LOCAL OVERFLOW.

Rev. Mitchell's subject for next Sabbath, July 12, at 11 a. m., will be: "Ninevah in Sack Cloth." At 8 p. m.: "Within, not Without." After the morning service an additional trustee will be elected.

Agent for Champion Binders, Mowers and Rakes, Binder Twine, Barbed Wire, Chicken Netting, Mitchell, Bain and Winona Wagons, Syracuse Plows and Harrows. Come and see me.—E. A. SATHER, Bend, Oregon. 1717

W. P. Johnson of McCloud, Calif., a member of the Deschutes Lumber Company, which has large timber holdings hereabouts, is in these parts looking after business interests and a guest of John Ryan, the local representative of the company.

"Dad" West has been engaged by the city to look after the cow nuisance and see that stray cows or other animals are "run in" to pound. He will in no wise patrol the town, but whenever there is a stray animal on the streets he will attend to it if someone will report the matter.

County Judge Ellis and Commissioner Rice are in the city today. They will take their positions in the county court next Monday. The outgoing court is now winding up its business. The new county judge will serve four and one-half years. Mrs. Ellis accompanied her husband.—Review.

Rev. Father Hickey has an article on the first page of this week's Bulletin that will interest all Catholics in this section. He outlines a plan for a summer school at which the Catholic boys of Crook county will be given an opportunity to receive instructions in the teachings of their church. Father Hickey also announces that he will probably be in this neighborhood the latter part of July.

Mrs. D. W. Aldridge of Wilbur, Wash., arrived in Bend Tuesday afternoon for a brief visit with her son, A. A. Aldridge. She was accompanied by A. H. Head of Prineville, her brother, and after visiting in Bend, they will drive over the mountains to visit relatives in the Valley. Mrs. Aldridge lived in Prineville for many years in the early days and later moved onto a ranch at the Meadows, leaving these parts about eight years ago for Washington.

M. J. Morrison left Bend this morning for northwest Canada where he goes to look over and report on a tract of timber in which 20 Bend men are interested. H. P. J. McDonald left this afternoon to drive over the mountains to Eugene and will accompany Mr. Morrison from Portland to the timber. Mayor McDonald also intends to visit the town of Prince Rupert, which is having a boom and which promises to make a city. During his absence George Brosterhaus will act as mayor.

War Against Consumption

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colic perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results.—C. W. Merrill, Druggist.
