Neil Smith was another of those up-river homesteaders who came to Bend to celebrate.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bates came down from their fine up-river homestead to celebrate in Bend.

Rev. Tavener's theme for next Sunday morning, July 7, will be, "The Christian in the witness stand".

Regular consecration meeting of the Christian Endeavor society next Sunday evening. Miss Violet Reed, leader.

Grant has a fine line of drinks for these hot days, including root beer, orange cider, peach marine, ice cream sodas, and lemonade.

Andy Hunter reached Bend Monday evening after an overland drive from Burns. He will be in town for a few days, visiting his brother, Joe Hunter.

Letters in the Bend postoffice are advertised for the following persons: August Hinden, Miss Golda Howard, Mr. Emmitt Hoonet, Mr. L. J. Moffit, C. W. Walters.

One pleasing feature of the celebration was the good order of the crowd. There was practically no drunkenness and not an arrest made. Everyone was good natured.

In the goddess of liberty contest, 140 votes were cast as follows: Anna Johnson 100, Alice Wilson 20, Grace Kever 6, Iva West 5, Hazel Caldwell 4, Inga Sather 4, Maggie Anne 1.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sellers were down from their homestead to celebrate in Bend. They were accompanied by Mrs. Seller's mother and brother, Mrs. Williams and Sigmond Williams.

Last week W. P. Benjamin started to irrigate his potato patch on his ranch north of Redmond and succeeded in giving them a thorough wetting. At least, that is what his neighbors report.

Mrs. Wm. Arnold, Miss Pearl Riggs and Mrs. Willhoit returned Monday from a visit in the valley. While away Mrs. Arnold purchased several head of cattle, Mr. Arnold meeting her and driving them to the home ranch near Bend.

At the meeting of the commercial club Tuesday evening the principal business transacted was authorizing the trustees of the club to confer with the city council in regard to the city taking over the plant of the Bend Water, Light & Power Co.

Presiding Elder Skipworth of The Dalles conducted services in Bend last Sunday morning and evening and preached two very interesting and helpful sermons. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the morning.

George Bates presented The Bulletin man with a fine large Dolly Varden last Wednesday which he caught in Fall river. It made a toothsome bit of eating and was appreciated by several of the boarders at the Bend Hotel who were fortunate enough to get a share of it.

A new crosswalk was built this week connecting the B. M. and White & Hill corners. Some person or persons who were evidently not satisfied with the work, tore the walk completely out during the night following its building and it was necessary to do all the work over.

H. P. J. McDonald resigned his position with the B. M. Co. last Monday and he and Mrs. McDonald will start the first of next week on an extended trip through the East. They will visit Mr. McDonald's father at Rochester, N. Y., and also a brother in Canada. They will be gone about two months.

The annual meeting of D. I. & P. Co. will be held in Portland on July 10 when policies of much importance to this section will be passed upon by the stockholders. Mr. Stanley, while here, let it be understood that the action then taken would be favorable to a rapid development not only of Bend but of this whole section.

Mr. and Mrs. George Millican were in Bend yesterday to attend the celebration. It was Mrs. Millican's first visit to Bend and she was very much captivated with our little city and our beautiful river and mountain scenery. Mrs. Millican said she would like very much to take up her residence here and may spend some weeks in Bend during the summer.

Mrs. Thos. Ryan and Mrs. Chas. D. Rowe left Monday morning for extended visits in Minnesota. They drove out by private conveyance taking with them the two young daughters and infant of Charles Boyd. The children will be taken to Missoula, Mont., where they will be left with Mr. Boyd's parents. Mr. Boyd drove with them as far as Shaniko.

A new school district has been organized north of Redmond in the Long Butte neighborhood. They have raised $300 for a school house and other expenses and this sum will be largely increased. School will begin in the new district next fall. Directors chosen are J. A. Vosberg, one year; Frank Glass, two years; Dan Greenalgh three years. P. W. Benjamin, clerk.

Bend owes a vote of thanks to the neighboring towns for the liberal manner in which their people turned out and helped in our celebration. Especially is this true of Prineville, which furnished a good per cent of those present. One way to show our appreciation is for Bend people to attend in large numbers both the Redmond fair and the county fair at Prineville next fall.

C. A. Coons is getting a fine yield from his strawberries. They have already picked 27 gallons from a small patch and are only in the midst of the strawberry harvest. The berries are large and sweet and have a fine color. As The Bulletin has said before, the home grown strawberry discounts the famous Hood River that is being shipped in here. The home berry is much sweeter and has a better flavor. The demand for these strawberries far exceeds the supply and the townspeople are quarreling among themselves over the question as to whom shall get the berries.

Redmond Notes.

REDMOND, June 30.—Hearing that the D. I. & P. Co. had bought Bend and were going to move up there and that Redmond would soon be only a hole in the ground, we went to town last night to look the matter up. We were greatly surprised to find the office on wheels ready to pull out Monday morning, and jack screws under the well ready to begin taking it out. Eight lighters' wagons under each one of the buildings will make something of a procession as they trot merrily up to Bend and 23 wagons to haul the well with 20 more for the water will tend to make the Old Man Bender think something is coming his way. By the way they are pumping water from the well now at the rate of 10,000 gallons a day—good, pure, cold, soft water. We suppose the company will take the water, too, for what use would a well be without water?

The Colonel is terribly cut up about the whole matter. He says that on July 5 the price of town lots will be advanced a mere trifle—only 50 per cent or a little more whereas he was confidently expecting a raise of at least 100 per cent.

Citizens of Redmond and vicinity however feel that they have something good to look forward to in attending the fair at Bend this year. Like all good housewives we all enjoy somebody else cooking better than our own.

When the company has finally deserted us we confidently expect that even the junipers will be found with their roots in the air and the sage bushes may grow gold dollars, but what good would they be with no Redmond to spend them in—when we would have to go to Bend, for mail, to Prineville for beer and to Portland for freight—for naturally when that comes to pass the Columbia Southern will quit running.

Farmers too are feeling very much depressed over the situation. Most of them seem to be wondering what the use would be of stately cities, lowing herds, rumbling machinery and fertile fields of grain with no D. I. & P. Co. to furnish them with pap.

Seventeen different men are waiting to jump Jim McGuffie's homestead tomorrow morning as soon as he starts to the office but they better go a little slow. What does any one of them want with it with the company gone to Bend?

We heard this afternoon that Ethret Brothers shut up their store last night and J. H. Jackson the lumber yard, and we are nearly out of flour and were going to get a pound of nails and make a pig pen. Now we have to send to Montgomery Ward & Co. for the flour and get the pig pen ready made.

The Ladies' Aid strawberry social was another quite well attended enjoyable affair. They took in about $35. The berries were elegant.

Mr. Gibson has been doing some fencing on his farm north of Powell Buttes.

A birthday fishing party went by here to the river yesterday. In the party were E. M. Eby and Ada Tuck, both of whom were celebrating their birthdays, Mrs. Eby, Mrs. Finis Woble and Mrs. McGuffie.

We are going to have to add a "We Forgot to Mention" department to these letters. For this week we could tell about the rain of the 22d. But we will pass that up and say that we had another heavy rain on Thursday. As they say further east it was worth thousands or millions of dollars whichever you choose. Its principal value to this immediate vicinity of course was in saving the labor of irrigating, and the evenness of distribution of water. It is not so very far though to where rain is rain every time and is good principally for the moisture it brings to growing crops.

E. C. PARK.

Tumalo Items.

TUMALO, July 3.—The eagle will scream tomorrow.

The weather has been very threatening for several days.

Mr. McCormack and Mr. Marion, Jr., were at the mill yesterday after lumber.

Postmaster Gist of Gist was in Tumalo yesterday on business.

G. W. Wimer made a business trip to Laidlaw Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil and children of Laidlaw were in Tumalo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker and Miss Melba of Laidlaw visited Mrs. Baker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wimer, Sunday.

There is not much news in these parts this week owing to the fact that every one is aggravating (irrigating) as someone has named it. Crops are looking well and a good yield is expected notwithstanding the heavy freeze some time since.

Card of Thanks.

In behalf of myself and family, I desire to sincerely thank the many friends of Bend who so kindly assisted during the illness and death of Mrs. Chapman. Their kindness and forethought are appreciated.

C. A. CHAPMAN.
