Redmond Notes.

REDMOND, Jan. 24—Before this letter reaches Bend The Bulletin will probably have a report of Saturday night's ratification meeting. Everything went with a whoop and a hurrah. Facts were flung to the winds (unfurling to the breeze would perhaps be better), fancy was given full play, and the harp of a thousand strings was touched. Altogether it reminded us of the stirring times just preceding the Revolution when, Rex, Vox Populi, Caesar, Fabius, A Federal Farmer and the other notables were engaged in sounding "war's loud alarms." Really it looked at times as though gore might be pounded out of the walls or brought down from the ceiling. When the matter of the increased valuation of Western Crook county was touched upon we felt quite a glow of pride in thinking of this little 40 acres that would have been assessed at about 13 cents a year ago, and realizing that it is now a part of that magnificent $4,000,000. But we blushed with shame when we came to understand that that was the place to be righteously indignant. The meeting was about the best attended affair we have seen in this community.

A petition for a saloon license is being circulated and also a remonstrance to the same. It is to be hoped that every one who is given an opportunity will sign either one or the other.

After the mass meeting Saturday night came a dance. If it is true that the ladies had it in charge we will guarantee that it was a delightful affair.

Mr. Landis and Mr. Mums started for Shaniko Saturday.

Yours Truly goes to Prineville today on a business trip taking Mr. Trisler and Mr. McQueen with him. A. R. ANDERSON goes Tuesday. E. C. PARK.

Tumalo Items.

TUMALO, Jan. 22.—How beautiful the bright sun seems after the cold spell. Many are predicting that winter is over, but methinks not.

Several loads of Bend people passed through here today enroute to Sisters to attend the mass meeting there tonight. Henry Schumscher was in Tumalo yesterday on business.

J. E. Wimer and Charles Spaug have been busy for several days past hauling sawdust and storing ice for next summer. The ice crop was surely a good one this year.

Parties receiving letters from near Salem state there was eight inches of snow fall there, and the mercury went down to 10 degrees above zero. So I guess we were not the only ones who had a little storm.

Mint Couch took a six-horse load of telephone poles to Tumalo this week for the Deschutes Telephone Co.

A meeting is to be held in Lairlaw Saturday to perfect plans for the erection of a farmer's telephone system throughout the farming district of this county.

The welcome petition for county division made its appearance in Tumalo Saturday and received many signatures.

How glad we will be, When from Prineville we are free, And Deschutes county our home will be.

Then to Bend we will go, To the county seat, you know; To pay our taxes, it will be a delight, For then we will know, Where they will go, And it will be a sight to see When we get our rights in the beautiful Deschutes country. How Prineville will hawl, To see us crawl From under their clawlike hands; But this is what we will do, And then you can boo ho! For we will leave you in your own diminished lands. So farewell Prineville! We have decided to go; Not very far from you though. The court house you can build, But your purses we won't fill. So goodbye Prineville, goodbye.

Powell Buttes Items.

Nice summer days again. The cold snap is gone, soon to be forgotten. Next winter will be the coldest weather people ever saw or the coldest they can remember.

It is rumored that J. J. Jones has bargained to sell his place and will go back to Denver, Col. We hope this is a mistake.

A Powell Butte rancher, while taking a load of wood to town during the icy weather, had his lock chain break about midway of the Prineville grade, but he succeeded in stopping the wagon before it got started down hill by having hold backs on his horses.
