

LOCAL BITS.

Grant has a great assortment of toys for the little chap's Christmas.

C. M. Redfield of Redmond was seen on Bend's streets Wednesday.

Dr. B. J. Ellis was a business caller in Bend Wednesday from his ranch east of town.

Mrs. R. J. McCann left for Silver Lake Wednesday night to file on a timber claim.

Miss Florence McCann returned Tuesday night from a three weeks' visit at Silver Lake.

If you are looking for gifts for the little folks, you had better see Grant about it. 38-39

Charles D. Brown and Elmer Niswonger returned to Bend Tuesday from a business trip to Lakeview and Silver Lake.

Mrs. W. R. Wilkinson left Wednesday morning on a visit to outside places. She will visit at Prineville, Portland and Spokane.

Millar's crew of surveyors on the Oregon Eastern is now camped at the Horse Ranch, 22 miles north of Silver Lake. The crew is locating on the east and west line formerly ran by Buck.

John Bain has sold out his interests in the stage station between Rosland and Silver Lake to Jeff Howard who is now running it. Bain has owned that station and run it for many years.

If you are losing your hair try a bottle of Thorp's Herb Nourishment. It is guaranteed to stop falling hair, remove dandruff, and produce a new growth of hair. For sale by W. S. Nichol. 30ff Osborne Edwards was in Bend Tuesday from Rosland where he is working on the new hotel being built by Hogue & Son. The hotel will be 76x40 feet, two stories high. A. A. Anthony has the contract.

Dr. M. V. Turley announces that he will be in Bend to open his office about the middle of the month. The doctor will be detained for some time by the Melvin-Dorrance trouble, but will be in Bend as soon as possible.

L. D. Wiest shot and killed another large hawk this week, this last one measuring 55 inches from tip to tip of wings. This is the third large hawk killed by Mr. Wiest this season, besides several smaller ones.

John H. Wenandy expects to leave the first of next week for the old home in Montana. He will be gone about 10 days. Returning he will bring with him some new buggies and harness for the Lucas & Wenandy livery stable.

William P. Downing, the man who carries the Tumalo-Bend mail, this season raised on his farm on the Tumalo 35 sacks of potatoes from one sack of seed. One hill alone yielded a trifle over 19 pounds. The potatoes were Burbank's "Proflific." Not a bad yield.

Christmas comes but once a year. Make the children happy by getting their gifts at Grant's. 38-39

You are cordially invited to the reception to be given this evening in the church in honor of the new pastor, Rev. Tavenor.

There will be preaching services, with special music, held in the Bend church on Christmas evening, the 25th. Rev. Tavenor will preach.

J. Stroud and son Frank have recently bought Albert Seals' interests in the livery stable and other property formerly owned in Bend by Stroud & Seals.

Creed Triplett, Barney Lewis and Carlyle Triplett have been spending the past week with Elmer Merrill on his homestead near the "fish trap." They have been hunting the feathered bipeds.

An order of nursery stock, comprising fruit and shade trees, etc., was received Saturday by several Bend people from The Dalles Nursery Co. The order amounted to $49. Those receiving trees were E. P. Brosterhaus, Mrs. Louisa Cottor, Leo Pelarski, A. H. Grant, and Geo. W. Wimer & Sons of Tumalo.

There is a case of smallpox reported at Prineville, the patient being a little son of James Ewing. When the smallpox scourge visited Crook county in 1903, other members of this family had the disease and it is supposed that the present case is due to germs left in the house at the time. It is said to be a mild form of the disease.

G. W. Triplett circulated a subscription paper during the past week in an attempt to secure enough money to pay the expense of having a chimney built in the rear of the church. As it now is it is very difficult to heat the church to a comfortable temperature and another chimney is badly needed, thereby furnishing better draft for the stove in the rear of the building.

W. B. Sellers left Thursday morning for Portland to take charge of the company's office at that place during the absence of B. W. Lakin at Minneapolis. Mr. Lakin has been called to Minneapolis on business and will be absent from 10 days to two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Stroud were in Bend the first of the week on their return trip from making final proof on Mrs. Stroud's timber claim at Silver Lake. Mr. Stroud said they would remain in Prineville for a short time and later would move to Portland. If they were not satisfied at Portland they would probably go to Coos Bay. He states that he hopes his wife's health will be so much improved that they will be able to return to Bend in a year.
