

A Conservative Speech.

There were some doubts in the community as to Homer Floyd's fitness for a position on the school board...

He listened to several recitations with a grave and interested air, and at the end of the last one he rose to address the school...

"Some things are in my province as member of the school board, and some are not," he said, with a genial smile.

"It's within my province to say that I never heard scholars answer up more promptly than you children of District Number Three.

"As to whether your answers were or were not correct, it is not my place to say. Your teacher knows, and in her hands I leave the matter."
