FRIDAY - DECEMBER 15, 1905

The Deschutes Land company will begin early in the spring construction of its irrigating works in the Walker basin, 35 miles south of Bend, and carry them through to completion in a year.

It does not escape notice, though the press has not yet taken up that phase of the matter, that the two federal appointments recently made in Oregoti without consulting Senator Fulton, are of men who wear spectacles, like the president. If this hint is of any value to the eye doctors and spectacle makers they may pay advertising rates for it is now known the Harriman road

It isn't every mayor who would this fact has lead to the deal. give the city 40 acres of suburban land; and that is what the action of Mayor Goodwillie in the cemetery matter amounts to. He had the right of entry for that tract, but he permitted the city of Bend to take this 40 acres for park and cemetery burposes at a cost of only $50, and final proof upon it was submitted with Marvin Hughitt, president of the Northwestern gives strong color to the report that the Northwestern will have two Pacific coast terminals—one at Portthis week. The $50 is the government price.

Ha! another railroad story! Harnow in the field between Bend and the west side of the river. Madras, "announces" that he will such thorough work north of Bend are simply mapping the scenery, locating bird's roosts and rat holes. The real design is to build elsewhere-that's why the surveyors are here. Many of these news-"tidy, decent, neat and clean." ble ignorance of the geography of be better for it. the state.

John M. Gearin, appointed by Governor Chamberlain to be United States senator to fill vacancy caused by the death of Senator Mitchell, is a man of good standing and force of character. He is a democrat from principle and there is nothing of the shifty politician about him. As a lawyer he stands very high and Judge Bellinger once said there was no attorney practicing in his court who had so clear a legal mind. A dozen years ago Mr. Gearin made a brilliant campaign for representative in congress, but there were too many republican votes and Binger Hermann defeated him. Since then he has not been much in politics but he has enjoyed a large law practice. Mr. Gearin is the most conspicuously fit man among the democrats for senator from Oregon. He will probably do good work, because he will have no hope of continuing in office when the republican legislature gets a chance to fill

MITCHELL'S EXAMPLE.

Senator Mitchell is dead. Neither fulsome praise nor carping criticism can reach him now. His record is finished, and it is a notable one.

"What a pity that death did · not come to him a few months earlier," is a comment that is much .heard at this time. The humanheartedness that prompts this exsentiment will not stand examina-

Suppose death had kindly come to Senator Mitchell before his sins found him out. What would the example have been to the world, to the young men of his own state? He reaped honors in abundance. The logic is clear that the way to gain those honors was to do as he did. The school he taught was bad, and many, many people know it. Had the law not overtaken him there would have been no warning to those who believed in him. They, following in his footsteps, would surely have come to grief. As it is they are warned that he was an unsafe guide and they may not now be lured on dangerous paths.

The influence of a successful life is very great. Too many overlook the methods that frequently bring apparent success. It is highly mportant for the general welfare that the truth be known and the case of Senator Mitchell, just as it stands, will go a long way toward establishing and fortifying characer in Oregon citizenship and redeeming the state. The example would have been very bad if Mitchell had died loaded with honors.

Ontario Townsite Sold.

The townsite of Ontario, Oregon, has been sold to James A. Howard. president of the First National Bank of Sumpter, and C. C. Wright of Baker City, It belonged to David Wilson. A statement made by a railroad man is to the effect that Eastern people are interested in the deal. There are 2,000 lots in the townsite, and it is said all that belonged to Wilson were disposed of for $30,000.

Ontario is the point from which across Central Oregon will leave the Short Line, and it is supposed
