BEND, - OREGON

Ran Foot Race With Angry Bear.

M. Kelley, Hugh Lakin and Clint Vandevent returned to Bend Thursday afternoon from cruising out some timber south of Rosland and Messrs. Kelley and Lakin are telling a laughable story on Clint. When running lines the other day in the timber about eight miles east of the stage station he noticed two cub bears scout up a tree and stopped to watch them. As he stood in absorbed contemplation of the two cubs, what was his surprise to see the old bear appear around a nearby ledge of rock and charge full tilt in Clint's direction. There was no time for parley. Clint had no gun or weapon of any description. So he immediately challenged the angry old bear to a foot race and held the lead for about 60 yards with angry old Mother Bruin a close second. She finally got tired of the unequal contest, saw that there was no chance for her to catch up with the fleeing Clint, so returned to her cubs. Clint now says he can outrun a bear any day when they get in as close proximity to him as did this one. Kelley was far enough away to enjoy the race and not be mixed up in it, while Lakin was absent at the time.
