LOCAL BITS.

Concert Saturday evening at Lara's hall.

Attorney C. S. Benson was a county seat visitor the first of the week looking after legal matters.

P. R. Reinhardt and Frank Ornt were visitors in Bend Wednesday from their farms west of town.

R. J. McCann has been appointed forest guard, and will be stationed in and around Bend most of the time.

Miss Marion West returned last Friday evening from a visit of several weeks at Portland and other Valley points.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Merrill returned the first of the week from their outing over the mountains and through the Valley.

The hotel at Rosland, and also the town and farm residences of F. S. Bogue are now being given new coats of paint this week.

Judge H. C. Ellis was at Prineville Tuesday and Wednesday attending to county court matters. He returned home Thursday evening.

Dr. R. A. Heritage of Willamette university, who is to give a concert in Bend tomorrow evening, is one of the best soloists in the Northwest. You will miss it if you miss it.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER, 217.

Millard Triplett and Nick Smith are working this week on the job of clothing and papering the Knights of Pythias lodge room. Various other improvements are being made which, when completed, will give the Knights a very comfortable and pleasant Castle Hall.

Remember the concert tomorrow evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Huffman of Prineville, on Sept. 3, a son.

Mrs. A. D. Morrill of Powell Buttes was shopping in Bend yesterday.

J. N. Hunter and family have been spending the past 10 days camping at Crane Prairie.

Miss Maude Vandeventer returned to Bend Wednesday from a visit of several weeks in the Valley.

J. H. Dean is enjoying a visit from his brother, who arrived in Bend recently from Kentucky.

Mrs. F. F. Smith and sons will move into Bend next Sunday so that the boys may be here for the opening of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Alfred Biles and children of Portland, who arrived last evening.

W. P. Vandeventer, accompanied by Clint and Willie, were down from their ranch at Lava Tuesday. Clint made final proof on a timber claim before Commissioner Ellis.

Miss Bessie Dingey and Miss Beatrice Johnson of Prineville, a cousin and niece respectively of Mrs. Henry Whitsett, have visited with Mrs. Whitsett during the week.

The Ladies' Library Club are to be commended for providing Bend with so pleasing a concert as is promised for tomorrow evening, when Dr. R. A. Heritage will render a program of select ballads, humorous and dramatic songs.

The hunting party consisting of Dr. Coe, M. G. Coe and Ralph Patterson returned to Bend last Saturday after having spent a pleasant week in the Paulina mountains. Dr. Coe succeeded in getting a deer. Ducks were very numerous on Paulina lake, and the hunters lived high on venison and duck meat.

Mrs. W. R. Lawson returned to her home in Bend Wednesday after an extended visit with her parents at Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. J. B. Sawhill and two sons returned to Bend Thursday, after a visit of a month with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Vandeventer at their ranch.

The Cornett Stage Company has bought two brand new coaches to be used on its line between Prineville and Bend. The new stages are now in Prineville.

Elmer Merrill reports that there is an abundant crop of fruit in the Valley this year. That will be good news for people in this section who plan to drive over the mountains to the Valley and secure their winter's supply.

M. G. Coe has gone to Shapiko to meet his mother, who is coming to Bend for a visit of several weeks. They will reach here Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

Dr. R. A. Heritage, concert bass, will give a song concert in Lara hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening. If you enjoy good music--and who does not--you will certainly be there.

Rev. G. B. Smith of Portland, who is now holding camp meetings at Prineville, will be in Bend by September 10 for the purpose of holding camp meetings for a few weeks here.

W. P. Vandeventer has recently built a large barn on his ranch at Lava. The barn is equipped with a modern hay fork and track and, with various other improvements, is a great convenience.

It is very probable that another lumber company will soon begin buying timber in this section. The company now has a man here to report on the quality of timber, and he is well pleased with it.

Agent for Champion Binders, Mowers and Rakes, Binder Twine, Barbed Wire, Chicken Netting, Mitchell, Bain and Winona Wagons, Syracuse Plows and Harrows. Come and see me.--E. A. SATHER, Bend, Oregon.

Last Tuesday Dr. U. C. Coe, assisted by Dr. Merrill, performed an operation on Mrs. Milt Roberts, who has been in rather poor health since the birth of her baby last June. The operation was successfully accomplished and Mrs. Roberts is recovering nicely from the effects thereof.

Rev. J. T. Moore of Prineville delivered two very able sermons in Bend last Sunday. He held the close attention of his audience during both discourses, and those who were in attendance speak highly of him as a pulpit speaker. An endeavor will be made to have Rev. Moore make visits to Bend regularly once a month.

Bend people returning from the Valley report that the sentiment in this section regarding railroad building into Central Oregon is very calm and quiet compared with what you find in the Willamette valley. People there are greatly wrought up over the matter, consider the extension a settled affair, and are greatly pleased over the prospects.

When Trifles Become Troubles. If any person suspects that their kidneys are deranged they should take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once and not risk having Bright's disease or diabetes. Delay gives the disease a stronger foothold and you should not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy.--C. W. Merrill, druggist.

The stockholders of the Arnold Irrigation Company held a meeting Tuesday afternoon and authorized the board of directors to levy an assessment of 30 cents an acre, the money to be expended in enlarging and deepening the intake, lowering a section of the flume, and putting an additional board on the sides of the flume so as to carry about two feet of water.

E. A. Cast, of the sales department of the D. I. & P. Co., tells The Bulletin that the company is receiving a large number of inquiries regarding its irrigated lands, twice as many as have ever heretofore been received at both the Portland and Bend offices. People are still watching the Bend country and when the railroad starts there will certainly be a wonderful influx of settlers.

"Dad" West returned Monday from a trip to the Valley, having driven to Lebanon with Dr. and Mrs. Nichols, who were returning to their home in Portland after spending two or three weeks in Bend. "Dad" said the trip over the mountains was a most delightful one, with the exception that on last week Thursday, Friday and Saturday he drove through the rain most of the time.

T. A. Jensen, a farmer living near Tumalo, has gone to Miles, Wash., where he will take charge of a small irrigation plant. Four or five hundred acres are to be irrigated by pumping water from the Spokane river. The company that owns the land plans to put the greater part of it into fruit. Mr. Jensen says he expects to return to this section in a year or two. We wish him success in his new field.

I wish to announce that I have reopened my office in the Bulletin Bldg. I am prepared to transact deeds, mortgages, etc., and do notarial work. I will also do typewriting on short notice. I have just received a new lot of contracts for land in the "Golden Goose Lake Valley." Better come in and take one or more. They are a good investment. C. A. JONES.

Mrs. Paul Kraemer (nee Belle Robinson), with her baby son, arrived in Bend Saturday afternoon from Minnesota. She will be joined in a few weeks by Mr. Kraemer, and they will make their future home here. Mrs. Kraemer having engaged the house to be vacated by Mr. and Mrs. McDonald upon their departure. Mrs. Kraemer was not very much in love with Minnesota as a place of residence, and is glad to get back to Bend.

Quick Relief for Asthma Sufferers. Foley's Honey and Tar affords immediate relief to asthma sufferers in the worst stages and if taken in time will effect a cure.--C. W. Merrill, druggist.

ITCHING SCALP
DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR

are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth. Save your hair before too late. Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair, free from grease and sticky oils. Ask your druggist for free booklet.
