H. P. J. McDonald returned to Bend Sunday after spending several weeks at outside points.

Clarence Parker and wife, who have been visiting relatives in Bend, left for their Valley home on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. D. Wilson and Mrs. C. A. Jones visited during the week with Mrs. F. F. Smith at her home at the Gist mill.

Lou L. and Clay W. Fox of Jasper, Mo., were in Bend recently looking over the country. Before leaving they invested in ditch land.

Mr. and Mrs. Creed Triplett and Miss Iva West spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank West at their pleasant home on the upper river.

Harney Lewis and wife and Martin Knutson left Wednesday for a trip to the Valley. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will visit his parents at Jefferson.

We have a couple of snaps in irrigated farms, partly under cultivation, at price of raw land. See us before buying.

MERRILL & WILKINSON.

The Brooks-Scanlon Lumber Company, of Minneapolis, has recently purchased a large tract of timber land on the Lillooet river, in British Columbia. The property was purchased from the North Pacific Lumber Company.—Timberman.

Mrs. F. F. Smith has donated Shakespeare's complete works, in one volume, to the public library. All such donations are very much appreciated by the library management.

C. J. Muck of St. Johns, Oregon, was in Bend last week looking over the field for a business location. He was well pleased with the outlook at Bend and may return later and go into business here.

It is reported that W. M. Wilson of Alaska, who, with his brothers owns 580 acres of ditch land on Powell Buttes, will begin clearing the land this fall preparatory to putting it under cultivation.

Last Saturday the fire fighters returned to Bend from the fire southeast of town, having got it corralled and under control. The men were all discharged and left for their homes Sunday morning.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Stop in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER, 2117

Agent for Champion Binders, Mowers and Rakes, Binder Twine, Barbed Wire, Chicken Netting, Mitchell, Bain and Winona Wagons, Syracuse Plows and Harrows. Come and see me.—E. A. SATHER, Bend, Oregon. 1717

By request of the mayor, attention is called to the ordinance that prohibits discharging fire arms in the city limits. The offense may be punished by a fine of $200 or imprisonment not exceeding 100 days, or both. There is no minimum limit.

W. R. Lawson, S. J. Shadwick, A. G. and J. S. Kuykendall left for the Silver Lake country last Sunday to hunt and fish and look over the land in that section. If the men are satisfied with the country they will undoubtedly file on homesteads.

Walter Check, who drives a large freighting outfit for Chrisman of Silver Lake, had an unlucky trip last time out. He lost a fine large horse between here and Shaliko and another one died in Bend from the colic. Both horses were fine animals.

U. G. Boyer of Salem has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Griffin for the past week. Mr. Boyer being a brother of Mrs. Griffin. He likes the Bend country very well, and says that if he had known of Bend before he located at Salem he certainly would have come here to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Kane left Wednesday afternoon for a visit to their ranch north of Redmond. Hugh has some alfalfa that he is bragging on. The alfalfa was seeded the 10th of June and on July 10 it stood five inches high. All crops on his place are doing very well.

Felix Linster writes to the Bulletin from Revelstoke, B. C., that he is glad to learn that crops are so good in the Bend country, and says: "You want to get a railroad now and I will come back to your country again." Well, Mr. Linster had better start back for the railroad will soon be here.

Elmer Merrill and wife are spending their honeymoon camping through the Valley, and possibly may take a trip to the sea coast. Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Wilkinson accompanied them as far as Sweet Home, and when the former left to return home Mr. and Mrs. Merrill were heading for Eugene.

It appears that Rev. Dunsmoore of Prineville was one of those who went out to fight the forest fires southeast of Bend. At the request of the men he preached to them one Sunday, and the men are now reporting that it was one of the best sermons they ever heard. One man says that Rev. Dunsmoore held the attention of his hearers so closely that you could have heard a pin drop during his discourse.

A. T. Moore and wife were in from their farm Thursday trading in Bend stores.

Joe Buckholz reports that during the shower last Saturday afternoon his place was visited by quite a heavy hail storm, and a lot of damage was done to his garden. His sweet corn was cut into shreds, and considerable damage done to other parts of the garden. Bend was visited by a small shower at the same time but there was very little hail.

During a mild thunder shower last Saturday afternoon a bolt of lightning struck a large pine standing between the Wenandy barn and Millard Triplett's residence, at the north end of Wall street. There were a number of people on the street at the time, and the lightning seemed to be getting pretty close home. No damage was done, however.

A short time ago a party from Fossil were camping on the river along Garden Row. Recently one of the ladies wrote to Bend asking for the address of a local real estate firm. She liked Bend so well when here that she was going to persuade her husband to buy property and come here to live. Hence she wanted to get into communication with a live real estate firm.

J. G. Edwards of the Baldwin Sheep and Land Company and W. F. Burrell of Portland arrived in Bend Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Burrell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards at Hay Creek and the gentlemen decided to take a run to Bend, coming over by automobile conveyance. They spent Wednesday morning fishing along the river above Bend, and left for Hay Creek that afternoon.

S. O. Johnson and wife of San Francisco came into Bend last Saturday in a large automobile accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan. Mr. Johnson is one of the principal owners of the Deschutes Lumber Company of this section, besides owning large tracts of timber in California. He came to look after his interests in this vicinity and while here he and Mrs. Johnson are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan at their pleasant home at The Tules. They came in from California by way of Klamath Falls.

Wm. Olson and C. R. Fultz of Portland have been in Bend for the past week or two, quietly gathering information in regard to timber and picking up a claim whenever they could do so. It is generally conceded that the coming of a railroad will affect the price of timber, and these gentlemen are wise enough to see the importance of getting hold of a good bunch of claims before the price advances. There is certain to be more activity in timber when Hill and Harriman both get to building railroads into this section.

Attention, Asthma Sufferers! Foley's Honey and Tar will give immediate relief to asthma sufferers and has cured many cases that had refused to yield to other treatment. Foley's Honey and Tar is the best remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung trouble. Contains no harmful drugs.—C. W. Merrill, Druggist.

C. W. Riddle of Rosland was a business caller to Bend yesterday for a few hours.

A crew of D. I. & P. surveyors are running a lateral six or seven miles east of Bend, the lateral to be fed from the C. O. canal. This lateral will be a pretty good sized one, having about a 14-foot base. Tom Langon is in charge of the crew, which comprises Glen Cox, George Elliott, Lew Foss and Clint Whitted.

During the fore part of the week there was evidently a forest fire burning on the west side of the Cascades, just opposite the Three Sisters. Howard Spining reports that one day while at his farm east of Bend he noticed a column of smoke rise high into the heavens just behind the Sisters, and a few minutes later a huge black cloud of smoke puffed up, as though the wind had suddenly changed and had driven the smoke to the east. Fortunately all the fires in this section have been gotten under control and have been put out.

No Visiting in Reading Room.

Owing to the ease with which small reading rooms so often degenerate into visiting rooms where friends meet for a social chat, the library board of the Bend institution has adopted a rule in the hopes of preventing this custom in the local library, and has asked the librarian to see that it is enforced. The rule is that there shall be no visiting whatever at any time in the reading room, the only conversation that will be allowed being that necessary in the borrowing of books, and even that should be conducted in a low tone of voice. This rule is to be enforced with as much rigor when there is no one in the room endeavoring to read as when there are those so occupied. The public is asked to observe the rule and assist the librarian to enforce it.

There are two reasons why no visiting will be allowed at any time. First, people are loth to step in and patronize the reading room when they see that two or three or a half dozen people are enjoying a pleasant chat. Thus it has a tendency to decrease the use of the room. Second, if visiting is allowed when no reader is present, it is only a question of time until people become careless and visiting will be common at all times. Hence the only way to keep the reading room what it is intended for—a reading room, not a visiting place—is to prohibit any and all visiting. Will the public kindly help to enforce the rule?

HARRIMAN WILL BUILD.

which has easier grades and is a more direct route than the present line. So that the plans as outlined at the recent conference will mean a line running straight north and south from the Columbia river to the California line and connecting with the Southern Pacific at Weed, Cal., also the extension from Klamath Falls to Natron, and the continuation of the Corvallis & Eastern eastward from Detroit to intersect with the north and south line running from the Columbia to the California line.

It is confidently believed that Harriman will give orders to begin construction as soon as the conference now being held with his lieutenants is ended. That will give a railroad into Central Oregon to haul out the 1909 crop. The long wait is about ended and almost any day may see actual construction begun.

Harriman also intimated that a railroad would soon be built through the southern part of Lakt county and through Harney and Malheur counties to Ontario.

Activity on the Condon Electric.

Contracts for the structural steel work of the new electric road from Condon southward into the Bend country have been let by the Portland Construction Company to J. R. Bowles of the Northwest Bridge Works. This contract gives the Northwest Bridge Works all the bridge construction for the new line on its 200 miles of roadbed. The sub-contract for the grading and construction work on the first 20 miles of the road between Condon and Fossil has also been let, and the grading will be let September 17.

The Condon electric line is headed for Bend, and events would indicate that the financing and building of that road will be successfully accomplished.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.—C. W. Merrill, Druggist.
