Gentling the Bull.
Good training for the bull is always a matter of importance. A New England scene that comes to mind is of a powerful animal drawing a sled load of wood over the snow. On many French farms the breeding bulls are given regular work. They may be used either singly, in pairs or with an ox. Regular work insures regular exercise and a good disposition. It is also said that bulls managed in this way to get a much larger percentage of calves than when confined in a stable or paddock.

HANDLING A THOROUGHBRED.
This Guernsey bull was raised by Mr. M. B. Secord, manager of The Oaks, Long Island, New York, and on several occasions has been ridden to the postoffice, a distance of two miles, always causing considerable comment regarding his quiet manners.—Country Gentleman.]

Instances such as illustrated of familiar handling of the bull show what the exceptional trainer may accomplish. With most people the safest place for even the gentle bull is probably at the end of a good stout bull staff.

Quarantines.
Quarantine of cattle on account of the cattle tick has been lifted from 20,000 square miles in six states, and twenty counties previously quarantined have been admitted to provisional quarantine. Quarantine for sheep scabies has been lifted from Wyoming and Idaho. Another year ought to see this disease eradicated from Utah, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona.

Dairy Thermometer.
A correct dairy thermometer is indispensable in buttermaking. Temperature plays an important part all the way through. It is necessary to know the temperature of the dairy room, the water, the milk, the cream, when ripening, and, above all, the temperature of the cream at time of churning.

CONTEST NOTICE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
U. S. Land Office, The Dalles, Oregon,
April 24, 1926.
A sufficient contested affidavit having been filed in this office by Elmer Niswonger, contestant, against homestead entry No. 12419, made December 1, 1905, for 1/2 SW 1/4, Section 25, Tp 17 S, R 11 E, W 34, by Emily Johnson, deceased, contestee, in which it is alleged that said entrywoman died on or about April 17, 1907, that prior to her death she had wholly abandoned said tract, that she never cultivated or improved, said tract, or caused the same to be done; that there are no known heirs of said entrywoman; that if there are any heirs of said entrywoman they are unknown to affiant; that since her death no heirs or personal representatives have ever been heard from nor has anyone come to claim her property; that said alleged absence was not due to employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence tending said allegations to be true, at a hearing to be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on June 15, 1926, before H. C. Ellis, U. S. Commissioner, at his office in Bend, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on June 22, 1926, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed April 3, 1926, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
4972-195 C. W. MOORE, Register.
