certain if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine cures those eruptions, pimples and boils that appear at all seasons; cures scrofula sores, salt rheum or eczema; cures itself equally well to, and also cures, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles; cures rheumatism and catarrh; cures nervous troubles, debility and that tired feeling.

Sarsaparilla—For those who prefer medicine in tablet form, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now put up in the usual tablet form called Sarsaparilla, as well as in the usual tablet form. Sarsaparilla has identical the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides economy of dose, convenience, economy, no loss by evaporation, breakage, or leakage. Druggists or promptly by mail. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. C. K. Tyler, Burlington, Vt., says: "For years of a large farm, as much to do and so little health to do it with, caused almost a complete breakdown of blood and thin, no strength, little sleep. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave appetite, natural sleep, perfect health, strength to do all my work."

"Here, hold my horse a minute, will you?" "Sir! I'm a member of Congress!" "Never mind. You look honest. 'I'll take a chance."—Courier Journal.

"Why don't you let Willie play in the street with the rest of the kids?" said Mr. Wise. "I'm afraid it will spoil his clothes!" was the wife's answer. "Thunderation!" exclaimed Mr. Wise, "we can buy clothes, but we can't buy brains!"—Clipped.

"Doctor, can't you give me something to relieve my sleeplessness?" "Yes; I could prescribe a sedative, but drugs would do you no real good. Instead of that let me recommend a large, fat onion, to be eaten raw just before going to bed." "Why, doctor, that's exactly what keeps me awake." "How can it possibly have that effect?" "My wife eats it."—Chicago Tribune.

Bobson—You look all broken up, old man. What's the matter? Craik—I called on Miss Prunyn last night, and no sooner had I entered the parlor than her mother appeared and demanded to know my intentions. "That must have been rather embarrassing." A Scotsman the other day went to a London dentist with a toothache. The dentist told him he would only get relief by having it out. Scot—Mon, then I must hae gas. A Prerogative of the Palpit. Doctor Bacon, a New England clergyman of long ago, was reproached by a friend with some pronunciation which was not "according to Webster."

Webster lived in his parish, and the doughty old divine was not disposed to be snubbed with the dictionary.

"What right has Webster to dictate my pronunciation?" he demanded, haughtily. "He is one of my parishioners, and ought to get his pronunciation from me, and not I from him."

Bearded Vulture Largest Bird. The largest bird of prey in the world is the bearded vulture, which measures from wing tip to wing tip as much as nine or ten feet.

Could Still Hear Some. "Doctor, my wife says she is getting deaf." "Tell her it's because she is getting old." "Do you believe she is deaf enough for that to be safe?"—Houston Post.

Only One "BROMO QUININE" That is LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE. Similarly named remedies sometimes deceive. The first and original Cold Tablet is a WHITE PACKAGE with black and red lettering, and bears the signature of E. W. GROVE, Inc.

In the Coming Days. Husband—Maria, this is going to be a closely contested election, and we've got to get everybody out. You'll have to hurry, or you'll be too late.

Wife—Gracious, John! I can't vote to-day. There's no use in talking about it. I haven't a thing that fits to wear to the polls.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Gets Back at Him. Newed—When you say anything that makes your wife angry what does she do—threaten to return to her parents?

Oldwed—Worse than that. She repeats some of the fool things I said during our courtship.

Color Scheme in Soap. A woman who wanted soap of a certain make asked for a blue cake. "It doesn't come in blue," said the clerk. "It is made in yellow, white and green."

The woman seemed disappointed and finally bought another brand of soap in the desired tint.

"That is a queer tad," said the clerk, when she had gone out. "Many women are carrying the color scheme to such extremes nowadays that they use soap that matches the furnishings of the room. In order to meet this demand manufacturers are turning out soaps of almost every known tint. The color they are most deficient in is blue."—New York Sun.

Stimulate the Blood. Brandreth's Pills are the great blood purifier. They are a laxative and blood tonic, they act equally on the bowels, the kidneys and the skin, thus cleansing the system by the natural outlet of the body. They stimulate the blood so as to enable nature to get rid of all morbid humors and cure all troubles arising from an impure state of the blood. One or two taken every night will prove an invaluable remedy.

Each pill contains one grain of solid extract of sarsaparilla, which, with other valuable vegetable products, make it a blood purifier of excellent character. Brandreth's Pills have been in use for over a century and are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.

A Pretty Experiment. A very pretty effect may be produced by using some aniline dye in powdered form in alcohol. Fill a small glass with the alcohol and drop the smallest portion of the dye on its surface. It will shoot down through the liquid, like a strand of color, dividing into two branches, which will subdivide again and again until you have, apparently, an inverted plant in miniature growing before your eyes. An arrangement of mirrors may be made to throw the reflection of this on a screen or a wall, and the enlarged shadows will be very interesting to watch.

It Happens Every Night. At the end of one of the sessions of the world's convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Boston, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens condemned the habit which so many men have of going out between the acts at the theater.

"I am in hearty sympathy," said Mrs. Stevens, "with a woman whose husband said heartily to her, at the end of an interesting drama:

"Jove, what a play. I don't believe there was a dry eye in the house when the curtain went down on the third act."

"No," said the lady, bitterly, "but there seemed to be the usual number of dry throats."

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

A Woman Who Has Suffered Tells How to Find Relief.

The thousands of women who suffer backache, languor, urinary disorders and other kidney ills, will find comfort in the words of Mrs. Jane Farrell, of 606 Ocean ave., Jersey City, N. J., who says: "I reiterate all I have said before in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. I had been having heavy backaches and my general health was affected when I began using them. My feet were swollen, my eyes puffed, and dizzy spells were frequent. Kidney action was irregular and the secretions highly colored. Today, however, I am a well woman, and I am confident that Doan's Kidney Pills have made me so, and are keeping me well."

Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Harmonious Relations. The Marquis del Grillo, the first husband of the great Italian actress, Ristori, had as personal valets only the most quick-witted young fellows who could help him in the practical jokes in which his eccentric soul delighted.

In one instance, says a writer in the New York Times, the marquis was sitting at a piano, trying some church music, when a new applicant was ushered in. He did not stop playing, or even glance round, but began to ask questions. The answers evidently did not appeal to him, for he suddenly struck a loud chord and, following the tune of the music, chanted in a heavy voice:

"You will not do for me." Then he rose, and without a look at the man started to walk out of the room. The applicant quickly stepped to the piano, and striking the keys with both fists, chanted back solemnly in the same air:

"I'm very glad of it, because I don't like you a bit!"

Anyone else would have had the man thrown out for his impudence, but the marquis paused at the door and smiled approvingly.

"I guess we shall get on nicely, after all," he said, pleasantly. "See my maggiordomo and speak to him about terms."

Comparisons. Mrs. Kross-Rhodes—Still, in the city there is more going on. You have ever so much more variety than we do out here.

Mrs. Avnoo—Ah, me, yes! In the last year I have tried cooks of seventeen different nationalities, and haven't found one to suit me yet.

Not Quite in His Line. Kind Hearted Woman—Why don't you give up your idle, useless way of living and make a man of yourself? I don't suppose it ever occurred to you that even a person of your stamp might be useful in settlement work.

Goodman Gonrong—No, ma'am. I've done a little fat workin', but workin' a whole settlement is too dog-gone risky.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly trying to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. The Hall's Family Pills are the best.

The Soft Answer. "I have already said 'No' to you, Mr. Vere," said Miss Bute. "I don't seem to be able to make myself plain, although I have tried."

"Ah, Miss Bute," interrupted Percy Vere, "you couldn't do that, no matter how you try."

"Well—er—of course, I shall always be glad to have you call upon me, Mr. Vere."—Philadelphia Press.
