

LOCAL BITS.

E. F. Batten left last Tuesday evening for Portland on a business trip.

$1200 to lend on real estate security. Apply at The Bulletin office.

Dr. I. L. Scofield will be in Sisters on Nov. 15 and 16 to do dental work for those desiring it.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bolden of Prineville are in Bend. Mr. Bolden is looking after business matters.

Mrs. John Wells of Asotin, Wash., arrived in Bend the first of the week and is the guest of Mrs. Hugh O'Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Staats left the first of the week for a business trip to Portland.

Nick Weider and E. A. Smith strung the wires this week for a phone that will soon be put in the Steele restaurant.

Lew Reed of Redmond came to Bend last evening with quite a crew of men and will proceed to clean and repair the D. I. & P. Co's. canals.

Miss Catherine Burns, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake for the past month, returned to her Portland home last Tuesday evening.

Dr. I. L. Scofield will be at Laidlaw on November 12 and 13, where those desiring dental work can see him. Later he will make a professional visit to Tumalo.

The three rooms in the rear of the B. M. hall have been taken out this week and the entire space thrown into the hall. This adds materially to the size and convenience of this popular meeting place.

The band boys have posters up announcing a grand masquerade ball for Thanksgiving eve. Prizes will be given and a turkey supper will be served. With the B. M. hall enlarged there will be room for everybody and everybody should dance.

The Deschutes Telephone Co. has commenced the extension of its lines and now has a crew of six men setting poles and stretching wire on the new line to Rosland. The line will be extended a few miles beyond Rosland this fall—as far as the George Sly ranch. The crew is now camped at Wet Weather Springs.

D. A. Findley was in Bend this week loading lumber to be used on his ranch at Rosland. He is putting a floor in his large cattle and hay barn, which building accommodates 50 cows and many tons of hay. Mr. Findley announces that he will go out of the beef cattle business soon and will turn his attention to dairying.

J. C. Stiles of Laidlaw was in Bend last Friday.

L. P. Burke has leased the Merrill ranch for the next year.

J. H. Filey brought in a load of freight to Bend last Monday.

Milt Roberts of Sisters was a caller in Bend the first of the week.

Rev. J. C. George will preach at the church next Sunday evening.

Are you going to dance at the band boys' dance tomorrow night?

$500 to lend on real estate security. Apply at The Bulletin office.

Frank Glass of Redmond was in Bend on business matters Tuesday.

H. F. Jones and C. M. Redfield of Redmond were Bend callers last Sunday.

Freighter Woods arrived in Bend yesterday with more freight for Sather.

C. B. Allen, one of the big ranchers in the Meadows country, was in Bend Monday.

Miss Mary Riley was a Bend visitor yesterday from their ranch on the river north of town.

Mrs. W. R. Wilkinson was in Bend Monday from their homestead, returning Tuesday.

Steidl & Benson is the name of a new firm of Bend men. Their specialty is dealing in pine lands and timber.

A. Lord arrived in Bend last Friday. Mr. Lord is connected with the buying of timber in this region for the Shevlin interests.

Advertising pays. Help to advertise Bend. Souvenir postal cards will do it. Grant has some fine views of our new school house.

E. A. Griffin and L. H. McCann are plowing on their homesteads in 19-12 this week and will seed it to winter wheat—the Cox variety.

Robert Bowser and Arthur Ely returned to Bend Tuesday from Cline Falls where they had been working on Mr. Bowser's desert claim.

There has been considerable rainfall during the week at Bend and vicinity and the farmer who has in any fall seeding is consequently happy.

The Linster sawmill is one of the busiest places in Bend these days. Its crew of men is kept busy sawing during the day, and the planer is run at night.

E. A. Griffin has hauled three loads of lumber to his homestead this week, for additions to his house. He is building an addition consisting of two bedrooms.

J. A. Tracey of Portland has been in Bend during the week attending to business matters connected with the purchase of timber. He is the partner of O. J. Gray, who has frequently been in Bend.

L. H. McCann has started work this week on a chicken house on his homestead in 19-12. It measures 10x16 feet. He will also build a lean-to to the barn for a cow shed and later will build a hog shed and yard.

W. S. Nichol is this week moving his stock of groceries and drugs from the Merrill building across the street into the Mutzig building. He will also occupy the old Bend Furniture Co's building for a store house.

Genial "Dad" West returned Wednesday evening from a three months' stay at Prineville, where he has been working on the new stone hotel. He is now changing the location of a chimney in the L. D. West residence and Monday will start building a new fireplace for Mrs. Elsie Riley on her ranch north of town.

One day last week while Andrew Robinson was hauling logs for the Linster mill, the wagon wheels broke through the bridge that crosses the Pilot Butte canal about a mile southeast of Bend. It required nearly a day of hard work to get the load off the bridge and was the means of causing Mr. Robinson to lose three trips. There was no damage done except to the bridge.

Even at Prineville, The Bulletin is in great demand and eagerly read by many. A subscriber who recently spent several months in the county seat and who had The Bulletin delivered at the hotel where he stopped, reports that frequently he was unable to get The Bulletin for his own use until it was four or five days old, so eager were people to read it.

Hugh O'Kane has just installed a large septic tank to receive the sewerage from the Hotel Bend. It is an air tight, cement lined receptacle in which the sewerage is disposed of by germs feeding upon it. These tanks are coming into quite general use for the disposal of the sewerage from cities and large institutions such as asylums, orphan's homes, etc., and have proven very satisfactory wherever tried.

The hunting party composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake, Miss Liza Woods, Miss Catherine Burns, A. L. Goodwillie and Dr. Coe returned to Bend last Saturday morning after nearly a three weeks' outing in the upper Deschutes country. They went to within about 10 miles of Davis Lake, and although no bears were encountered, they did succeed in bagging a number of ducks and pheasants. They report a delightful time.

John Sisemore's black team took a spirited run down Wall street last Saturday and furnished considerable excitement for a few minutes. They left the rear wheels and the box in the street in front of The Bulletin office, tore down the street, circled around the lots on which is the Bend Water, Light and Power building, then ran down Ohio street eastward a short distance where they were stopped. Not much damage was done.
