I am selling out my entire stock of Goods at Cost.

I have decided to close out my grocery and drug business at Bend and move to Hood River, and in order to clean up the stock as soon as possible I am selling absolutely everything in the store at cost prices. I give below my cost mark, bring it with you, compare it with the mark on the goods and satisfy yourself as to the truthfulness of this statement.

Have you seen those new shoes at Merrill's? They are a fine lot and low priced.

C. M. Weymouth left for Portland Wednesday morning and will later make a visit to Coos Bay with a view of finding a business location.

Report says that a large delegation of Prineville people will celebrate the Fourth in Bend. The trout dinner is what is drawing them.

Mrs. Sarah Hunter and daughter, Miss Mabel and son Ora will leave for Hood River Monday morning where they will make their future home.

There were memorial services held at the church on Thursday afternoon, after which the old soldiers and their friends drove to the cemetery to pay respect to the dead.

The Baptist board of Bend met last Tuesday evening and elected officers as follows: J. I. West, chairman; Mrs. E. Estelle Ellis, clerk; Mrs. C. B. Allen, secretary.

J. E. Sawhill has leased the Minor residence, furnished, and will occupy it during the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Minor and son Kenneth will take up residence on their homestead.

It is now reported that four lumber companies are buying timber lands in the Bend country: Shevlin-Clark of Minneapolis, Stearns of Portland, Mueller of Davenport, and Weyerhaeuser.

Rev. Lilly has been appointed to take charge of the circuit recently vacated by Rev. George. He will preach in Bend in the evening of the fourth Sunday of each month, and Rev. Mitchell on the second Sunday.

Word reaches Bend that P. L. Tompkins has bought a fruit ranch a few miles from Hood River and is now actively engaged in the fruit business. He and Mrs. Tompkins are very well pleased with their new home.

A. H. Grant has made arrangements with the Hood River Fruit Growers' Association to handle their fruit at Bend. Orders for strawberries and other fruit will be taken by the case and filled at their lowest prices.

The topic for Christian Endeavor services next Sunday evening will be, "How to Realize the Presence of Christ." Reference, John 14:15-23. Leader, Mrs. Henry Whitsett. This is the regular consecration meeting and all members should be present to respond to roll call.

Dr. Scofield has recently purchased the residence he has been occupying, known as the Lester property and owned by John Sismore. He also bought the two adjoining lots to the south, and will put part into lawn, part into garden. The doctor is also building an addition to the house, consisting of a bathroom and pantry and two porches.

Nick Weider met with a peculiar accident the first of the week while playing ball. He had a ring on the little finger of his right hand and once as he caught the ball, the sphere struck the ring and broke it. The force of the blow sprung the ring open a trifle and drove both prongs into the finger. It made a very painful, though simple, wound.

The erection of a tower tank house will soon be commenced on the Baldwin ranch. The tower will be about 40 feet high and 14 feet square and will be enclosed. Within and at the top of the tower will be built a 2,000 gallon tank. The power for pumping will be furnished either by a windmill on the top of a tower, or by a gasoline engine. This will give an excellent water system for all the buildings on the ranch.

Tomorrow G. W. Triplett, and Tom and Millard Triplett, accompanied by their families, will start on an overland trip to the Coos Bay country. They will go by way of Klamath Falls and will cross the mountains in the southern part of the state. The trip will take them through Rogue River valley and through other portions of western Oregon which they wish to visit. They leave Bend with the intention of locating in Coos county, although they say it is possible they may be back here in the fall.

W. F. Nelson, president of the Oregon Trunk Line railroad, and a Mr. Gregory, vice-president of the Title Trust Co., of Seattle, were in Bend Monday and Tuesday looking up matters in connection with the proposed extension of the Oregon Trunk Line. Tuesday they spent the day, in company with A. M. Drake and J. E. Sawhill, along the river south of Bend fishing and posting themselves in regard to the country. While The Bulletin is not at liberty to state exact facts as to the visit of Messrs. Nelson and Gregory to this place, we can state that it is very confidently believed the visit will result favorably for this entire section.

Bend High School Club Entertains.

The Bend High school Club entertained their friends in a pleasant manner last evening when a mock trial was presented, and later refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake were served.

In the mock trial a true bill was returned against Guy McReynolds by the grand jury as follows:

STATE OF OREGON
vs.
GUY MCREYNOLDS
Circuit Court of the Bend High School, County of Crook, State of Oregon.

Guy McReynolds is accused by the grand jury of the Bend High School, of the County of Crook, by this indictment of the crime of larceny of a horse committed as follows: The aforesaid Guy McReynolds on the 25th day of May, 1907, in the county aforesaid took and carried away a horse, the personal property of George Vandeventer, of the value of more than $35.

Dated at Bend in the county aforesaid the 27th day of May, 1907.
(Signed) PAULINE WIEST, District Attorney.

A TRUE BILL.
(Signed) DOROTHY SCHOOLCRAFT, Foreman of Grand Jury.

Miss Pauline Wiest as district attorney conducted the case for the state, while Miss Pearl Hightower acted as attorney for the defense. The jury, which was chosen from the audience, returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Sallowness Transformed to Dusky Beauty
A dark skin becomes fascinating when delicately soft, underpinned with the radiant glow which indicates a healthy, active skin. Robertine keeps the skin refined in quality, keeps pores free from clogging waste and stimulates the tiny capillaries to contribute the color which charms in blonde and brunette alike. Robertine is certain protection against tan, sunburn and freckles if applied before exposure to sun or wind. Spreads like an imperceptible sheet of gauze over skin surface, forming a shield stimulating and preserving a delicate, lustrous beauty.
