Father Hickey Again Ill.
 Father Hickey, of Wasco, arrived in the city last Sunday evening, intending to leave on Monday to fill appointments with his parishioners in the outlying districts; but owing to a recurrence of an eye trouble which has affected him seriously for some time, he was confined to his bed and was forced to cancel his engagements. It was his intention to hold a series of meetings at James Connolly's, on the John Day, at the Axehandle school house, and at Kingsley, but unless his condition improves he will be obliged to return to Portland and consult his physician. The reverend gentleman has never entirely recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia and bronchitis which confined him in a hospital for several weeks last winter, and in consequence of his enervated condition his eye trouble is easily aggravated, and compels him to remain in a darkened room often for days at a time. Father Hickey's duties are numerous, the territory which he covers in his parochial visits being extensive. Besides, he is devoting much time and thought to the publication of his periodical, "Occidental Magazine" and it is a source of anxiety to him that he may be forced, by the unfortunate circumstance of his illness, to postpone the appearance of the magazine, and also that he is unable to meet his parishioners as per appointments. It is hoped that his condition will speedily improve and that he may soon recover his health and strength.—Antelope Herald.
