LAW AND ORDER IN IDAHO.

Lest recent remarks in this column give a wrong impression of the attitude of The Bulletin upon the question of public order, it may be well to add that this paper has no sympathy with the anarchy and violence that the miners' organizations introduced into the Coeur d'Alene mines ten years ago...

That is blunt talk. Is it strange then that the people are suspicious that the new court house is proposed more for Prineville's interests than to meet the needs of the county in general?

There should be no hurry to build a court house now. Taxes while not excessive are heavy enough and those settlers recently buying and improving ditch land should not be asked to bear an unnecessary burden.

It is probable that steps will be taken to postpone further action until there is a full consideration of this matter and until an expression from the tax-payers can be obtained.

Open Letter. To the voters of Oregon, Greeting.—Gentlemen: The undersigned beg leave to submit to you a few of our reasons for asking you to ratify, by your affirmative votes, the amendment granting equal rights to women...

be a difficult matter to produce the evidence necessary to convict. Idaho has done well to seize the serpent before it strangled the commonwealth.

THAT NEW COURT HOUSE.

The objections aroused by the recently announced intention of the county court to build a new court house are so vigorous as to warrant the careful attention of the court.

In view of certain previous expressions and actions, the unsavory suspicion that the new court house is proposed chiefly for the benefit of the county seat is gaining strength.

Wanted. To contract to deliver 750,000 feet of logs, to commence May 1st. HAWKINS BROS., Prineville.

Tumalo Items. Roy Spaugh started to his old home at Roseburg last Saturday. We will miss him around this burg.

Our candidate for county commissioner, R. H. Bayley, is still making friends in these parts and will be elected by a large majority.

Wimer, Jensen, Avery & Co. have six men at work building and putting in a quarter mile of four foot flume at the head of their Tumalo ditch.

F. P. Ground was at Tumalo Saturday. He intends to build a nice residence on his homestead one mile east of Tumalo in the near future.

L. H. Root is still busy hauling lumber from Hightower & Smith's mill to Red-Mr. Root is a hustler from away back.

At this writing we are having a nice, refreshing rain and we welcome it as the crops need more moisture.

Hightower & Smith are now sawing a fine lot of shingles.

M. N. Neil made a trip to LaJolla today.

A. J. Wimer is now the possessor of a fine matched team of gray horses, having bought them from Mr. Nichols.

Mrs. George W. Wimer visited the first of the week at the J. W. Baker home.

Rosland Items. (Too late for last week.) ROSLAND, May 17.—A few timber people have passed through Rosland the last week.

Mr. Masten made a trip to Bend after lumber the first of the week.

F. Bogue started for Shaniko Tuesday after supplies for his store.

Sam and Hugh Findley passed through here for Silver Lake with their freight teams.

D. A. Findley has taken his cattle to Klamath for the summer.

Quite a few emigrant teams are passing on their way to Klamath to work on the big ditch there.

Mrs. John Ryan of Bend is visiting at Rosland for a few days.
