E. Atkinson and wife of Redmond came to Bend Wednesday for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Steidl.

F. A. Kennard and B. W. Kendall, ranchers near Redmond, registered at the Pilot Butte Inn last Wednesday.

E. A. Sather is having the warehouse painted that adjoins his store building on the north, Nick Weider doing the work.

Mrs. R. J. McCann, who has spent a goodly part of the summer at the old home in Minneapolis, returned to Bend last evening.

It was reported in Bend that Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sellers would leave Wisconsin about the 20th on their return to Bend after a two months visit at Chippewa Falls.

Remember the entertainment by the DeMoss Musical Bards at the church next Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church.

See J. H. Bean for nursery goods. Agent for The Dalles Nursery Company.

Take a look at The Bulletin's township plats before you buy—two sizes.

Sylvester Staats is attending Willamette University at Salem, and is taking a course in law.

E. A. Smith, who has been at Portland for several weeks, returned to Bend the first of the week.

Milk and cream for sale; first house east of Mrs. C. A. Jones' residence.—W. R. PHILLIPS. 30-32

Rev. J. T. Moore will hold services in the Baptist church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

J. H. Bean has the agency in these parts for The Dalles Nursery Company, and says he is selling quite a lot of nursery stock to farmers hereabouts.

E. A. Cast has purchased from L. D. Wiest 200 Cumberland Blackcap and 100 Golden Queen raspberry plants and will set them out on his lots in Bend.

The timber men of Bend report that considerable timber is changing hands these days, but the price has not gone up much, not being as high as it was a few months ago.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER. 21tf

F. W. Koeppen of Pendleton, Oregon, spent the first of the week in Bend looking over the town and country. He was quite favorably impressed with the outlook for Bend's future and bought some town lots before leaving.

Waldo Taylor and wife and W. S. Wing passed through Bend on the 10th on their way to their home at Silver Lake. Mr. Taylor had just been married at Portland to Miss Georgia Hughes, and he was returning with his bride to his home.

FOR SALE—160 acres. Best ranch in the Sisters country. 80 acres in clover, a million feet of yellow pine on the other 80. Good water right. Corvallis & Eastern survey near. House and barn. $2,000 cash, time on balance. This is a snap.—C. A. JONES.

I have returned from Portland with 400 samples of wall paper ranging from 7c up. As I stated before, there is no better booster for any community than a good painter with a brush in his hands, so if you want either papering or painting done, call on me.—N. P. WITERS. 31tf

E. A. Baldwin of Portland, who is one of the stockholders in the Deschutes irrigation project, and who has other interests in Central Oregon, was in town Tuesday on his way home from Bend. Mr. Baldwin is very sanguine over the railroad situation with reference to Central Oregon, and believes that this county will have a road built in, possibly two roads, within the next two years. He says he is positive the present activity along the Deschutes will crystallize into actual construction work within a very short time.—Madras Pioneer.

Last Friday evening R. B. Mutzig returned to Bend accompanied by Mrs. Mutzig and their little daughter, Katherine, and also by Mrs. Mutzig's aunt, Miss Potter, of Washington, Penn. Miss Potter will spend about a year here with Mr. and Mrs. Mutzig. They had planned to spend the winter at Salem, but when they got there they became discouraged with the continual rain and decided to return to Bend. Mrs. Mutzig has been at Pittsburg, Penn., for over a year.

The DeMoss Lyric Bards, who will give their musical entertainment in Bend on the 27th, are sure to please the public. There are eight high class musicians in the company, and they have sung and played in every large city of the United States and Canada and also in Europe. They have been employed at the Chicago, Omaha, St. Louis and Lewis and Clark Expositions. There should be a good attendance at this company's entertainment. The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church are behind the entertainment, and their share of the proceeds will go towards purchasing a system of gas lights for the church.
