D. A. Findley of Rosland was a business caller in Bend Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan went to Prineville last Sunday, returning Wednesday.

T. A. Rutherford of Laidlaw was in attendance at the masquerade ball Wednesday evening.

The Rev. J. C. George was in Bend Tuesday getting a load of lumber from the P. B. D. Co. sawmill.

Mrs. E. P. Batten has been very ill for the past few weeks, and at the present time is not getting much better.

Herman Spicer was in Bend a few days of the week from his homestead on the Tumalo. He was after provisions.

B. F. Scott came over from Prineville Tuesday to help the band boys out with their music for the masquerade ball.

Nichol says his Christmas goods are going rapidly. If you want a good selection to choose your gifts from you had better hurry.

"Dad" West returned Tuesday from a duck hunting trip in The Meadows country. He brought back 12 ducks and a large swan.

George Brosterhous came in from the Davenport ranch to spend Thanksgiving with his family in Bend. He is doing carpenter work on the many buildings being built there.

Are you a booster? If you are, send your friends some of those souvenir postal cards of Bend's new school house and show the outside world what we can do here. Grant has them.

Elmer Merrill arrived in Bend last Saturday from the Lakin camp of cruisers in the Silver Lake country. He will not return to his work at the camp but will go onto his homestead.

C. C. Close, one of the new comers to the Bend country, was in Bend Wednesday from his farm east of town. Mr. Close is busy getting a home built and preparing for next season's work.

If you are losing your hair try a bottle of Thorp's Herb Nourishment. It is guaranteed to stop falling hair, remove dandruff, and produce a new growth of hair. For sale by W. S. Nichol. 30tf

J. M. Lawrence, who had been visiting in Bend for a week past, and A. M. Drake left Tuesday morning for outside points, Mr. Lawrence returning to Roseburg, and Mr. Drake going to Portland.

Frank B. Foster of Rideout & Foster, H. Baldwin of the First National Bank, and P. B. and Ora Paindexter, all of Prineville, were in Bend last Sunday on their way to up-river places on a hunting expedition.

Andy Hunter arrived in Bend last Friday and has been spending the week at the home of his brother, Joe Hunter. He brought with him a load of apples from Hood River—40 boxes—and found a ready market for them.

E. B. Sawyer, transit man with Shaw's crew of surveyors, registered at the Hotel Bend last Tuesday. He was on his way to the railroad, the ultimate end of his journey to be at Madeline in northern California.

Barney Lewis and Henry Tweet, who have been hauling hay to Bend from The Meadows for some time, finished their work last Friday, having hauled about 31 tons. The greater part of this was sold to Lucas & Wepandy.

Mrs. J. E. Nichols and son, J. B., of Laidlaw registered at the Pilot Butte Inn last Sunday. They were on their way to Pine Mountain in the Silver Lake country to look for timber claims. Francis Marion was acting as locator.

The Catholic Ladies' Altar Society met with Mrs. Christina Weider last Wednesday afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Weider to her guests during the afternoon. The society will meet with Mrs. Felix Linster in two weeks.

George A. Jones of Seattle, son of Mrs. C. A. Jones, arrived in Bend Wednesday evening for a few days' visit. He was accompanied by Mrs. T. V. Carney, also of Seattle, who will visit with Mrs. Jones for several weeks. The ladies are old-time friends.

Have you tried Grant's Peach Marine, 5c? If not, try it. 35tf

Miss Jackie Brock returned last Sunday to Bend from Mitchell, where she had been working on a newspaper for some time.

Charley Cottor took a jaunt upstream Monday after the feathered tribe. He went to the Frank West place and from there floated down river to Benham Falls. He bagged eight ducks, but reports that he saw great numbers of them. They are rather wild, however.

There will be preaching at the church next Sunday both morning and evening by the Rev. Campbell Tavenor. In the evening there will be a special Thanksgiving service, immediately following a very short consecration service by the Christian Endeavorers.

Mrs. Brosterhous of Prineville, mother of George Brosterhous of Bend, recently made a trip to Silver Lake to make final proof on a timber claim. She is a lady 70 years of age and made the hard and tiresome ride to and from Silver Lake and stood it much better than many a younger person. In fact, she did not seem to mind the trip at all.

Next Friday evening, December 7, a reception will be given in the church in honor of the Rev. Campbell Tavenor. Rev. Tavenor is the pastor recently assigned by the Methodist conference to the circuit in which the Bend parish is included, and the reception is given in order that the people may meet the new pastor. A short program will be given and light refreshments will be served. Everybody is most cordially invited.

Mrs. Michael Morrison returned to Bend last Saturday, after several months at Portland, where she underwent an operation, and later visited at the old home in Minnesota. She was accompanied by Miss Sullivan, her nurse at the hospital, who will spend a vacation with Mrs. Morrison in Bend. Friends of Mrs. Morrison are glad to know that she has fully recovered from the effects of the operations and that she is now in good health.

Two large loads left the P. B. D. Co's mill this morning, one —7026 feet—for J. Bogue at Rosland; the other containing 3000 feet of lumber and 7500 shingles, for Mr. Imes at Powell Butte. Mr. Imes is a new comer there and is building a house and barn. Jim Overton took the load to Rosland and R. Vaughn the one to Powell Butte. The lumber for Rosland is for a new hotel to take the place of the one recently burned. This load exceeds by about 2000 feet any load of lumber ever hauled hereabouts.

The band boys' masquerade ball Wednesday evening was a very successful affair and was enjoyed by a large number of dancers and spectators. The floor was in excellent condition, the music by the band was good, while that by Messrs. Ferguson, Callihan, Coe and Scott was pleasing and enjoyed by all. About 12 o'clock a most appetizing turkey supper was served at the Pilot Butte Inn, where the dining room and tables presented a very tasty appearance with neat decorations. The band added about $34 to the treasury from the receipts.
