for the new schoolhouse available in a central location; that all the available sites were more or less to one side of the center of population and it would necessarily be a choice between these secondary sites. He mentioned all those that had been under consideration and submitted the matter of making choice to the meeting.

J. I. West moved that the new schoolhouse be located on a site east of the present schoolhouse. Before voting on this motion the meeting took a recess and examined all the sites on that ridge and also the suggested site in the Bledsoe block. Upon returning, the motion of Mr. West was ruled out of order be-

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR CROOK COUNTY.

The Bend Mercantile Company, Plaintiff, vs.

Samuel M. Janney, Margaret Elm Janney, and Eliza F. Rawson, as co-partners doing business under name of S. M. Janney, and Samuel M. Janney, Margaret Elm Janney, and Eliza F. Rawson, Defendants.

To Samuel M. Janney, Margaret Elm Janney, and Eliza F. Rawson, as co-partners doing business under name of S. M. Janney, and Samuel M. Janney, Margaret Elm Janney, and Eliza F. Rawson, Defendants above named:

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON:

You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and cause on or before the 1st day of October, 1905, and if you fail so to appear and answer the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of $1,117.15 upon contract for the direct payment of money, to-wit: for goods, wares and merchandise sold to defendant by plaintiff to the amount of $465.00; on account purchased from The Central Oregon Banking & Trust Company on overdraft of cash to the amount of $24.80; on account purchased from W. B. Wilson for labor performed for defendant and money advanced at their request in amount $249.40; on account purchased from J. A. Kayl for hay furnished defendants at their request, in amount $22.60; on account purchased from The Pilot Butte Development Company for goods, wares and merchandise furnished defendants at their request, amounting to $78.35.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable W. A. Bell, Judge of the County Court for Crook county, Oregon, made and entered on the 7th day of September, 1905, in and by which order it is prescribed that this summons be published for six consecutive weeks in The Bend Bulletin, a weekly newspaper published in Crook county, Oregon. The date of the first publication of this summons is September 8, 1905.

M. R. Elliott,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

cause of indefiniteness. This defect was cured by specifying the site nearest the old schoolhouse. Then this motion was replaced by a substitute by Dr. Nichol, that the site in the West motion be designated No. 1 and the site in the Bledsoe block No. 2 and a ballot be taken upon the two. This carried and the ballot was taken, resulting as above recited.

On motion of H. W. Reed the board of directors was empowered to erect a new schoolhouse upon the site selected.

On motion of E. F. Batten the board of directors was instructed to dispose of the present school property to the best advantage possible in its judgment.

The chairman outlined the plan of the board for the new schoolhouse—a two-story frame structure with three rooms on each floor, only those on the ground floor to be finished at once, leaving those on the upper floor to be finished inside when there should be need to use the rooms. This statement was submitted in order that the voters might make suggestions or give instructions if they chose, but none were offered and the meeting adjourned.

The new schoolhouse site is off the platted part of Bend and will need be surveyed before it can be accurately defined. This will be done at once.

IMPROVEMENTS AT LAIDLAW.

Organization of a League--New School- house--General News.

LAIDLAW, Or., Sep. 13.—Last Saturday evening the citizens and rancher in and around Laidlaw held a meeting at F. E. Dayton's store for the purpose of discussing the advisability of organizing a mutual improvement league. Prof. C. W. Allen was appointed chairman and A. P. Donahue secretary of the meeting. The people were very enthusiastic and it was decided to hold another meeting Saturday September 23, at 2 p. m., in the corner store of the Rutherford block to perfect the organization of the league. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and present same at the next meeting. The primary object of the league is to promote the interest of the settlers by getting together and discussing the best plans and methods of irrigation and treating the different kinds of crops adaptable to this soil and climate. This is a big step in the right direction and we should do all we can to make this organization a success. We can at least show our interest and appreciation by attending the meetings. Every one interested is cordially invited to attend the meetings.

C. M. Muld and Postmaster Stiles left Monday for a two weeks visit to Portland and the exposition. While in Portland Postmaster Stiles expects to purchase additional stock for his store.

The school board is considering plans for a two-story, four-room school building. The list taken last February showed 82 children of school age. Mrs. F. P. Smith and Miss Nellie James have been engaged to teach school the coming year. School will open Monday morning September 18, in the corner store of the Rutherford block.

C. M. Muld, water superintendent of the C. S. I. Co., has been for some little time collecting samples of grains, grasses, vegetables, etc. to show what this country can produce. The variety and quality when exhibited was a big surprise to everyone. Mr. Muld took some of each kind to Portland where they will be put on exhibition.

I. N. B. Girking, who has land under the C. S. I. Co.'s ditch, raised and cut over 80 tons of first class hay this year, the greater part of which he will have to sell.

Mrs. Mary A. Barnes has just moved into her new residence on Cook avenue. George R. Long and family have just moved into their new residence on the corner of Second street and Wood avenue.

Frank Murk is erecting a two-story residence on Wood avenue. Rev. J. C. George has let the contract for his new residence to Messrs. Hall & Updike and they began work on the same Wednesday.

William Diener traded his new house and lot on Wood avenue to J. C. Thorp for some property in Wainburg, Wash.

Mr. Girking purchased a business lot on Cook avenue of the Laidlaw Townsite Co. last week.

Mr. Ramsey purchased a residence lot on Bruce avenue this week. Mr. Ramsey expects to move into town in the near future in order to send his children to school.

The Laidlaw Banking & Trust Co. have just received and installed a new iron grille on their bank counter.

J. G. Muntinga, of Walla Walla, Wash., was in this week looking after his ranch under the C. S. I. Co. ditch.

Mr. Girking left last week for a short visit to his family at Athena, Oregon. He expects also to visit the exposition at Portland and return here about November 1.

J. W. Rutherford is visiting relatives and friends in New York city and vicinity.

Last Sunday the church and Sunday school held their first services in their new quarters in the Rutherford block.

John Circle started on the 5th to return to Bend from Byron, Cal., where he and Mrs. Circle went for a visit. He came by way of Klamath Falls, arriving here Thursday night.

HOPS ON THE DESERT

New Crop for the Des- chutes Country.

IN EVERY WAY SUITED

Vines Will be Planted on Many Acres Next Year--It is a Crop that Will Pay.

Henry Hedges is preparing a dozen acres of his homestead for a crop of hops next year. A man from the Yakima country was in last week to buy a tract of ditch land near Bend for hops. He said there was no reason why this region should not be as famous a hop producer as the Yakima valley. A. M. Drake has a very thrifty specimen of hops in his yard this season, as has also Mr. Hedges, and he, too, will probably put out a considerable acreage in hops.

The Deschutes climate is said to be ideal for hop production. It is dry and there will be no vermin to bother and no mould to injure the crop. Even at this date there has been no frost to injure the hop vines now growing here. The soil is, according to all experience, just suited to hop culture. The product will stand transportation to market.

An expert hop man who was in Bend this week examined the vines in Mr. Drake's yard and pronounced them in every way healthy and successful. The vines are well grown and the hops well developed and strong in lupine, which makes them valuable.

Frank M. Booth, of the Sisters country, was in Bend this week as a witness in Mrs. Auderway's homestead proof. He went up to see Dr. Nichol's garden and was amazed with what he found there—hundreds of bushels of vegetables that beat the world. He took some specimens home with him to show the Sisters people what is actually being done in the Bend—"worthless Bend"—country.

Landlord O'Kane was not able to get all the onions he wanted for some time. Finally an outsider came along and the hotel man took all he had, three sacks. Then he called Dr. Nichol in and showed he fine purchase. The doctor took the biggest onion in the lot home with him. It weighed a pound and two ounces. Yesterday the doctor brought to the hotel an onion produced on his place a mile above town, which weighed two pounds and six ounces and made O'Kane's big onion look like a midget. Now O'Kane admits that the Bend onion can beat the world with onions, too. Dr. Nichol has a wagon load of onions bigger than he one O'Kane was bragging about.

NO TRACE OF THE FIREBUG.

Warrant out for His Arrest--May be Made U. S. Case.

On complaint of D. A. Findley a warrant was issued by Justice Lawrence for the man who set fires that destroyed a lot of property near Rosland last month, but the man wanted has not yet been found. It was said that he was working at the ditch camp east of Bend but investigation proved that to be an error. Oliver Thorbjornson, who returned last week from The Dalles, says that on his way out a month previously he ran across a man exactly answering the description of the firebug, who was then making for the harvest fields. Inquiry is being made to locate him, but it is a difficult matter because his name is not known. He is a Polack and there is only his personal description to lead to his identification, and that may change.

Several thousand dollars' worth of property was consumed by the fires set by this firebug. Findley lost five miles of fence and a barn. William G. Mayfield, the Wise brothers, Masten, the Bogues and others also lost much fencing. Findley's loss was more than $500. In the black pine the fire was hot and ran fast. In the yellow pine it did no considerable damage. But for a timely change of wind the entire Bogue plant would have been swept away. All this came from the firebug recklessly firing the anthills along the road through the forest. Since many of these fires were upon government land a United States case may be made of it and Uncle Sam sent to find the bad man.
