DISCUSS IRRIGATION

Institute at Laidlaw Most Successful.

FIRST OF A PROPOSED SERIES

Topics of Unusual Interest to Irrigators
Make a Lively and Interesting Program--Other Features.

The irrigation institute at Laidlaw last Saturday has a big mark to its credit. It was a decided success. The people for many miles around Laidlaw gathered at this meeting. The settler on the Tumalo shook hands with his neighbor from Bend and Cline Falls. They all gathered around a common point of interest and discussed questions of value to the irrigator. Strangers met with all feeling of reserve removed. Laidlaw people excelled themselves in hospitality. Every one was surprised and pleased at the unity of purpose and all absence of discord shown at the meeting.

At 10:30 a. m. the meeting was called to order by E. B. James, who briefly stated the object and purpose of the gathering. The Rev. J. C. George welcomed the visitors in a short address and congratulated Laidlaw and its farmers for the interest manifested by the attendance at the first meeting of so new an idea, new at least to this region. He then offered prayer.

"How Shall I Prepare for the First Three Crops?" This question was opened for discussion by C. W. Allen and followed by Messrs. Simmons and Gerkin. H. J. Overturf's subject, "Farming Is Science," briefly outlined the needs of careful study and the use of scientific methods in irrigating to produce the best and quickest results.

At the afternoon session there was a very large attendance as a number of farmers living at some distance arrived during the noon hour.

"The Different Systems of Irrigation and the Duty of Water" was ably handled by L. D. Wiest, who gave a practical talk on the different methods and explained their advantages.

A. M. Drake spoke at some length on "The Social Life in Irrigated Districts." A very instructive paper on "Celery Culture as an Occupation for Women" was read by Mrs. J. O. Gerkin, followed by a paper on the "Influence of Fruits and Flowers" by Mrs. Una I. McMillan, which was timely and well received.

The several vocal solos rendered by T. W. Zimmermann were appreciated, as was the talk by F. Milo Lobdell. Mrs. Estelle E. Ellis' reading of "Zingarella" was given with more than ordinary ability. She responded to an encore.

During the noon hour a basket dinner was served and the Laidlaw ladies showed true hospitality by the delicious food, the steaming coffee and their most gracious manner.

A goodly number of settlers from the Columbia Southern segregation with their wives and children attended both sessions and 18 people from Bend drove down in the P. B. D. Co.'s four-horse bob. The party included A. M. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wiest, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ellis, J. I. West, Mrs. Una I. McMillan, Marion Wiest, F. Milo Lobdell, P. L. Tompkins, Robert Smith, Violet Reed, E. A. Sather, T. W. Zimmermann, John Steidl, H. J. Overturf, Nick Smith and Driver Vaughan.

These institutes are to be held at stated intervals in the different towns in the irrigated districts of the Deschutes valley.

A PLUCKY CROWD.

A Party of Thirteen Timber Seekers Met Difficulties in Deep Snow.

C. W. Embody of Portland reached Bend last Friday with a party of thirteen who were going to Silver Lake to look up timber claims in that vicinity. They were not daunted by the fact that the roads south were blocked with snow and that the Silver Lake mail at that time was several hours late, but bright and early Saturday morning started on their journey south. Saturday evening they had got no further than Vandeventer's ranch about 20 miles from Bend, where they remained during the night. Two teamsters with the Eastern Oregon surveying crew also spent the night there and report the timber seekers as a rather discouraged lot of people as they pulled into Vandeventer's about dark. However, they were plucky and resumed the journey the next morning with the task ahead of them of breaking a road for miles through snow drifted from three to four feet deep. From Silver Lake to Vandeventer's the mail carriers had been using pack horses and only a trail was broken through the snow. But "where there's a will there's a way" and the latest reports indicate that they were successful in getting to Silver Lake.

The party was composed of C. W. Embody, Mrs. C. W. Oleson, A. Crawford, Johan Moen, Ole Kat-tun, Albert Moen, all of Portland; J. H. McMillan, G. H. McMillan, J. A. Johnson of Ranier; T. F. Lyons, Charles Dickson, Miss Bertha Palmer, of Palmer, and Floyd Lippincott of Shaniko. While in Bend they were guests at the Pilot Butte Inn.

BUILD 15 MILES AT ONCE

THAT IS GREAT SOUTHERN'S DECISION

Letter Received by Bend Man Brings Good Tidings of Railroad Extension from the North.

"The Great Southern will extend 15 miles AT ONCE. We are coming."

The above terse sentence was appended to a letter received by a Bend man the first of the week. The letter came from Portland and emanated from sources in close touch with the Great Southern railway. It is authentic and settles the question of the extension of The Dalles-Dufur road.

During the last eight or 10 weeks reports have frequently reached Bend that The Dalles-Dufur would commence construction in the early spring. The above verifies these rumors.

F. S. Gordon and his party of railroad engineers have completed the survey as far as Madras. It is reported that an engineering corps will now take up the work at the mouth of the White river, where the line first reaches the Deschutes, and survey that line on down the Deschutes to its mouth. It is also understood that right-of-way maps have already been filed upon the location made by this party for the line up the Deschutes.

There is more railroad activity at present at Vale than any other Eastern Oregon point. The Vale Malheur Valley railroad is being pushed right along. The contractors are grading the right of way and from 40 to 50 men are at work. As soon as the season opens up so they can work the shallow parts of the road, men will be put to work all along the line.

E. M. Rice of New York, who spent several days in Bend last week, stated while in Vale that that place would have railroad connections within a year which it did not now know of. He was expecting to secure large timber holdings along the line which the Chicago & Northwestern will take across the state. His visit to these parts, coming as it does on the heels of the engineers being at Nyssa and the report from Eureka, California, stating that a line was to be established from Humboldt county, Calif., to Casper, Wyoming, plainly shows that the road will be built.

"Where I put the stakes this time is where the road will be built." These words are credited to Engineer Rankin who has charge of the survey for the Oregon Eastern working east from Natron.

The surveys have been made from Natron to Fall Creek, a distance of about seven miles. Then there is a gap of 20 miles from Fall Creek to the mouth of the North Fork that is not surveyed. The remaining distance to Waldo Lake has been gone over this fall by the crew. The route follows the Willamette river to the North Fork, and then takes its course along that stream. There are one or two points where rock work will be necessary, but nothing has been found yet that is hard to build through.

POLITICAL POT BOILS

Candidates for County Offices Appear.

MANY DESIRE SHERIFF'S JOB

Western Crook County Has One Candidate, W. E. T. Wilson of Sisters--Thirteen in the List.

Matters political are warming up. A goodly number of candidates have announced their desire for office. The county judge and superintendent of schools holds over on a four years' term, and the treasurer's salary is so small that no new candidates seem to desire it. For commissioner to succeed M. D. Powell, no one has yet appeared. For clerk and sheriff, however, there are several who are willing to run the good race and lend interest to the campaign. The list follows:

For county clerk, republican--J. H. Haner, and Chester Sterns. Democrat, Riley Cook and possibly W. F. Hammer. For sheriff, republican--Willis Brown, of Lyle & Brown, Prineville; Frank Elkins, who ran two years ago; W. E. T. Wilson, saw-mill man from Sisters; Joe Smith, cattle man from east end of county; Sam Collins, farmer living near Prineville. Democratic, Jake Stroud, Prineville liveryman; Joseph Cook, Prineville's city marshal; Ben F. Jones stock rustler. Jacob B. Merrill is a "talked of" candidate.

FILL VACANT OFFICES.

City Fathers Elect Recorder and Councilman Wednesday Night.

George Whitsett, Sr., chosen to fill vacancy in council caused by the resignation of Millard Triplett, and H. C. Ellis elected recorder, vice J. M. Lawrence, were the main items of business at Wednesday evening's session of the council. The resignation of C. M. Weymouth as city policeman was also accepted and no successor appointed.

Three candidates were proposed for councilman, A. C. Lucas, George Whitsett, Sr., and Creed Triplett. On the first ballot, Lucas received 2, Whitsett 2, Triplett 1. On second ballot, Whitsett received 3, Lucas 2, Triplett 0. Whitsett was declared elected.

For recorder, H. C. Ellis, P. L. Tompkins and T. W. Zimmermann were candidates. On first ballot Ellis received 2, Tompkins 2, Zimmermann 1. Second ballot Ellis 3, Tompkins 1, Zimmermann 1. Ellis was declared elected.

CAN MAKE FINAL PROOF.

Secretary Hitchcock Revokes Order Holding up Oregon Land Claims.

On Jan. 17, Secretary Hitchcock announced that he had revoked his order of March 5, 1905, suspending all public land entries in Oregon.

The effect of this will be to restore normal conditions in Oregon, and hereafter all entries, homestead, mineral and timber entries and in fact, all manner of entries, will be passed to patent whenever full and satisfactory proof is submitted. Only those entries about which there is suspicion of fraud will be held up pending investigation.

There are several hundred entries, partially mineral entries, which will be immediately affected by this order. Final proof has been submitted and these cases are complete, but patents were withheld under the order of last March. On all such entries as are complete patents will issue immediately, as orders were sent recently to various land offices notifying them of the revocation of the order of suspension.

Sugar Beets at Sisters.

H. B. Reed sent samples of sugar beets raised on his ranch at Sisters to the state experiment station at Corvallis, and the analysis shows them to be rich in sugar. The analysis is as follows:

Per cent sugar in juice . . . 15.50
Per cent sugar in beet . . . 14.75
Purity of juice . . . 80.31
