Many campers are passing through Bend this year for up-river points, the number exceeding by far that of any previous year. No better place can be found for a few weeks recreation than along the Deschutes river and at the many beautiful lakes at its headwaters. The people realize this and come for many miles to this favored section.

Tumalo Items.

TUMALO, Aug. 14.—Every one is too busy cutting hay and grain in these parts to even go fishing.

Charles Spainhour and F. V. Swisher were doing business in Bend Monday. Mr. Spainhour was a caller on the dentist while in Bend. He informed us he had a lot of teeth extracted and in order to have the job done easily he had the dentist administer chloroform, but the chloroform made him feel so funny that he couldn't stop talking for about two hours.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Smith were callers at Tumalo yesterday. Mr. Smith reports the mill at Melvin's running and doing well but his only trouble is to get a full crew of men.

Mr. Roach of Harrisburg was at Tumalo Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Roach owns a tract of land near Tumalo. He has not seen it for seven years and says the country don't look natural. He called on us to show him his land as he wasn't expecting to find so much change in the country.

Leo Arnold of Cloverdale passed through here yesterday on his way up the Deschutes on a hunting trip. Leo says he only intends to get his limit of old bucks and will only kill one elk, but will have no limit to the bears he kills. Leo knows how to handle his gun and will make it hot for big game.

SPEND A PLEASANT DAY.

Picnic Party of Redmond People Visits Cline Falls—Other News Notes.

REDMOND, Aug. 15.—Yesterday a good sized company, many of whom had never seen Cline Falls, took a picnic lunch and spread it at the west end of the bridge under the trees. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Denton, Kendall, Gates, Gillespie, Park, Miss Davidson, Mr. McEwing, besides quite a number of the younger generation. After dinner several of the company walked down to the Cline Falls Power Company's power house where they were shown around by Mr. Moore, who was in charge. They also got a fine close view of the falls, which is worth walking a good way to see. Singing was indulged in later in the afternoon. Before leaving Mr. McEwing took a snapshot of the party.

Another party has gone up above Bend on a camping trip. It includes Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ehret, Mr. Lancy and family, Roy Covert, Mrs. Ehret's sister and perhaps others.

Sallowness Transformed to Dusky Beauty
A dark skin becomes fascinating when delicately soft, underpinned with the radiant glow which indicates a healthy, active skin. Robertine keeps the skin refined in quality, keeps pores free from clogging waste and stimulates the tiny capillaries to contribute the color which characterizes blonde and brunette alike. Robertine is certain protection against tan, sunburn and freckles if applied before exposure to sun or wind. It is like an imperceptible sheen of grace over skin surface, forming a shield stimulating and preserving a delicate, lustrous beauty.
