Not Disappointed.
Goodman Gourow—I've had the offer of a job and I've a great mind to go to work.

Haymold Storey—I always knowed there was a yellor streak in you.

Cause and Effect.
The Doctor—That is a point in therapeutics I shall have to look up. I find I am growing rusty.

The Professor—Rusty? Then there is too much iron in your blood.

Explained at Last.
The late Dr. Morgan Dix, said a clergyman of New York, "had a droll way of lightening grave subjects with little humorous asides. Once I heard him addressing a graduating class at a medical school. He began in this way: 'Physiologists tell us, gentlemen, that the older a man grows the smaller his brain becomes. This explains why the old man knows nothing and the young one everything.'"

A Bit Fishy, This.
Porpoise—What is the whale blowing about?
Dough—Oh, he got so many notices for his feat in swallowing Jonah he's been blowing ever since.—Boston Transcript.

The Famous Four.
Each of the following named gentlemen, upon being out late with the boys has concocted a famous excuse, and what is more wonderful, got away with it. They are: Junah, Ulysses, Rip Van Winkle, Robinson Crusoe.—Judge.

Early Date.
On the third finger of her left hand the sweet young thing wore a magnificent solitaire.

"So you're going to marry a prince, are you?" said the necessary questioner.
"A prince? I don't understand."
"The son of a coal king."
"O, yes," smiled the sweet young thing. "I'm to be his Cinder Ella."

Peanuts Imported.
So many peanuts are eaten in this country that the native supply is not sufficient for the demand and about $5,000 worth of the African nuts were imported from Marcellus in 1906 and over $75,000 worth in 1907. The west coast of Africa produces quantities of peanuts.

Society Horror.
"Gayman, I saw you in the conservatory the other afternoon embracing an elderly spinster."
"I don't deny it, Goodness. I was trying to conserve our natural resources."
"Wh-what?"
"Reclaiming an arid waist."

Prospective Business.
"I'll take your damage case," said the lawyer, helping to his feet the man just hit by an automobile.
"Thank you," replied the victim.
"I'm not much hurt, but I recognized that measly chauffeur. He may have a case for you later."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Enough to Wake Them.
"It's wonderful," said Dudley, "how wide-awake the Japanese have become in recent years."
"Oh, it's not so wonderful," replied the observant man, "when you consider that they have an earthquake every night or so in their country."—Philadelphia Press.

Appalling Result.
Sadly the mermaid regarded herself in her mirror.
"This," she said, "is the penalty imposed by nature for the absurd effort of my ancestresses, ages ago, to abolish hips!"
From which we learn how dangerous it is to meddle with the orderly processes of evolution.

PERUNA A TONIC OF GREAT USEFULNESS.

HON. R. S. THARIN.

Hon. R. S. Tharin, attorney at law and counsel for Anti-Trust League, writes from Pennsylvania Ave. N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"Having used Peruna for Catarrhal disorders, I am able to testify to its great remedial excellence and do not hesitate to give it my emphatic endorsement and earnest recommendation to all persons affected by that disorder. It is also a tonic of great usefulness."

Mr. T. Barnecott, West Aylmer, Ontario, Can., writes: "Last winter I was ill with pneumonia after having in grippe. I took Peruna for two months, when I became quite well. I also induced a young lady, who was all run down and confined to the house, to take Peruna, and after taking Peruna for three months she is able to follow her trade of tailoring. I can recommend Peruna for all such who are ill and require a tonic."

Per-una Tablets.
Some people prefer to take tablets, rather than to take medicine in a fluid form. Such people can obtain Peruna tablets, which represent the solid medicinal ingredients of Peruna. Each tablet is equivalent to one average dose of Peruna.

In 1920.
"Prisoner," said the magistrate severely, "you are charged with being a millionaire. How did you happen to fall?"

"Your honor," responded the trembling man at the bar, "in a moment of weakness I made a book on the races."

"You're not incurable," rejoined the magistrate, who at heart was not unkind. "Go and reform by playing the book of some other fellow. Dismissed."—Philadelphia Ledger.
