E. B. James, the Laidlaw merchant, and his son, Otis O. James, were in Bend, Monday, and the latter filed on a desert claim before U. S. Commissioner Lawrence. To a Bulletin representative Mr. James recently said it was his opinion that six months hence would see a scarcity in desert lands open for filing, so rapidly are settlers coming in and availing themselves of the opportunities for homes.

The "Evening with Dickens" given at the church last Friday night by the Rev. J. Anthony Mitchell was well attended. Mr. Mitchell's remarks covered briefly Dickens's character and works and he also recited choice extracts from that author's stories. Musical numbers were presented by T. W. Zimmermann in vocal solos and by a male quartet composed of Floyd Lobdell, T. W. Zimmermann, C. A. Kiddle and C. S. Benson.

Miss Marion Wiest arrived home Saturday evening from her extended visit in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Salem. Miss Wiest had the experience of extremely rough passage on the ocean from San Francisco to Portland, on the three-story steamer, Roanoke. At one time a monstrous wave pitched the steamer completely over on its side, throwing the people on board about the rooms in a terrifying way, but the craft immediately righted itself.

A story has floated down the Deschutes about A. B. Estebenet shooting ducks at The Meadows recently. "Frenchie" saw a flock of ducks coming straight toward him and immediately took aim, following their flight with his gun. As the ducks came closer going straight over the hunter, the gun pointed more and more perpendicular until the ducks had gone by and "Frenchie" was bent over backwards still aiming at the birds. Both barrels went off and the gun kicked down in front into the ground and skinned "Frenchie's" thumb. While he was busied with these things two ducks fell out of the flock unseen by him. A hunter across the river saw him start away without the birds and told him where they were. "Well, that is pretty good shooting," said "Frenchie" as he gathered them in.

America's Greatest Weekly

THE TOLEDO BLADE TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States Circulation 185,000 Popular in Every State

The Toledo Blade is now installed in its new building, with a modern plant and equipment, and facilities equal to any publication between New York and Chicago. It is the only weekly newspaper edited expressly for every state and territory. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend, than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do or do not read daily newspapers, and yet thirst for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proven by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 185,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the U. S. In addition to the news, the Blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year. Write for free specimen copy. Address: THE BLADE, Toledo, Ohio.
