WILLIAMSON ET AL CONVICTED.

Congressman Williamson, and his business partner Dr. Van Gesner, and U. S. Commissioner Biggs, all of Prineville, were this week found guilty of the crime of subornation of purjury, upon trial in the United States court in Portland. The jury retired Monday evening at the close of the third long trial of the cause, the first two having resulted in disagreements. Tuesday morning the virdict of guilty was returned into court.

with having induced 45 persons to , apply in June 1902 for land in Tp. 15 S. R. 19 E. about 25 miles east of Prineville, in violation of the law and of the oaths they made in the applicatious.

The penalty for this offense is a fine of not more than $2000 and imprisonment at hard labor not more than five years, and disqualification to testify in U. S. courts.

Comment at this time is useless. , It was greatly to be desired that these men should prove their innocence. Since they failed in that it is becoming of Crook county to be silent for the present. We cannot heap ignominy upon our neighbors: it is not good to revile the agencieof the law.

AS TO KNOCKERS.

The Eugene Register, in the performance of its duty as a newspaper. prints the following:

A few stock men have sat on the Deschutes for a generation not trying to produce anything but wild good for farming," they said, be-cause they wanted to keep it for grazing. Some have outgrown this spirit, but it must be admitted that too many still cling to it-too many for the good of the country. The chief of these do not themselves now reside on the Deschutes. They wish to keep the Deschutes country undeveloped in order that they may use it for stock range. Nobody asks these doubters and knockers to believe what they cannot see. If they do not see here as many broad fields as they find in the Willamette valley that is no warrant for damning this new country as a frosty rockpile. The statement is susceptible - 01 abundant proof that wherever in On February 11 the grand jury the Deschutes valley as much atreported an indictment against tention has been devoted to crops these defendants, charging then as is required in other farming regions the results are as satisfactory. Every country has its pecialties. The Deschutes valley is learning by experience what its strong points are in agriculture and it is surprising every unprejudiced observer. The knockers can't kill it.

cultural section. The item as stated in Th Suffetin, must be taken as authentic, for a news paper does not publish such things out a whole cloth. However, a Eugene manjust re-turned from a trip of several weeks, in which time he covered a large part of that section and examined conditions along his route, tells a ver-different story. He did not see a single instance of agricultural progress. Those who have gard res have rulard nothing, the plants having here, repeatedly cat down by frosts. The soil, h-soid, is so percess that a small patch which has water torned on it Saturday night, was no watered until Monday morning, owing to the escape of water into the earth, and even then. in a very short time the earth is as dry as eve hefore. It therefore seems that there is a discrepancy somewhere in the estimates of the productiveness of the soil and its adaptability to Errigation.

The paper is undoubtedly disposed to be fair, but the "Eugene man just returned" clearly is not. The blunt fact is that he is either a fool or a liar, for it is impossible that any person could examine a large part of the Deschutes valley without seeing evidence of agricultural progress. We venture the assertion that there is not, in the tween Bend and Silver Lake) is whole Deschutes valley, a single $5,859.64. For the tri-weekly sergarden that "had raised nothing."
