The Bulletin family is indebted to J. I. West for the gift of a fine spring chicken for their Christmas dinner. It was the finest ever.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ellis represented Bend at a neighborhood gathering on the Allen & Barnes ranch near Clatsop Falls, Christmas day.

"Dad" West and Carlyle Triplett were in the timber south of town yesterday getting out some big logs to be hauled to town for stove wood.

Nick Weider and E. Smith were busy yesterday putting up cross-arms and stretching a wire for a phone to be placed in the new residence of Felix Linster.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wiest were host and hostess to a few friends to a Christmas dinner. Those present were J. I. West, G. W. Triplett and John Sismore.

W. P. Vandeventer came down from the ranch to spend Christmas with his family in town. Later he went to Prineville to participate in some "goings" by a lodge at that place.

The business meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at Mrs. Caldwell's Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 3. Come early and bring a friend.

To the People of Bend: I have rented the Triplett barbershop and am prepared to give good, clean service, clean towels, etc. I solicit a share of your patronage.—J. C. THORP.

O. S. Crocker left last Sunday morning to spend the holidays at the old home in Portland.

Bend merchants report a very satisfactory Christmas business. Many out-of-town people did their trading here. They are learning that Bend stores are a good place at which to do their shopping.

H. C. Ellis and Nick Weider went up to The Meadows last Friday afternoon and put in 'phones in the residences of B. Frank West and Millard Hawthorne. These two phones are on the new Rosland line.

Frank Hensley and wife were in Bend Saturday attending to business from their ranch near Forked Horn Butte. Mr. Hensley has a homestead and some ditch land there and is well pleased with Deschutes valley as a crop producer.

The public school of Bend closed last Friday afternoon for a two weeks' vacation, the crowning event of the day being the holding of Christmas exercises in Mrs. Smith's room. A Christmas tree in all its glory made the little folks' eyes sparkle, and a pleasing program was rendered.

E. Garratt has just completed a new roof on his residence in the Arnold ditch district and has also added a fine, large veranda. Mr. Garratt was sole architect and builder. His friends announce that these improvements look suspicious and that "there may be something 'join'."

The young folks of the Vandeventer family went up to their ranch at The Meadows Tuesday to take care of the place while "Pa" Vandeventer came to town to spend the holiday week. The party comprises George, Grace, Claude and Arthur Vandeventer and Kenneth Minor.

The telephone company was forced this week to put up cross-arms on the poles along Wall street to accommodate the wire for the Linster 'phone. Four cross arms carrying 12 wires each—or a total of 48 wires—had been filled. Another evidence of increased business in Bend.

L. D. Wiest returned to Bend Saturday night after an absence of three weeks. During that time he has been engaged on an exploring expedition in the Metolius river region. On completion of the work in that vicinity he expects to go to Warm Springs to continue work from the Metolius north.

The sack of letters and registered mail that was reported lost last week was not lost but had been carried from Prineville back to Shaniko by mistake. The stage from Shaniko and the one leaving for Shaniko pulled up to the Prineville postoffice about the same time, and the driver, who was just leaving for Shaniko, got hold of the wrong sack and carried it back to the railroad.

Christmas exercises at the union church Monday evening called out a large attendance, and the cantata, "The Capture of Santa Claus," was pleasing to all. Miss Marion Wiest had drilled a chorus of about 40 voices so well that it was a treat, indeed, to listen to them. After Santa Claus had been properly captured and disposed of, the gifts were distributed, and every child in the house went home carrying a large sack of candy and nuts.

Christmas exercises at the Catholic church were enjoyed by a gaudy number. The church had been very prettily decorated and was lighted throughout with candles, a handsome tree stood in the corner, and a pleasing program was given by the children. Candy, popcorn, apples and nuts were distributed to the children later in the evening by Santa Claus. The success of the evening's exercises is due largely to Leon Pelarske, who labored faithfully in decorating the church and tree.

Deer Are Plentiful.

Deer are reported to be plentiful on the desert in the southern part of the county, and two were killed within two or three miles of Redmond. The deer are driven out of the mountains by the snow, and come down to the desert to feed during the winter season. It has not been many years since large herds of them roamed over the desert unmolested, but the settling up of the Central Oregon country has decimated their number in the past ten years.—Madras Pioneer.
