Tumalo Items.

TUMALO, July 29.—Haying has begun and the hum of the mowers can be heard once again.

Mr. Scoggin passed through here today. He is employed this summer in the national forest.

G. W. Wimer and Wm. Baker were attending to legal business at Bend today.

Mrs. F. P. Smith, Claude Smith, Miss Pearl Hightower, Mrs. King and Miss Baldwin and two other young ladies and a gentleman of Prineville stopped a few moments here Sunday.

J. E. Wimer was a caller at Tumalo today.

Mr. Gilchrist and another packer for the Higon sheep, now on the reserve, nooned here today with six pack horses loaded with supplies for the sheep camps.

Hon. J. A. P. Seabury of Laidlaw is going to get up a county directory. Well, if it is like the paper he got out last week it will be a complete fraud on the people.

Miss Bertha Davis of Gist has been employed this week as stage driver from Gist to Laidlaw.

Jesse Root was laid up last week for a couple of days with a very painful wound, the effect of running a splinter into his hand. He nearly had blood poison.

The people of this community are very indignant over the treatment a couple of ladies from this vicinity received from a Bend business man last week, and some have expressed the opinion that if the better class of Bend's people would give that gentleman a good dose of tar and feathers and a free ride out of town on a rail, they would be doing a good job at cleaning the town.

Inklings at Gist.

Gist, July 27.—Everybody busy haying in this neighborhood.

Miss Bertha Davis is carrying the mail this week as Mr. Van Tassel is harvesting his hay crop.

Chas. Wiley returned from the Valley a few days ago. He says everything down there is booming.

Messrs. Burkhard and Philipps have a contract cutting and putting up hay for Mr. Edmonson near Sisters.

The Central Oregon Railroad seems to be a go this time.

Johnnie and Alfred More have gone to Sherman county for the harvest.

Quite a number of people are going to the berry patches. They report berries scarce.
