The rumor that the Prineville Journal eats pie with its knilproves to be unfounded. It eatwith its feet.

The summary of the season's results at the D. I. & P. experimenfarm near Bend, which appears on the first page of this paper, was prepared by Professor Nelson, who had charge of the work, and is very conservative statement o demonstrated facts.

According to the latest figureof the department of agriculture the corn yield of the United Statethis year is two bushels an acre more than in 1904 and four bushelan acre more than the average for 10 years past. Corn is the greates crop of this nation.

Judge Wolverton, of the Oregor supreme court bench, has been appointed by President Roosevel judge of the federal district of Ore gon, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Bellinger Judge Wolverton is a clean man o legal experience and judicial temperament and has never beer identified with factional politics.

The Burns Times-Herald notes the following railroad indication in that section of the state:

land through this section have been atproached regarding right of way for a railroad and asked what concessions could and would be made. Of coursthis does not build a railroad but indicates which way the wind blows.

This is the east end of the Natron Ontario project. Hend is on an air line between Natron and Ontario.

The first of the year The Bulletin asked the Prineville Review to specify the Bend knockers it waranting about. Of course it couldn' do it, for the Review must be taker like dreams-by contraries. Now. after ten months, it wants to know if The Bulletin will repeat the in quiry. Since the Review wishes it we will do so; but what must be said of the intelligence of a news paper that hangs fire until it has lost its memory.

The state land board has recalled its approval of the second list for patent of the Columbia Southern Irrigation Company, and requires that rules for water service be agreed upon before going further This effects something more than 6,000 acres, some 12,000 acres having passed to patent. The action of the state land board is said to have been occasioned by a petition from the Columbia Southern Water Users' Association.

Another crew of railroad surveyors has been put at work on the line westward from Ontario, this party working up Bully creek. It is to be observed that the Malheur canyon is already occupied by a railroad track actually constructed 20 years ago, which is a part of the Corvallis & Eastern property. Putting these surveyors into the Bully creek country indicates a purpose to make an independent line due west toward Bend and Natron. It may be for the purpose of locating
