We Don't Have 'Em Here.

Eight rattlesnakes in one forenoon is a pretty good record, but that is the number that Urban Heineck and Jake Peterson killed one day last week while haying for Mrs. Andrew Vibbert about six miles north of Madras. The largest of the rattlers had 11 rattles and a button to its credit. Heineck, who was pitching the hay onto the load, killed all of the snakes, which he found under the shocks of hay. They have killed a number of other rattlesnakes on the plains during harvest, but this is the best day's business so far reported in that line. Rattlesnakes are found along the Deschutes as far south as Crooked River, but beyond that they are only found rarely. In this immediate locality they seem to be unusually plentiful this year.—Pioneer.

A PRETTY WEDDING

Bend Young Lady Married Sunday Evening.

REV. J. C. GEORGE OFFICIATED

Miss Nola Kever Joined in Marriage to Mr. B. E. Williams of Eugene—A Reception Tendered.

Last Sunday evening, promptly at 8 o'clock, occurred the marriage of Miss Nola M. Kever, of Bend, to Mr. B. E. Williams of Eugene, the ceremony being solemnized by the Rev. J. C. George before a large number of friends, in the Bend church.

Immediately at the close of the regular Christian Endeavor services, Mrs. N. P. Weider pleasingly sang, "O, Promise Me," during the rendering of which the bridal party entered the church, the groom and Rev. George preceding, followed presently by the bride, who was led to the altar by her father, Mr. John L. Kever. Rev. George then pronounced the words that united the lives of these two young people, the ring ceremony being used.

The bride wore a dress of white silk, with orange blossoms in her hair, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom wore the conventional black.

Friends of the bride had decorated the altar and pulpit very prettily with juniper boughs and large bouquets of native flowers. A wedding bell, covered with sweet peas, was suspended within the recess at the rear of the pulpit. The decorations were very pretty and added much to the impressiveness of the occasion.

Following the ceremony a reception was tendered to the newly wedded couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brown, where the bride has been staying, the guests being the active members of the Christian Endeavor society, in which organization Miss Kever has been a faithful worker. Here Mrs. H. C. Ellis and Miss Marion West sang a pretty duet, Mrs. Weider again favored those present with vocal and instrumental selections, and Miss Iva West played a violin solo. Dainty refreshments were served, and the evening passed very pleasantly.

The courtship of these two young people, which was so happily ended last Sunday evening, had quite a touch of romance in its inception. Last summer Mr. Kever and Miss Nola went to Eugene for a short stay and while there Mr. Kever became quite ill, during which time his daughter carefully nursed him back to health. At the same time, Mr. Williams' father was also ill in the same hotel and during his frequent visits to the bedside of his sick father, Mr. Williams met Miss Kever, which acquaintance soon ripened into more than friendship.

Miss Kever has been a popular member of Bend's social circles, a hard worker in the church and Christian Endeavor society, and numbers many friends among Bend people. These will regret her departure, but heartily extend their best wishes for her future happiness and welfare. The groom is connected with his father in the operation of a sawmill near Eugene, is a promising young man and one universally respected in his home community.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left Monday for Portland, from which place they will go to Newport for a short stay and will then go to Southern California to spend the winter. The Christian Endeavor society presented the bride with a very pretty candelabrum and some table linen.

Kind Words.
Miss Ethel Chapman, accompanied by her father, was in town this week from Bend. Miss Chapman is the Crook county candidate of the Pacific Northwest for a trip to the Jamestown Exhibition next year. The young lady is interviewing our people in the interest of her publication and from the success she is meeting with will without doubt be one of the thirty-three young ladies that will advertise Oregon at the Jamestown Exposition. From here she goes to Forest, then to Redmond, Clifton Falls, Sisters, Tumalo, Laidlaw and Bend. We bespeak for her a kindly reception from the people.—Crook County Journal.

BRUIN VISITS BIG PLAIN.

Large Brown Bear Killed by Ranchers Near Madras.

A big brown bear weighing probably 300 pounds was killed on Agency Plains last Sunday by Charles Dillon and Alfred Parkey, who shot him with a 22-calibre rifle. While big game hunters are scouring the mountains in the upper Deschutes and around the berry patches on the Santiam and McKenzie Rivers, two lucky ranchers on the plains can tell a story of big game hunting here at home, which will doubtless discount any stories of the chase that may be brought home from the mountains.

At Alfred Parkey's, homestead last Sunday, Charles Dillon and Parkey noticed a large animal crossing the Parkey field with a lumbering gait, and the animal was soon identified by them as a bear. They only had a small calibre rifle in the house, but mounting their horses they gave chase, and riding around Bruin, shot him with a 22-rifle and killed him. He was a monster brown bear, weighing possibly 300 pounds or more, and when he stood on his hind legs he was as tall as a man.

Agency Plains is a populous farming community, and that Bruin should venture to cross it as he would his native wilds was, in the opinion of the ranchers, justly punished by death. This is probably the first bear that has crossed the plains in a quarter of a century or longer. His presence there can only be explained by the supposition that he was driven out of his haunts in the mountains by forest fires, and seeking new stamping grounds, crossed the Deschutes and climbed the high rimrocks to the plains above.—Madras Pioneer.

Catholic Ladies Organize Society.

The ladies of the Catholic church of Bend met with Mrs. Hugh O'Kane in the parlors of the Hotel Bend last Wednesday afternoon and organized a society—the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society. Hereafter they will meet every two weeks on Wednesday afternoon at the homes of the various members. They chose officers as follows: Mrs. Hugh O'Kane, president; Mrs. John Ryan, vice-president; Mrs. Charles D. Rowe, secretary; Mrs. H. J. P. McDonald, treasurer. At the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Rowe on Wednesday, Sept. 19, all the Catholic ladies of the parish are requested to be present as there is much sewing to be done and the co-operation of all is needed to make the society a success.

Reed-Tuck.

Last Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Lou Reed and Miss Bessie Tuck were united in marriage at Redmond, the ceremony being performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vic O'Connor. The young couple will begin housekeeping at once in one of the C. M. Redfield houses.

THE PREMIUM LIST

Many Prizes Will Be Given at Redmond Fair.

PROMISES TO BE A SUCCESS

People Are Planning to Put on Display Numerous Exhibits of Stock, Vegetables and Fancy Work.

Interest in the Redmond fair is growing as the time appointed for holding it draws near—Sept. 20-22. People are preparing many exhibits and all parts of the county will undoubtedly be well represented in the exhibit halls and stock stalls. The premium lists are being distributed and a perusal of its contents shows that many premiums of no small amounts will be awarded to the winners, covering many classes of exhibits. These range from the finest horse down to the biggest pumpkin and best onion, from the finest baby dress to the prettiest baby (nine to 18 months old, $4.00). The grounds are being put in readiness for the big time, preparations are being made to take care of the crowds, and everything promises a very successful fair.
