Have you seen the September Ladies Home Journal? 125 fashion pictures. At the news stand.

C. W. Merrill has just gotten in a shipment of the popular Eldridge sewing machine. Step in and examine them.

Vic O'Connor and wife have moved up from Redmond and have rented the Mutzige house, instead of the Oneil cottage as at first intended.

You should see those handsome imported Japanese and imported glass vases at the Corner Drug Store. They are the handsomest vases ever shown in Bend.

George Bates, wife and daughter left the first of the week on a trip over the mountains to Independence, where they will procure a supply of fruit for the winter.

A new building soon to be erected at Rosland will be one 16x22 feet with 12 foot posts built opposite the hotel by Carmichael & Green and occupied by them with their bar.

Mrs. F. F. Smith expects to move to Bend soon from the mill on the Tumello in order that the two boys and Mrs. Smith's sister, Miss Pearl Hightower, may attend the Bend schools.

Mrs. A. M. Drake and Miss Ruth Reid are spending part of the week at the hospitable Vandervert home at Lava, while Mr. Drake and H. J. Overturf take a hunting trip to favorite grounds farther up river.

John L. Kever left Thursday for Eugene and will return in two weeks with Mrs. Kever and children who are visiting at that place. On his return Mr. Kever will make five-year proof on his homestead.

R. B. Vaughn and family left yesterday morning on an overland drive to Bay City, Or., where they will make their home for the next year at least. Mr. Vaughn says he really expects to be back here at the end of the year.

Notice—I have for sale several irrigated tracts of land under the Deschutes Irrigation & Power Company's system, the same being well located and free from rock. For terms and price address W. E. Guerin, Jr., Bend, Oregon. 24tf

A. H. Grant has received the new school books adopted by the State School Book Commission for use in Oregon schools. The pupils' old books will be exchanged for new ones when they are in good condition. The old books must have both covers, all leaves intact and be in such shape that they can be again used by other pupils.

Neil Smith was down from his homestead Monday with his son, Gladstone, who started that morning for Superior, Wis., where he will attend school for the coming year. Mr. Smith is busy building a new house for Frank Logue on his ranch near Rosland. The house consists of a main part 22x14 feet 1 1/2 stories high, and an ell 20x14 feet. Mr. Bogie has just had a large barn built also about 50x30 feet.

New Chairs Just Arrived.

Step in and look over the new line of men's hats at Merrill's. He has a fine selection and can satisfy your wants in that line.

Lew Reed and wife recently moved to Bend from Redmond and have rented the Ed. Halvorsen house on Kentucky street.

H. C. Ellis has bought a new motor cycle and is now speeding over the country on that machine whenever his telephone duties call him. Up to date it has bucked him off but once.

Judge E. B. King and wife of Portland are in Bend, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Guerin, Jr. Judge King is the senior partner of the law firm of King, Guerin & Kollock.

Miss Orpha Pettit, who has been engaged to teach the primary grades in the Bend school during the coming year, reached Bend Tuesday. She is stopping for the present with Mrs. Chas. Brown.

A. B. Estebenet has just had a 6-foot walk built in front of the house owned by him on Hawthorn avenue. Lumber is now on the ground to extend the walk in front of the, Brosterhaus, Scofield and Weider places.

When Andy Hunter was on his way to Bend last week, he fell in with a party of teamsters who were taking 12 more teams to the Deschutes river to join in the grading of the Oregon Trunk Line. These men were of the impression that the road would be pushed rapidly through to completion.

F. C. Rowlee returned to Bend Wednesday.

The Bend news stand has the finest display of papetries ever shown in Bend.

The Corner Drug Store will have in a load of fruit from the Cove Orchard tonight. Apples, pears, plums, peaches and tomatoes.

Dr. Coe is a very busy man these days. Last Wednesday he prescribed for 34 patients at his office and attended six calls, making a pretty full day's business.

Another new line recently added by the Corner Drug Store is its combs and brushes. This line contains some of the very best goods manufactured and are being sold cheaper than Portland prices.

Mrs. A. H. Grant and son Hazen will leave the first of the week for Mrs. Grant's old home at Lost Springs, Kan. Mrs. Grant's mother recently fell and injured herself quite seriously, and being quite an old lady, the accident has resulted in a serious illness, so serious that Mrs. Grant has decided to go to her bedside.

A. W. Pope of Bend was brought to town the first of the week in a serious condition. He is suffering from Bright's disease and dropsy. As attendance was necessary and Mr. Pope is absolutely without property or funds he was placed upon the county and is now being cared for as a county charge.—Prineville Review.

Howard Spining of Wilbur, Wash., has rented the Oneil cottage on east Ironwood avenue and will soon move to Bend with his family. Mr. Spining owns a tract of ditch land a couple of miles from Bend on the Prineville road and will look after the cultivation of that land in the future. Mr. Spining was editor and proprietor of the Register while at Wilbur.

Robert Noland, who owns ditch land east of Bend, has bought a draying and transfer business in Portland and will move there to take charge of it. Mr. Noland had experience in this business in North Dakota and will undoubtedly prosper in it, but The Bulletin dislikes to see Mr. Noland and family leave these parts. However, he still retains possession of his land here and we hope to see him back some day.

Postmaster Grant wishes to announce that all mail should be dropped in the postoffice on Monday evenings not later than 10 o'clock. Inasmuch as the mail comes down from Rosland Monday evenings, the outgoing mail for Tuesday morning's stage is made up Monday night and the mail closes at 10 o'clock. Therefore if you want your mail to go out Tuesday morning, you should have it in the postoffice not later than 10 o'clock Monday night.

Dr. A. A. Burriss and wife and son Victor of Madras have been spending the week in Bend. Dr. Burriss owns 40 acres of ditch land adjoining the Dr. Coons place east of Bend and he says that he and his family will move onto the land in a few months and make their home there. Dr. Burriss has always had great faith in Bend and likes it here very much. This was Mrs. Burriss' first visit here and she is also favorably impressed with what will be her future home.

Wednesday was Charley Merrill's eighth birthday and he celebrated the occasion in a royal manner by inviting a number of his little boy and girl friends in to spend the afternoon with him. They romped and played and had great times in the empty store room on the corner, and during the afternoon were served to all the ice cream and cake they could eat. There is no doubt, whatever, but that the little folks will be willing to help Charley celebrate many more such birthday's in the same manner.

C. L. Lowther, who has a ranch near Trail Crossing, was in Bend Tuesday. Mr. Lowther says that grain on the dry land in his neighborhood is threshing out a very good yield this year. Wheat runs from 16 to 40 bushels to the acre, and oats and barley 30 to 50 bushels. Mr. Lowther has great faith in the Campbell method of dry farming and he and several of his neighbors are giving it a trial. He says that wherever the Campbell system has been given a fair test remarkable results have been obtained in his neighborhood.

Dr. Burriss of Madras, who spent a part of the week in Bend, says that an O. R. & M. expert recently examined the coal mines at Hay Creek. The doctor also states that these mines contain a valuable deposit of coal, consisting of a vein of soft coal several feet thick, which is topped by a thick layer of hard coal. The doctor is under the impression that the road train that will run from Madras to Shaniko will be used not only to haul wheat and regular freight but will also be employed to market this coal. Dr. Burriss has a homestead only five miles from the mines.
