For Sale:—Three good horses, hack and harness, $300. Inquire at Bulletin office.

County Commissioner R. H. Bayley of Laidlaw was a Bend visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Minor and son Kenneth were in from their homestead the latter part of last week.

Wm. Arnold was in Prineville during the first of the week looking after business matters.

Two tons of coal and foot warmers at John Legat's. Just the thing for driving in cold weather.

R. J. Stockmyer, postoffice inspector, was in town last Saturday attending to his official duties.

J. H. Haner of Prineville came over to Bend yesterday and is transacting business in town today.

Nick Smith is building a warehouse 20x45 feet onto the rear of S. C. Caldwell's store building.

E. A. Sather has also painted the front of his store building, which improves its appearance greatly.

Fresh bread for sale at the Pilot Butte Inn, baked every day; also homemade mince meat. 33-36

F. W. McCaffery and Frank Doney of Redmond registered at the Pilot Butte Inn last Saturday.

Milk and cream for sale; first house east of Mrs. C. A. Jones' residence.—W. R. PHILLIPS. 30-12

Found—Royal Neighbor lodge pin. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

A. M. Lara expects his father to arrive in Bend next week from Seattle. Mrs. Lara will drive out to meet him at Shaniko.

Joe McKay will leave in a few days for Portland, where he will spend the winter. He expects to return to Bend next spring.

If you like fresh chocolates—and the very finest made—you should step into Kelly & Aldridge's. They have a fine line, just arrived.

Miss Iva West will leave for Portland next Wednesday, where she will continue her studies on the violin under a private instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lara and Max Richardson left for Silver Lake last Sunday where they will make final proof on timber claims.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan and Miss Marian Myers were at Silver Lake this week, where Miss Myers made final proof on a timber claim.

Carlyle and Tom Triplett, Henry Whitsett and Barney Lewis left Wednesday for up-river points on a hunting trip of three or four days.

A. B. Bains, Theodore Atine and Elmer Johnson were at Silver Lake the first of the week, where Mr. Johnson made proof on a timber claim.

Mr. Ralph Dunn and Mrs. Tina Bird were married at the Poindexter Hotel in Prineville on Wednesday, Oct. 21, Justice Ralph Sharp officiating.

Mrs. G. B. Pulliam, accompanied by her son, G. G. Pulliam, and C. M. Brock of Wasco, were looking after business interests in town last Saturday.

A band of cattle numbering 580 head passed through Bend Thursday morning enroute to Shaniko from Klamath Marsh. They belonged to Mayfield, Davis & Mayfield.

Remember the game dinner—wild duck and lots of other good things—that will be served in the Steele restaurant building on election day. All for the small sum of 25 cents.

E. R. Halterman and wife were Bend visitors last Saturday having come in from their ranch at Powell Buttes. While here Mrs. Halterman filed on a timber claim about 16 miles north of Sisters.

I am now agent for the DeLaval cream separator, and have one of these machines in stock. Step in and examine it. They are a great convenience and money saver for the dairyman. E. A. SATHER. 211f

Miss Iva West was a Prineville visitor last week from Bend to take in the fair. Miss West also assisted the Morrau orchestra on Friday night at the grand ball, playing the violin superbly.—Prineville Review

In a letter to John Legat, Andy Hunter says that he is not very well pleased with his farming ventures in Colorado this year and that his health has been poor. He will spend a part of the winter at Burns.

FOR SALE—160 acres. Best ranch in the Sisters country. 80 acres in clover, a million feet of yellow pine on the other 80. Good water right. Corvallis & Eastern survey near House and barn. $2,000 cash, time on balance. This is a snap.—C. A. JONES.

I have returned from Portland with 400 samples of wall paper ranging from 7c up. As I stated before, there is no better booster for any community than a good painter with a brush in his hands, so if you want either papering or painting done, call on me.—N. P. WEIDNER. 311f

A few of the ladies of Bend are organizing a physical culture club. Mr. Paul Johnson, who has had considerable experience in this line of work, has consented to direct the ladies, while during his absence the club will be under the care of Misses Pearl Hightower and Cornelia Wilson.

The Royal Neighbors gave a very pleasant little social last Saturday evening. While the attendance was not very large, yet those there spent an enjoyable evening. Refreshments were served and later dancing was indulged in, the music being furnished by Mrs. Grant's piano and planola.

J. B. Wimer of Tumalo was a pleasant caller at The Bulletin office last Monday. In discussing various methods of farming, Mr. Wimer stated that they had inoculated the seed before sowing in one of their alfalfa fields, and that this alfalfa made a much better stand than the field that had not been thus treated.

The Bulletin wishes to correct a slight error that appeared recently in its columns regarding an ad. inserted by C. H. Ellis. The ad. would give the impression that Mr. Ellis' homestead was for sale, when in fact it was only a relinquishment on the homestead, while an adjoining 40-acre tract of ditch land was "for sale."

On October 19 Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Drake celebrated their crystal wedding at the home of Mrs. Drake's brother in Little Falls, Minnesota. Mr. Drake postponed his departure for the West somewhat in order to be present at the above-mentioned pleasant event, but he has now arrived at Portland and is registered at the Portland hotel.

Last spring a man by the name of Bly came to Bend and filed on a homestead along the river several miles south of here. This week Bly's brother, who has been living in Idaho, arrived in town looking for Mr. Bly, whom he had not seen for over 30 years, and finally located him. The new comer expects to locate in these parts, and will buy land.

Paul Johnson, connected with the Deschutes Lumber Company, whose holdings south of Bend were visited by the late fires, is in Prineville. He says the company's loss was slight, the fires for the most part cleaning up only the pitchy trees, which are valueless for lumber, and the carpet of pine needles and cones. The men in charge had to work some, though.—Review.

Mrs. W. B. Wilson and son Joe reached Bend Monday evening, and will remain here probably during the winter. Mr. Wilson will follow in a short time, and will also spend a part of the winter here. Mr. Wilson has been foreman on a large ranch in the Burns country during the past season, but his presence is not required there during the winter. He will return to his work on the ranch next spring.

Yesterday noon a coyote went leisurely wandering along the road in the open tract south of the C. O. D. Co. office, and was spied by Roscoe Howard from the D. I. & P. Co. building. He got his rifle and now there's one coyote less in the world. The coyote's leisurely shamble and its apparent inability to get up much locomotion, led the onlookers to believe that the coyote must have been sick. But it isn't sick now.

Woman Interrupts Political Speaker. A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. If she had taken Foley's Honey and Tar it would have cured her cough quickly and expelled the cold from her system. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes.—C. W. Merrill, druggist.
