Libby's
Veal Loaf

is made of the best selected meat, scientifically prepared and evenly baked by damp heat in Libby's Great White Kitchen. The natural flavor is all retained. When removed from the tin it's ready to serve.

It can be quickly prepared in a variety of styles and nothing makes a better summer meal.

In the home, at the camp, and for the picnic Libby's Veal Loaf is a satisfying dish, full of food value that brings contentment.

Seized Her Opportunity.
He was not a very rapid wooer, and she was getting a bit anxious. Again he called, and they sat together in the parlor, "Just those two." A loud rap came at the front door. "Oh, bother!" she said. "Who can be calling?" "Say you're out," said the deceiver. "Oh, no; that would be untrue," murmured the ingenuous one. "Then say you're engaged," he urged. "Oh, may I, Charlie?" she cried, as she threw herself in his arms. And the man kept on knocking at the front door.—Illustrated Bits.

Hard to Please.
Eminent Statesman—What are the infernal newspapers saying about me now, (Chicago?)

Private Secretary—They haven't mentioned your name for a month, Senator.

Eminent Statesman—Blank dash the newspapers!

Within Her Rights.
"Madam, what is your age?" asked the lawyer.

"I decline to answer," responded the witness.

"On what ground?"
"On the ground that it would convict me of lying. I've always answered that question when not under oath."—Washington Herald.

Custody.
Mr. Stubb—Yes, Maria, twenty years is supposed to elapse between the third and fourth acts.

Mrs. Stubb—Do tell! Then we must certainly stay.

Mr. Stubb—Ah, you are interested in the play?

Mrs. Stubb—Yes, I want to see the change in the style of hat the heroine wears.

old pastures owe their value to the action of these unseen workers. When the farmer boy hunts the earth-worm to bait his fishhook he may not be aware that he is using the descendants of the first tillers of the soil; but such is the fact, and they continue at their lowly toil whether man wills or not.

Connecting of Drain Tiles.
It is difficult to cut large tile with a sledge to fitting small tile to connect laterals with main drains. There is a great deal of danger of the tile breaking, and one is likely to lose two or three large tile in attempting to form a junction, and, at the best, the junction is likely to be a poorly formed one, unless considerable care is taken in covering the openings and cementing the joint. I have, therefore, found it advisable to recommend the use of a connecting box or basin, built in the main drain at points where laterals connect. These basins may be made of plank or brick or cement, according to convenience or fancy. Of whatever material, the box should be from twelve to eighteen inches square, according to the size of the main tile. The best time to build the box is when the main is laid. Two sides of the box, namely opposite sides, will be used for the main line, the other two sides when the tile is built should be fitted with the first tile of the laterals, which may be immediately or at some subsequent time completed. This basin or box should extend six to twelve inches below the line of the drain, and besides serving for connecting the basin will serve for a silt basin, that is, will collect any sediment which may happen to get into the various lines of the discharging line. Also, the box may be continued to the ground surface and be provided there with a tight cover, or if it is not desired to have a box exposed thus and in the way, it may be covered with plank about fifteen inches below the ground surface and then covered over with soil—the position of the box being carefully marked on the drain map or its distance measured from two points near at hand. Such a basin is an excellent device to use where two or three lines of drain unite.

A Farm Dairy.
The accompanying plan for a farm dairy will give a general idea of the requirements for such a building. Accommodation is made for handling the milk of thirty cows and making butter. A cement floor is in every way superior to a wooden floor for a creamery. When properly put in, a cement floor will last indefinitely and can be kept clean and sanitary, whereas a wooden floor is short lived, quickly rots out and is always a source of contamination.

Calves with Scours.
A dairyman gives this remedy for white scours: Carbolic acid diluted 1 to 5; "kept a vial in my pocket and just as soon as the calf was dropped I poured some on the navel next to body and some on the nose, and every calf that I got before dry I raised, but when dropped in the night and the cow licked dry before I got them, they died."
Angora goats have been found exceedingly profitable on many farms.

Restoring Meadows.
Meadows can often be revived and made profitable by the application of commercial fertilizer. This can be made up of 150 pounds of nitrate of soda, 150 pounds of acid phosphate and 70 pounds of muriate of potash. These materials should be well mixed and sown broadcast about this time, care being taken to distribute it evenly over the field.

Hatches 15 Chicks from 13 Eggs.
"Phoebe," a large hen owned by Mrs. T. Z. Bush, of Birdsboro, Pa., for a long time has had a reputation of laying an egg every day and sometimes two per day. Now she has hatched out of thirteen eggs fifteen healthy chickens. Mrs. Bush can not account for the extra number except that they must have been two pairs of twins.

A Few Farm Tips.
Keep the water sprout growths rubbed off the fruit trees.

Oats make one of the best horse feeds grown on the farm.

Cow peas are to the South what clover and alfalfa are to the North. Bordeaux mixture is the best all-around spraying material in extensive use.

Botted Down.
"Tired of hearing my 'sugary words,' are you, Palastilla Corkins?" howled the indignant Orlando. "Perhaps you will be kind enough to tell me, Miss Corkins, what a sugary word is? What is it made of?"

"It is made, Mr. Spoonamore," answered the fair Palastilla, "of verbum sap." Without another word of any description Orlando Spoonamore grabbed his hat and groped his way out into the darkness night. The blow had crushed him.—Chicago Tribune.

Sufficient Recommendation.
Speedham—Yes, I want a chauffeur, but I want a man who is experienced. Applicant—I don't know anything about an automobile, sir, but I used to be a motorman on a trolley car.

Speedham—Why did you quit the job?
Applicant—I didn't quit, sir; I was discharged for recklessness.

Speedham—Good! Consider yourself engaged.

An Aerial Sailor.
"So you were a sailor, my poor man?" said the good housewife. "Well, I wish you would go down in the cellar and bail out the two feet of water that has accumulated down there."

"Ugh!" grunted Dusty Dennis, with a shudder. "I dare not go near water, lady."

"What? A sailor afraid of water?"
"Yes, mum. Yer see, I was a sailor on an airship."

Relative Submergence.
"My poor man, you look as if you might have seen better days."
"You are right, ma'am, I have."
"And now, I presume, you are among what we call the submerged tenth."

"Worse than that, ma'am. I am an infinitesimal fraction of the submerged thousandth of the submerged tenth. My present occupation is stoking on an ocean steamer."

Why She Hesitated.
"I admit that I love you, Clarence," said the young heiress, "but I'll have to speak to mamma."
"Oh?" said Clarence. "You mean I'll have to speak to her."
"No, I will. She'll come home from Europe to-morrow, where she's been for the last three months, and she may have engaged me to some nobleman while she was there."—Independent.

Classifying Him.
The pimply faced youth had thrown a pop bottle at the umpire.

A policeman grabbed him by the collar, jerked him to his feet, and removed his hat.

Then he took a tape line from his pocket and measured the fellow's head.

"Size 6," he said. "That lets you off this time, young man. But don't do it again, or back you go to the ' asylum for the feeble minded."

No more pop bottles were thrown from that particular section of the bleachers during that particular game.—Chicago Tribune.

be carefully fitted in so as to allow nothing to enter the box except what goes there through the tile.

If the main drain is to be built of plank, it certainly would be better to prevent displacement, and secondly, to prevent entrance of solid matter. It has been found that the joints of the box will afford sufficient means of ingress for the water even if the planks are spiked, and if they are not spiked there is danger of too great openings and finally filling the box with sediment.—Exchange.

Unseen Farm Laborers.
Every farmer has hundreds of unseen laborers busy in his behalf. The earth-worms, of which he takes so little thought, are of untold benefit to agriculture. They loosen and ventilate the soil and by their digestive processes aid in the formation of plant food. They are continually digging into the lower soil, which passes through their bodies and is cast upon the surface. It is said that the best

S.S.S. SKIN DISEASES CURES

When the blood is pure and healthy, the skin will be soft, smooth, and free from all blemishes and eruptions; but when some acid humor takes root in the circulation, its presence is quickly manifested by some form of skin disease. The skin receives its necessary nourishment and strength from the blood. When, however, this vital fluid becomes a humor-laden stream, it can no longer preserve the healthy, natural appearance of the skin, but by its acids, impure nature continually irritates and inflames the delicate tissues and fibres and keeps the cuticle in a diseased and disfigured condition. External applications cannot reach the blood, and therefore are beneficial only for their ability to reduce inflammation, and assist in keeping the parts clean. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be purified of the humors that are causing the trouble. S. S. S. drives out the humors from the blood so that the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased, is nourished by a healthy, cooling stream. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impure matter, all acids and humors, and restores the blood to its normal, pure condition, thereby curing every form of skin disease or affection. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free to all who write.
