

LOCAL BITS

Merrill has a lot of Christmas goods coming.

J. H. Oneill is building a wood shed and storehouse.

Dressed turkeys for Thanksgiving, also apples. A. H. GRANT.

J. N. Hunter this week completed a hen house 8x10 feet at this place in Garden Row.

The Pilot Butte mill shut down Monday for repairs, but work will be resumed again next Monday.

Beatrice Miller, daughter of J. H. Miller, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is convalescing.

John H. Overturf has improved his residence property by enlarging the kitchen and building a new sidewalk.

We have for service at our home-stand, three miles south of Bend, a Hereford bull.

FRANCIS & GARRETT.

E. A. Griffin has made arrangements to have a large tract of his homestead in 1912 cleared and plowed for fall seeding.

Office rooms for rent in the Pilot Butte Development Co.'s office building. Apply at the company's office.

E. A. Smith, who spent three months in the state of Washington, returned to Bend this week and established residence on his homestead in 1911.

A beet 20 inches long and 1 1/2 inches in circumference is Dr. Nichol's contribution to The Bulletin's exhibit of agricultural products this week.

George M. Meyer, who has returned from the farm of A. H. Lippman & Co. expects to go back to his former home in New Jersey about the first of next year.

Miss Florence McCann this week made arrangements for buying 40 acres of her homestead in 1912 fenced with a rail fence. A portion of this will be plowed and seeded to rye.

Lost on Sunday, Nov. 12, on the Ice Cave road, between the Arnold ranch and Bend, a large saddle blanket. Finder will receive reward by returning same to Florence McCann, Bend, Oregon.

A meeting of voters to nominate men to be voted for at the forthcoming city election is called for Saturday evening at the B. M. hall. It was at first called for last Monday night but was postponed.

Nothing adds so much to the appearance of business correspondence as neatly printed stationery. It is indispensable in the estimation of up-to-date business men. The Business Job Office can supply your needs in this line.

This week Henry Hedges began construction of a small house on his homestead one mile northeast of town and as soon as it is finished will take up permanent residence there. He also has lumber on the ground for a 40x60 barn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Fry and daughter made a trip to Prineville the latter part of last week, returning this week Monday.

This week L. H. McCann took lumber to his homestead in 1912 to red the inside of his house to make it more comfortable for winter. He is also plowing the ground that was broken last spring, preparatory to sewing fall rye.

The new school house is completed at Powell Buttes and school began on Monday, Nov. 13, with 24 scholars enrolled. The neighborhood has named it the Shepard school, in honor of Sam R. Shepard, who gave two acres of land for school grounds.

Theophile St Michel last month went from Bend over the mountains to Portland and then and there succeeded in being held up and robbed. But the thieves were caught within the past week, one was sent to the penitentiary for five years and one for three years.

Ira J. Wilkinson left Tuesday to go to Madras to bring out the remainder of the Wilkinson household effects, which were brought that far with the rest of their freight when they came in last week. In order to make faster time a part of the heavier goods was left at Madras until Mr. Wilkinson could return for them.

The aldermen whose places are to be filled at the election December 5 are O'Kane (chosen to fill vacancy caused by resignation of F. A. Shonquest); Redfield, Erickson, Merrill and McMillan. Redfield, Erickson and West were the hold-over aldermen, but Redfield and Erickson have removed from the city, leaving West the only hold-over member of the council. The ballots must specify who is chosen to fill vacancy, because such will serve for only one year, while all other aldermen will serve two years.

Theodore Becker was up from Redmond last Saturday.

Dr. Butler, dentist, advertises that he will be in Bend in December.

The Battens have a fine flock of hens and threaten to flood the market with eggs.

America's Greatest Weekly
THE TOLEDO BLADE
TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States
Circulation 185,000
Popular in Every State

The Toledo Blade is now installed in its new building, with a modern plant and equipment, and facilities equal to any publication between New York and Chicago. It is the only weekly newspaper edited expressly for every state and territory. The News of the World so arranged that busy people can more easily comprehend than by reading cumbersome columns of dailies. All current topics made plain in each issue by special editorial matter written from inception down to date. The only paper published especially for people who do not read daily news papers, and yet think for plain facts. That this kind of a newspaper is popular, is proved by the fact that the Weekly Blade now has over 10,000 yearly subscribers, and is circulated in all parts of the U. S. In addition to the news, the blade publishes short and serial stories, and many departments of matter suited to every member of the family. Only one dollar a year. Write for free specimen copy.
