

LOCAL BITS.

December magazines are now on sale at the news stand.

E. G. Rourke, Rosland's hustling merchant, was a business caller in Bend Sunday.

A pencil and ruler given free with every 10c tablet at the Corner Drug Store.

J. I. West has in a shipment of new furniture. Read his ad. in another column.

W. H. Hollishead and family moved last Tuesday to their homestead near Rosland.

The Oregon Journal, daily and Sunday 65 cents a month delivered. See A. H. Grant, Agent. 34-40

J. N. Hasselberg, C. Peterson, and F. N. Wallace of Laidlaw were Bend visitors Wednesday.

Miss Inga Sather returned to Bend last Friday from a visit of several weeks in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Richie are spending the week in Bend from their ranch on Paulina creek.

Cort Allen was down from his up-river ranch to spend Thanksgiving with his family in town.

Wanted—Single rig and harness. Must be cheap. Give description and price.—C. W. RICHIE, Bend.

Forty-nine boxes of Boegli's choice apples received Thursday at the news stand. Assorted varieties.

C. A. Chapman is having a monument of clouded marble put up over the grave of Mrs. Chapman.

Strayed—One red heifer, mottled face, ear marks, under bit, top crop; bell on. Suitable reward for returning to Dan R. Smith. 36-39

J. H. Edwards and family have moved to Bend from their ranch in the Sisters country and are occupying a cottage on Garden Row.

Miss Lisa Wood left yesterday for New York, where she is to join Mr. and Mrs. Drake of Bend, Ore., and then sail for Europe.—Oregonian.

E. E. Scott and W. J. Ford of Bellingham, Wash., have each recently bought a 40-acre tract of ditch land about a mile west of Redmond.

The Thanksgiving dance given last evening by the band was well attended and was a very successful affair. The receipts at the door amounted to $46.

Word has reached Bend that Mrs. Thos. Triplett died last Saturday at her home near Creswell, Oregon. She had been a sufferer for a long time from consumption.

You should see these handsome imported Japanese and imported glass urns and vases at the Corner Drug store. They are the handsomest ever shown in Bend.

Dr. I. L. Scofield took one of the Scofield Drug Company's phonographs up to the dance last Saturday evening and furnished a number of selections for the dancers.

A large number of land buyers have been coming into these parts during the last two weeks. Most of them are stopping at Redmond and purchasing in that vicinity.

J. D. Davidson and wife will move into the Crocker cottage as soon as it is vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Crocker, which will probably be about the 15th of next month.

J. W. and Frank Pevely, from Freeman, Wash., are recent purchasers of ditch land. They have bought a 40-acre tract about one-quarter mile east of Redmond and plan to start a chicken ranch.

Look out for the monster stick of candy which will be on display next week in the window of the news stand. Every 25 cent purchaser of candy will be entitled to a guess as to its weight. The one coming nearest will be given a handsome silver prize on Christmas day.

Step in and examine the new line of cutlery just gotten in by the Corner Drug Store.

Wm. Ault, from Mace, Ida., was in Bend during the week looking at ditch land. He did not buy while here because of being unable to make satisfactory financial arrangements due to the present stringency. He will return in a short time, however, and make a purchase.

Miss Ruth Reid left Wednesday for Winnipeg, called there by the serious illness of a sister. She will return to Bend in time for the beginning of the next term of school. During her absence her place in the Bend schools will be filled by Miss Vandeventer and Miss Vandeventer's room will be taught by Mrs. F. F. Smith.

C. D. Brown and family have been obliged to give up the cottage where they have been living due to the fact that the building is desired by John Sisemore and bride, Mr. Sisemore owning the cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will occupy rooms over the Merrill store until spring at which time Mr. Brown contemplates building on his lots on Juniper avenue.

The deep well drilling machine which has been at work on a well on the Baldwin ranch, has moved to the ranch of Moses Niswonger at the stage station and is drilling a well for him. The contract calls for a depth of 500 feet if necessary to get water. It is understood that a larger machine has been ordered and that another well will be drilled on the Baldwin ranch next spring.

Last spring E. A. Garrett seeded some alfalfa with grain on his homestead southeast of Bend. When he cut the grain the alfalfa stood about eight inches high, since which time it has made a second growth of about six inches. It is said that a finer stand could not be asked for. There is nothing remarkable in this except that the alfalfa made this showing without a drop of irrigation water.

Wednesday afternoon the gas light that is to be given a trial in Bend was set up on the White & Hill corner. The light was turned on about 5 o'clock and it certainly is a fine one. It lights up the street in all directions for a distance of nearly a block, and gives a brilliant white light. If it proves satisfactory after being given a fair test, a number of them will be bought for the business streets and Bend people will no longer walk in darkness.

Wm. Arnold, who had a horse fall on him and break a leg a few weeks ago, is now confined to his bed with quite a severe attack of pneumonia.

The officials of The Dalles land office have rendered a decision in favor of R. A. Puett in the contest brought against his homestead by Mrs. W. P. Myers of Laidlaw. During the hearing of the contest Attorney Benson appeared for Mr. Puett.

Mr. File and wife are two new comers to Bend. They have taken up residence in a cottage just north of the house occupied by Howard Spining and family. They expect to remain during the winter and if they like this country will remain permanently. Mr. File left the Philippines in June where he has been holding a government position. He talks very interestingly of conditions there and says the American government is doing a grand good work in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, of Hay Creek, Oregon, are guests at the Portland Hotel. They, however, are planning to remain but a short time as they will spend the remainder of the winter in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharp, Jr., spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Edwards at their charming ranch residence. Mrs. Sharp writes enthusiastically of life on their own ranch, which she is enjoying to the utmost and is going in extensively for horseback riding.—Oregonian.

Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock the Rev. Short united in marriage Mr. John Sisemore and Mrs. Susan E. Brewer. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Estebenet, only the members of the household being present. Mr. and Mrs. Sisemore will begin housekeeping at once in the cottage owned by Mr. Sisemore and which has been occupied by C. D. Brown and family. Mr. Sisemore is probably one of the best known men in this part of the state, having come here years ago as a pioneer and engaging in the stock business when this was a great range country. The Bulletin extends congratulations.

Instructions were received Tuesday evening from Portland by Mark Davenport to immediately shut down operations and discontinue all work on the Davenport-Stanley ranch. Consequently the men were all laid off. Looking after the stock and other necessary work will be done by Mark Davenport and his two nephews. Work had just been commenced on a large stock shed which was intended to house a large number of blooded cattle that the Davenport-Stanley people bought near Hood River last spring. These cattle would have been brought here soon after the completion of the big shed. How long operations will be suspended on this big ranch is not known.

FACTS DISTORTED.

Wenandy Stage Line is Still Doing Business and Don't You Forget It.

The following is clipped from last week's Prineville Journal:

"The Bend-Madras-Shaniko stage line is a thing of the past. The remainder of the stock, about 25 in number, were sold at public auction at the Pilot Butte barn in Bend yesterday. The report is current that the line was run at a loss during the entire summer."

The impression conveyed by the above is absolutely false and the statements made are far from the truth. The Bend-Madras-Shaniko stage line is not a thing of the past, and the Journal knows it is not. The trouble with the Prineville papers is that they are endeavoring to make the traveling public believe that the Bend-Madras-Shaniko stage has been discontinued and thereby throw all the traffic over the antiquated Prineville line. Almost every week one or the other of the Prineville papers has an article knocking the Wenandy line, and it is getting rather tiresome. It is so well known that the Wenandy service is so superior to that furnished by the Prineville people, that practically all travel comes over the Bend-Shaniko route, and it has been hard picking for the other fellows. In one week Wenandy recently carried 30 passengers out of Shaniko to five carried over the Prineville line. That looks as though the B.-M.-S. line was a thing of the past, doesn't it? It fully explains the venom of the Prineville papers.

The Wenandy line is giving as good service as ever and is here to stay—and don't you forget it.

Discount Offered Purchasers.

For a short time the D. I. & P. Co. are offering a discount of 25 per cent for cash to all purchasers of ditch land. This is offered at the discretion of the company and is liable to be discontinued at any time. For those who buy now, however, and who are able to pay cash, it means quite a saving.

Title Cleared Up.

Dr. Coe announces that the owners of the Lytle townsite have finally succeeded in getting title to it fully cleared up and that the company is now ready to give a clear deed for any tracts of land purchased from the company. There has been some delay in accomplishing this and as a result several who have desired to buy in Lytle have been unable to do so. The company has for sale either town lots or acre tracts.

Shevlin Company Closes Mill.

"The Shevlin-Carpenter Lumber Company has closed down its sawmill in Minneapolis for good, reducing the number of active mills to five. The logs remaining in the river belonging to the Shevlin-Clarke company were sold to the Central Lumber Company of Hudson, Wis. The Shevlin interests have also decided to cease operating the mill of the Crookston Lumber Company, at Crookston, after this season. The mill at Bemidji will continue, and a new mill is likely to be installed soon north of Bemidji."—Timberman.

The Shevlin company is represented in Bend by W. B. Sellers and owns large tracts of timber in this vicinity. Bemidji, the town mentioned above, is where B. W. Lakin is now located.
