

LOCAL BITS.

Court will open at Prineville next week.

W. D. Barnes of Laidlaw was a pleasant caller in Bend last Saturday.

The C. O. D. mill will begin sawing Saturday and will run for several weeks.

The news stand will have its first shipment of strawberries this season Saturday or Sunday.

F. Milo Lobbell is now at Dayton, Iowa, his old home, and writes to have his Bulletin sent to that place.

Ladies who are in need of a new hat should examine the very pretty and attractive ones at The Merrill Co.'s store.

J. H. Wenandy left Thursday morning for Shaniko to meet Mrs. Wenandy who is on her way in from Montana.

C. A. Chapman and bride returned to Bend Saturday and began housekeeping at once in the pleasant rooms over the Chapman store.

The Merrill Co. has a fine line of beautiful spring and summer hats for the ladies. Have you made your selection? If not, do so before the best ones are taken.

Christian Endeavor services on Sunday, May 3. Subject, "Silver Lining of Dark Clouds." Leader, Miss Vera Mackey. Preaching both morning and evening by the pastor of the M. E. church.

Registration books for the June election are now open at the news stand, and all those who did not register for the primaries will have an opportunity to register for the June election. The books will close on May 15.

Mrs. Steele and daughter Anna and Frank Butterworth have returned to Bend from their homesteads in the Sisters country. After attending to business matters in Bend, which will take about a month, they plan to move elsewhere.

Miss Anna Johnson left the first of the week for her homestead near the Vandeventer ranch at Lava. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. A. Aldridge and Miss Pauline Wiest. H. H. Davies took the ladies as far as the Vandeventer ranch with his automobile.

George Jones was down from the homestead Wednesday and announced that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Goodwillie in Chicago last Sunday. Uncle George says that Grandmother Jones feels 10 years younger and is very proud of the little granddaughter.

The Masons of Bend are preparing to institute a local lodge in this place. The rooms over the Mutzig building have been rented and are being converted into a hall. The necessary paraphernalia and supplies are being ordered, and the Masons expect to open the local lodge in about six or eight weeks.

Commissioner Bayley recently visited the Jones-King neighborhood west of Lava Butte to investigate the route of a road which was petitioned for last fall, but which was refused by the county court. It is believed that Commissioner Bayley's report will be favorable and that the road will be granted.

Walter Daniel will leave soon to spend a couple of months at The Dalles.

If you are hungry for good reading you can always find it at the news stand.

Frank May has accepted a position with the surveying crew working on the Columbia Southern segregation.

It is reported that a man by the name of Robinson, living in the vicinity of Madras, has announced himself as an independent candidate for county judge.

Rev. Father Hickey has announced that he will make his regular Easter visit to Crook county within a week or two. Further announcements will be made later.

The Bend public schools are out on a picnic excursion today with dinner baskets, fish poles and lines and similar paraphernalia. The entire school, excepting the primary grades, are over on the Tumello, but the little folks are picnicking nearer town.

The advocates of local option will conduct a vigorous campaign from now until the general election. E. F. Zimmerman will make a tour of the county lecturing against the saloon. His lecture is an illustrated one and he carries a stereopticon with him. Mr. Zimmerman will lecture in Bend on the evening of May 29.

A. M. Lara has something new in the form of a small egg box that is proving very popular with his customers. The box is made of strong pasteboard and is divided into sections like an ordinary egg case, and holds one dozen eggs. The box is popular because it is easy to carry, reduces the chance of breakage to a minimum, and makes an error in count impossible.

S. D. Percival has bought three lots in the First Addition to Madras and expects to build a cottage on them some time this summer. He is clearing the ground now and getting ready to build, as he expects to have his house under way by the first of August. Mrs. Percival is still at the ranch, but they expect to make final proof on their homestead by June.—Pioneer.

Rev. J. Anthony Mitchell writes to The Bulletin from Moro, where the district presbytery was held, that the invitations from the Bend Commercial Club and the D. I. & P. Co. requesting the presbytery to hold its next meeting at Bend, were read before that body. Many wanted to come to Bend, but the decision was deferred until later when the presbytery has another meeting in Portland.

The Bulletin has received from A. M. Drake from Italy a box of seed of the fennel—a plant that is akin to celery and should be grown about as celery. This seed will be distributed among Bend gardeners and a careful test given it to see whether it will do well here. Mr. Drake writes that they left Capri on April 3 and will work north to Rome and Florence, but their address will still be Naples.

That was a close game of ball between the married men and Bend's regular team last Sunday. The score resulted 4 to 0 not in the married men's favor. The benefactors have got their ire up, however, and swear they can wallop it to the boys. To give them an opportunity to prove their assertion another game will be played next Sunday and the defeated team will "set up" an oyster supper to the winners.

A. A. Bonney, state organizer, was in Bend last Saturday and organized a local grange of Patrons of Husbandry. E. W. Richardson was chosen Worthy Master and E. A. Griffin Overseer. The other officers of the organization will be elected later. The local grange starts out under auspicious circumstances and a large membership will undoubtedly be secured. All those who can should join the Bend grange, for it is a worthy organization.

Water Users Notice.
Beginning May 1 all persons wanting to use water through hose for sprinkling purposes, will notify our collector and pay for same at the rates following:

- Lawn Sprinkling, 1 Lot, per month $2.00
- Sidewalk & Street Sprinkling, in business section, frontage of 30 feet, per month $1.00

In order to supply enough water for the demand and keep a safe amount in reserve for fire protection the water company has found it necessary to make a rule that all sprinkling through hose must stop at 5:30 p. m. In case this rule is not followed the company will have the right to turn off the water at the street shut-off on any property found with hose going after 5:30 p. m. and the property owner will have to pay the costs of having the water turned on again.

MORE ABOUT SICILY.

some distance below, where the stream divided between some rocks. When one of our shawl clad briggands of the morning came forward to meet us with two mules and a look of conqueror in his face, while the confederates grinned from the other bank, our blood was up, and we would have waded knee deep before submitting to the hold up. Despite his protests we hurried down stream around the bend, and by some rather skittish jumping, effected our crossing, to the utter routing and discomfiture of the Sicilian forces. Miss Wood, who is getting quite adept at Italian, harangued the group, telling them they were like little children to expect to do Uncle Sam's subjects in that way; where upon they folded their tents like the Arabs and silently sneaked away. From the faces of our driver and the strapping guide who appeared on the box with him, there was no doubt of them having been in the deal. Notwithstanding our reaching the station they were greatly aggrieved at the smallness of our pour-boires and demanded five francs extra because they had brought a two horse vehicle instead of one as ordered. When we stoutly refused, they followed us around threatening and gesticulating until the train came, which we promptly boarded for safety. During the trip back to Palermo and in the carriage ride to our hotel we burst out laughing at our adventures, priding ourselves on being equal to Sicilian schemes. But pride goeth before a fall, and candor forces the confession that our Sicilian cab driver stung me with bad money in making change, at the very door of the hotel.
