LOCAL BITS.

S. J. Spencer has recently purchased four lots in block 29, city of Bend.

Take a look at The Bulletin's township plats before you buy—two sizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Erickson were in Bend during the week from their ranch on Bear Creek.

John S. Parmenter was released from quarantine Tuesday, having recovered from the smallpox.

J. N. Hunter and W. H. Staats returned from a two weeks trip to Portland last Friday evening.

A social dance will be given in Lara's hall Saturday evening to which all are cordially invited.

Max Richardson, who is with the Central Oregon Railroad surveyors, was in Bend last Sunday.

Milk and cream for sale; first house east of Mrs. C. A. Jones' residence.—W. R. PHILLIPS, 30-32

For sale: Three-year-old mare broke to ride and drive, with saddle and bridle, $50. Call at this office.

Dr. Coe reports that a 9 1/2 lb. boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown at Redmond last Friday night.

Poultry—dressed or alive—always on hand. Laying hens and pullets about to lay, for sale.—WM. DOWNING, Bend, Or. 28tf

We will have in 20 boxes of Hood River peaches next week. These will be the last of the season, so get in your orders early.—KELLEY & ALDRIDGE. 11

Attorney W. P. Myers and "Uncle Frank" Nichols were up from Laidlaw Monday evening to attend the speech delivered by Senator Fulton.

During the past week Millard Triplett has been building a house in the eastern part of town for W.

R. Phillips. The structure measures 16x26 with nine-foot posts.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. O'Connor left Tuesday afternoon for Portland. They went over the mountains with W. J. McGillvray, who will bring back a load of fruit with him.

The Ladies' Library Club will serve waffles at the Steele building all day Saturday, beginning at 7:30 in the morning. With the waffles they will serve either coffee or cocoa.

H. E. Allen is now acting as cashier for the Central Oregon Banking & Trust Company, and M. G. Coe has temporarily taken Mr. Allen's place in the C. O. D. office.

Yearling, home grown fruit trees for sale, at ranch three miles from Bend on Prineville road—sign of red barn. Will be at ranch Nov. 2 to 15.—HOWARD SPINING, Bend, Oregon.

The hose house has been moved to the city's new lot south and east of the Aune hotel, and the hose carts and all other fire fighting paraphernalia will be found there in case of fire.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chapman left Tuesday afternoon for Eugene, driving over the mountains with their private rig. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will spend the winter at different points in the Valley.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER, 211f

The forestry service has estimators at work in the timber southeast of Bend that was burned last summer, and will advertise the timber on the burned tract for sale as soon as the estimates are completed.

FOR SALE—160 acres. Best ranch in the Sisters country. 80 acres in clover, a million feet of yellow pine on the other 80. Good water right. Corvallis & Eastern survey near. House and barn. $2,000 cash, time on balance. This is a snap.—C. A. JONES.

If you like fresh chocolates—and the very finest made—you should step into Kelly & Aldridge's. They have a fine line, just arrived.

William Reynolds of LaGrande, Or., was recently in Bend and bought ditch land. He will return here in about three months and begin developing his property. In the meantime The Bulletin will keep him posted regarding the news in this section.

As we go to press word reaches The Bulletin that W. J. McGillvray, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. O'Connor, and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman were unable to cross the mountains and turned back at Sisters. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor will take the stage at Redmond, and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will drive through to The Dalles. Deep snow fell in the mountains during the recent heavy storm.

MICRO

ITCHING SCALP DANDRUFF AND FALLING-HAIR

are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth. Save your hair before too late. Micro prevents baldness. It is a delightful dressing for the hair, free from grease and sticky oils. Ask your druggist for free booklet.

PORTLAND, OREGON

D. L. McKay of Portland and E. C. Mueller of Davenport, Iowa, of the Mueller Lumber Company, are spending a few days in Bend this week looking after the company's interests in this section. The Mueller company owns a large tract of timber along the Deschutes.

I have returned from Portland with 400 samples of wall paper ranging from 7c up. As I stated before, there is no better booster for any community than a good painter with a brush in his hands, so if you want either papering or painting done, call on me.—N. P. WINDER. 31tf

Ed. Halvorsen is making some substantial improvements on his desert claim these days. He is building a two-wire fence around the entire tract, with the posts set eight feet apart. He will also clear quite a little land, and by spring plans to have about 25 acres ready for the plow.

Fred Hunnell returned to Bend Tuesday after spending the summer at the old home in Nebraska. He was accompanied by his brother, W. H. Hunnell and family, and by a nephew, Fred Van Matre. These latter gentlemen will locate in these parts and W. H. will undoubtedly buy ditch land.

The DeMoss Lyric Bards, a family of vocal and instrumental musicians that has been before the public for years and has toured America many times and Europe at least once, will give their entertainment in Bend on Oct. 27, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church. Watch next week's issue for further announcements.

Mrs. Wm. Orcutt had a runaway Wednesday, but fortunately no serious damage was done. As she was driving along near the J. I. West place in Lytle, a singletree came loose and struck one of the horses on the heels as it fell. They started to run, but Mrs. Orcutt succeeded in heading them into a juniper before any damage was done.

A. Koenig of Tacoma, Wash., has been spending the week in Bend, having come to look after some ditch land which he recently purchased. This is Mr. Koenig's first trip to Bend and he is very much pleased with the country in general, and thinks it has a bright future. He says he will probably move here in about a year and develop his land.

The Woodmen of Bend participated in a very pleasant little gathering last Saturday evening. L. P. Rounds, deputy head consul for Eastern Oregon, was present and delivered a lecture to the lodge, after which refreshments were served in the hall, and later those who wished engaged in dancing. There was a good attendance and all had an enjoyable time.

The D. I. & P. Co. have put on a construction crew east of Bend which will be kept busy during the winter building laterals in that section. The crew comprises some 35 or 40 men and about 15 teams. Most of the land lying east of Bend for several miles has been sold and the company is anxious to get it all under water as soon as possible—that is, get the laterals built to each tract.

The geological surveyors have finished their work in these parts and have returned to Ashland. They found the elevation at Prineville to be 2872 feet. Several years ago another crew of surveyors ran a line into Prineville from the direction of Burns, and this later crew that worked in from Ashland came

SAVED HIS BOY'S LIFE.

"My three-year-old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis.—C. W. Merrill, druggist.

within less than a foot of the altitude of the former crew. At Powell Buttes station the altitude is 3225 feet, and at the cross roads not far from the station it is 3251.

Millard Triplett has bought the furniture stock and business of J. I. West, and will conduct that business hereafter. Mr. Triplett plans to install a small manufacturing plant in a few weeks in the rear of the furniture store, and will order a gasoline engine, turning lathe, and band saw. Thus equipped he will be able to manufacture most of his cheaper, rougher furniture, and also intends to turn out porch pillars, brackets, and similar work. Mr. Triplett has had years of experience in a furniture factory in the South, and will give Bend and vicinity a first-class furniture store.

A cabin recently built by the national forest men in these parts was put up in compliance with plans that had been sent out from Washington, and it is wonderful to behold. The walls of the cabin are only one thickness of light boards, while the roof is a heavy concern, so heavy that the walls bulged and it was necessary to prop them up with jack pine poles. But the strangest and most ridiculous part of all is that through the center of the building there is an open lobby large enough to lead a horse through, with the kitchen on one side and the living room on the other. The men are wondering what dolt made such plans for a rangers' cabin. It might be all right in southern California, but is somewhat amiss for Central Oregon.

A fair sized audience greeted Senator Chas. W. Fulton in Bend last Monday evening, when the Senator appeared here to deliver a political address in behalf of the republican party and of the candidacy of William H. Taft for president of the United States. No preliminary program had been prepared, and after the introduction of the speaker Senator Fulton took the platform and delivered a stirring address of an hour and a half attacking the policies of the democrat party and arguing in favor of those of his own party. He prefaced his address with a few remarks complimentary to this section of the state and then launched into his argument. The speaker commanded the close attention of his audience for about an hour and a half, and advanced several sound arguments why the voters should stand by the republican party and elect William H. Taft to the presidency. The Senator's address is considered more fully in our editorial columns. Tuesday morning Senator Fulton was taken to Prineville in the D. I. & P. Co.'s automobile, where he spoke that evening. He was accompanied to the county seat by Dr. Coe. While in Bend the Senator was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Howard.

Married Man In Trouble.

A married man who permits any member of the family to take anything except Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, is guilty of neglect. Nothing else is as good for all pulmonary troubles. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package.—C. W. Merrill, druggist.

For Sale.

160-acre homestead with 40 acres ditch land adjoining; abundance of wood and water; all fenced; 35 acres cleared; 30 acres under cultivation on ditch land; some seeded to alfalfa; young orchard and other improvements. Inquire of C. H. ELLIS, Prineville, Or.
