

LOCAL BITS.

School will begin next Monday. Have you joined the procession? Mike McGrath was in Bend from the Rowlee ranch Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan left Wednesday on a business trip to Prineville.

M. F. Hawthorne was in Bend Tuesday from his ranch in the Rosland country.

Miss Nina Wilkinson left Thursday morning for Portland, where she will visit for a week or to days.

C. M. Weymouth and Chas. Brock left Sunday for the Odell country to look after timber business.

H. C. Ellis was over on the Prineville-forest line the first of the week putting in two rural phones.

H. J. Overturf returned to Bend Monday night from Portland, where he had spent Christmas with friends.

Mrs. C. A. Jones returned Saturday night from Portland, where she spent Christmas with her son and daughter.

W. Ray Wilkinson will soon build a barn on his homestead in 1912. His father, I. J. Wilkinson, is handling the lumber this week.

G. T. Callihan and John Ferguson were attending to business matters in Bend Wednesday from their ranches in the Arnold ditch district.

Dr. A. A. Burris, who owns a tract of land just east of Bend, has notified The Bulletin that he has moved from Hillsboro onto his land near Madras.

A. A. Anthony and Osborne Edwards were down from Rosland last Sunday. They are building the new hotel there, Mr. Anthony having the contract.

To the People of Bend: I have rented the Triplett barbershop and am prepared to give good, clean service, clean towels, etc. I solicit a share of your patronage.—J. C. THORP.

C. A. Chapman and Frank Butterworth went out to the Chapman homestead Wednesday and will be busy for the next week or two building a dwelling house and other farm buildings.

Nick Weider, Mrs. A. C. Lucas and Mrs. W. B. Sellers and son Ronald went to Prineville Tuesday, returning Wednesday. Mr. Weider is papering the hotel and he and Mrs. Lucas went to pick out the paper.

Some of Bend's citizens are figuring on storing a supply of ice for their own use next summer. W. S. Nichol has given orders for the storing of about 20 tons and others may follow his example before "ice weather" sets in.

Have You Joined The Procession?

People from all over the country are learning more and more from day to day—learning that Nichol's is the place where good goods are found and right prices kept on tap. There's a great procession coming to his store every week—have you joined it? If not, do so at once—

Get on the band wagon! Go with the push!

It will cost you nothing. Indeed, you will save money. He has everything in the grocery line from the cleanser of dirty hands to all the dainty nick nacks, spices, etc. that go to make the finest cooking. His store is a refuge for the troubled housewife.

TRY HIM? YES. EVERYTHING IN THE DRUG LINE—Prescriptions filled by an Experienced Registered Pharmacist W. S. NICHOL

Have you joined the procession? Some reckless hunters recently shot a fine yearling colt belonging to W. P. Vandeventer on his ranch at Lava. The animal died from the wound in a few days.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning the stage from Silver Lake had not yet arrived owing to the hard storm of yesterday. The Bend mail was sent on to Prineville by a special stage.

If you are losing your hair try a bottle of Thorp's Herb Nourishment. It is guaranteed to stop falling hair, remove dandruff, and produce a new growth of hair. For sale by W. S. Nichol.

Parties coming from above Lava Butte yesterday morning reported that there was then a foot and a half of light snow, which was drifting, and the snow was still falling. This morning the Rosland telephone line was out of commission.

John H. Wenyandy announces that the new stage company expects to have the line in operation in about a week. The relay stations have all been secured and arrangements will soon be completed so that the line can begin doing business.

Following is the record of the money order business done at the Bend postoffice during December: 312 domestic orders; amount, $2,333.31; fees, $18.07. Two international orders; amount, $29.35; fees, 38 cents. Paid 39 domestic orders, amount, $491.81.

The regular monthly consecration meeting of the Christian Endeavor society will be held next Sunday evening a 7 o'clock in the church. All members are requested to be present to answer to roll call. Topic: "A New Year with God." Text, Gen. 1: 1; John 1: 1-14; 15: 4-7. Leader, Miss F. Violet Reed.

Preparations are being made these days to procure the necessary ice for next summer's use in Bend. W. J. Robison, during the past week, has turned water from the river into a natural reservoir five or six miles south of town and when colder weather comes on the ice will be cut, hauled to town and packed.

In another column will be found an interesting article by Prof. Elias Nelson, concerning the movements of water in the soil. Prof. Nelson formerly had charge of the D. I. & P. Co.'s experiment farm near Bend and now holds a position at Caldwell, Idaho, as irrigation expert in experiment work carried on jointly by the government and the state of Idaho.

Sherwood Bros., who own a ranch lying about 10 miles southwest of Bend, entertained some of their friends New Year's day. A splendid dinner was served by the boys, a dinner that would do credit to the best cooks in the land. After dinner games and music were the order of the day. In the evening the guests returned to their homes feeling that the first day of the new year had indeed been a bright and happy one for them.

A Double Wedding. The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Phillips of Madras was the scene of a double wedding on Saturday, Dec. 22, in which Miss Maude Phillips became the bride of Rev. G. P. Pinkham and a younger daughter, Miss Ida, the bride of Joseph E. Redingfield. The Pioneer says: "The brides are two of the most popular young ladies of this community, and during their residence here for the past six years have been prominent in church and social circles. Miss Maude, until a week ago, was engaged in work for the Pencil Mission at Portland, and she is peculiarly fitted by her tastes and disposition to be a helpmate and companion to her husband, Rev. Pinkham, who is engaged in ministerial work, and now has a charge at Glimmer, Washington."

Rev. Pinkham has preached in Bend several times, this place being included in the circuit over which he had charge for several months until recently.
