

LOCAL BITS.

George Meyers of Prineville has been in Bend the past week.
 E. D. Henry of Laidlaw was in Bend on business last Saturday.
 Have you tried Grant's Peach Marine? If not, try it.
 C. M. Redfield and C. N. Elbert of Redmond were in Bend Monday.
 $400 to lend on real estate security. Apply at The Bulletin office.
 H. W. Lakin arrived in Bend Tuesday afternoon to attend to business matters.
 Mrs. Moses Niswonger was in town from the Powell Buttes station last Saturday.

Grant is selling souvenir postal cards of Bend's new school house. Have you done your duty?
 C. M. Weymouth and C. D. Brown went to Prineville Tuesday on business, returning Thursday afternoon.
 C. D. Brown & Co have moved their office from the Triplett building into the O'Kane building on Oregon street.

Last week Mike Mayfield and Mr. Moffatt drove about 700 head of cattle from the range south of Rosland to the home ranches.
 H. R. Satchwell and "Tex" Ethridge reached Bend yesterday with two loads of wire and other supplies for the telephone extensions. They had on about 3500 pounds apiece. There is a carload of this freight to be hauled from Shaniko to Bend.
 Two loads of freight—about 10,000 pounds—were sent out by Hugh O'Kane Thursday morning for the Rankin surveyors. The freight was to be taken as far as the George Rice ranch on the "Little Meadows." This freight had been stored in the automobile barn.

There was quite an exodus from Bend Thursday morning, composed mostly of people who had been here looking after timber interests. The party started for Shaniko and included Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Muncy, B. W. Lakin, Thos. Stevlin, A. Lord, M. Kelly and S. A. Blakley.
 Paul Kenemer returned to Bend last Friday from riding the range south of Rosland. He and Dick Vandeventer came back together and brought with them 75 head of young cattle belonging to Mr. Vandeventer. Mr. Y. still has about 150 head of older cattle in that region which he will drive down later.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Bend was visited with very high winds, which stirred up a great amount of dust and made housekeeping hard for the housewives. The wind culminated Wednesday night in a heavy down-pour of rain, soaking the ground to a depth of five or six inches. It will prove a blessing to the man who has fall sown grain in.

A good drink, Peach Marine, at Grant's, 5c.
 J. C. Stiles of Laidlaw was a Bend visitor last Sunday.
 Miss Florence McCann is visiting at Silver Lake this week.
 Tom Sharp was a caller in Bend several days of this week.
 W. E. Bogue of Rosland was a business caller in Bend Monday.
 $900 to lend on real estate security. Apply at The Bulletin office.
 C. E. Park of Redmond was attending to business in Bend Tuesday.

Attorney Wickham was in Prineville the latter part of last week attending to legal business.
 R. H. Muncy has been in Bend during the past week from his work of cruising timber with Mr. Lakin's crews.
 The high wind Tuesday afternoon completely tipped over quite a large chicken house for H. R. Satchwell.

Mrs. R. H. Muncy was in Bend this week from her Seattle home. She came to make final proof on a timber claim.
 James Breen has returned to Bend after several weeks working with Engineer Millar's crew of surveyors on the Oregon Eastern.
 Wednesday night the lowest temperature recorded by Observer Grant's instruments was 54 degrees. That was remarkably warm for this time of the year.

Commencing November 19, the Tumalo mail stage will leave Bend on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays, instead of Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
 C. D. Brown & Co is the latest Bend firm. It comprises Mr. Brown, C. M. Weymouth and E. Niswonger. The firm's specialty is timber lands and other real estate.

Commissioner Ellis is one of the busiest men in Bend these days. With another large grist of proofs to attend to this week and the extension of the telephone line to Rosland to look after, he has his time fully occupied.
 Adam Kotzman has recently bought 100 head of cattle, with both milch cows and feeders among the number. Mr. Kotzman is very anxious to get the farmers hereabouts interested in dairying and says every farm should have cows, pigs and chickens.

The Laidlaw Development League has drawn up lengthy resolutions protesting against the announced purpose of the reclamation service to build a dam in the Deschutes and thus spoil a railroad route into Central Oregon. The document will be laid before the reclamation service.
 Dr. Ellis and family of Reardon, Wash., moved onto the old Hendrickson ranch this week, and will make this their future home. There are many new comers settling in the Bend country this fall, which is pleasing to everyone. The citizens are anxious to see the country settled and welcome new arrivals.

Sam A. Blakley, who has been cruising timber for the Scanlon-Gipson company during the summer, left Bend Thursday morning to return to Minnesota. Mr. Blakley likes the Bend country very well. He said it was quite probable that he would be sent back here to do more work for the company and if he is he would bring his family with him.
 C. C. Close of Grangeville, N. D., arrived in Bend this week with his family and is taking up his residence on his recently purchased ditch land east of Bend near the Baldwin ranch. Mr. Close will begin the development of his ranch as soon as he gets settled on the place. He is one of those welcome new comers that we are all glad to see arrive in the Bend country.

$1200 to lend on real estate security. Apply at The Bulletin office.
 Last Tuesday the temperature at Bend was remarkably free from variations. The range was only eight degrees, the highest 59°, the lowest 51°.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Percival has been gladdened by the arrival of a little daughter, who was born to them on Sunday, November 4.—Pioneer.
 Herman Spicer was in Bend Tuesday from his homestead in the Tumalo country. Mr. Spicer is building a house 20x26 feet out of logs, doing the work alone, and says it is pretty strenuous labor.

Rev. Campbell Tavenor will preach Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock at the church and a cordial invitation is extended to all to hear him. He is to be the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church for the Bend circuit.
 J. S. Smythe is another new comer here who has purchased land a few miles east of Bend, near the tract purchased by C. C. Close. He is making the preliminary arrangements to take up his residence on it. Mr. Smythe comes from Idaho.

Those who attend the band boys' masquerade on Thanksgiving eve, will be treated to some special music by Messrs. John Ferguson and W. J. McGillivray. Mr. Ferguson will play the harp and Mr. McGillivray the violin, and these two gentlemen will probably be accompanied by Dr. Coe with the clarinet. The special music by these gentlemen, together with several new selections by the band, will be alone well worth the price of admission.
 The petition asking for the pardon of John F. Dell, sentenced to one year in the penitentiary for the killing of William Pugh at Prineville, has been presented to Governor Chamberlain and carried 60 signatures. A remonstrance has also been filed protesting against the granting of the pardon. The remonstrance had 90 signers. There seems to be much difference of opinion as to the degree of blame that attaches to Dell for the killing of the old man.
