traffic it could handle, and they left with the intention of hurrying the completion of the Oregon Trunk Line as rapidly as was possible.

Besides Messrs. Nelson and Gregory the party was composed of L. G. Gray, president and general manager of the Yukon & Pacific railway; H. P. DeVrees, a prominent insurance man; George Danz, of Thompson & Danz, railway supply business; C. A. Cushing, real estate; D. A. Robinson, retired from active business but formerly largest grain elevator contractor in the United States, having built practically all the elevators on the line of the Great Northern. He has large timber interests in Washington.

were seen and noticed by several, as it was a dark night and the drivers had a severe task to find roads.

Allen Trobee was unusually busy Friday and Saturday hunting board trees and fishing. He was accompanied by W. H. Howard.

George Bogue is having quite a run at the Rosland Stables and is doing quite a business hiring out turnouts and carriages to the dancers.

R. Clauson has moved on the ranch, close to Rosland, recently vacated by Edmonds.

The Baker girls from Prineville are stopping with us, with a view to settling in the country.

Tumalo Items.

TUMALO, July 23.—Some hay is being cut in these parts.

F. O. Minor and Mr. Staats of Bend passed through here today.

J. B. Wimer and Arnold Greisel were at Sisters Sunday seeing the sights.

Lawrence Smith returned home Saturday from a two weeks' visit at Vandervert's.

Mrs. Eva Steele and daughter, Miss Anna, stopped in Tumalo yesterday, going to their homesteads near Sisters.

Hightower & Smith had the misfortune to break their steam feed engine one day last week and had to send to Portland for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwillie of Bend passed through today going to Bend.

T. A. Jensen is engaged at present building a house on his homestead. F. V. Swisher is helping him.

Why didn't I write last week? Well, I will tell you—I JUST FORGOT.

A Letter from William Stephens.

ENGLAND, July 9, 1907.—Editor Bulletin: A few lines to you from old England and will say I am having a fine visit with my relatives but shall be glad to get home to Bend again, for England in all its glory is not like independent little Bend to live in. It is very nasty weather in England, cold, rainy and blowing hard all the time up to the present.

I and my wife are going to London on Monday next to visit my brother and see London, and August 28 we sail on the largest vessel afloat, the Adriatic, for Oregon, and we will not stop until we get there.

You know that I am reading The Bend Bulletin every week and am keeping posted, for last night I had the pleasure of reading of the sale of the Bend townsite which makes me feel happy for all of us.

I hope you all enjoyed the Fourth and had a good time. I should very much have liked to be at the trout feast just to show what a splendid mechanic I am at eating, etc., for if I stay here much longer I shall challenge O'Kane to a measure around with the tape line.

Should be in Bend about the last of September, so with kind regards to all at home will close. I remain, Yours most respectfully,
WILLIAM STEPHENS,
Citizen of U. S. A.
